Present Structure's 90

$989,000 Bond Issue Authorized For County Home

A proposed bond issue of $989,000 for a new County Home was authorized for the Nov. 3 ballot by Columbiana County commissioners Monday at Lisbon. It would be financed by a levy of forty-eight hundredths of a mill.

R. Max Gard, chairman of the commissioners, said the proposed levy would be for 25 years, and would cost each family about $2 annually.

The commissioners took the action because of the age and fire hazards connected with the present 90-year-old structure on Route 172 west of Lisbon.

Gard said the present home—which houses 80 men and 41 women—is in need of repairs.

The proposed new home would be located on the County Home Grounds, but a little south of the present home.

Tentative plans call for a mens' and women's wings, administrative section, rooms for elderly married couples, a medical section, chapel and laundry.

Robert F. Beatty, city archetect now preparing plans, said the home would be a "campus type" array of buildings and wings to which additions could be made later for expansion.

In 1951 a proposed $780,000 bond issue for an annex to the County Home, a new jail and a juvenile receiving home was turned down by voters by a 3-2 margin.

A new jail has since been constructed.

School Units Due $320,180 New State Aid

12 County Districts Will Get More Funds In Compromise Plan

City, exempted village and local school districts in Columbiana County will receive $320,180 more in state school aid starting Jan. 1 as the result of a "compromise" reached when the big school bill finally was passed by the State Legislature last week.

The 12 districts now receive slightly more than $3 million each year under the state foundation program.

The "compromise" was worked out by leaders of the House and Senate at a conference last week with Gov. Michael V. DiSalle.

The final legislation is much closer to the Senate-approved bill than the version passed by the House.

In East Liverpool, city schools will receive $79,683 more than the $738,748 allotted this year. The final figure is only $685 more than the Senate version called for but $31,959 less than the amount the House had approved.

The original House bill would have given East Liverpool schools $111,642 more than they received this year. However, the Senate education committee, slashing some $17 million from allotments for teacher salaries and restoring about $9 million in other apportionments, recommended a bill which would have allowed city schools $78,998.

DiSalle had indicated, however, that he would not sign a school bill that called for spending in excess of the appropriation. And that apparently was how the agreement was worked out.

Of the $738,748 due in state aid, $112,682 is deducted by the state for retirement payments for East Liverpool teachers and other employes before the funds are turned over to the local board.

Neither the city school district nor the 11 others in the county will receive the full increase because of a deduction for retirement. The retirement cost also has been increased from 6 to 7 per cent.

East Liverpool schools will receive the most with two neighboring districts next in line. Beaver Local will receive nearly $46,000 more and Wellsville's aid will be boosted by $37,805.

700 Strikers Sign For Food

Union Officials Will Also Seek Ohio Help

About 700 striking steelworkers of Beaver County employed in the Midland area signed up for surplus food during registration held Thursday and Friday at the Midland hall, Joe D'Alesio, Local 1212 president, said today.

Applications were returned Monday to the office of Benedict Zupi, Beaver County surplus food administrator in Beaver. Distribution dates will be announced later.

The local and James Mullen of East Liverpool, international representative, are inquiring about surplus food registration for Midland steelworkers who reside in Ohio.

Those in Chester affected by the steel strike may register for surplus food Thursday from 1 to 5 p. m. at the Chester fire station, Donald G. Stewart, clerk of the Hancock County Court, has announced. A welfare representative will be on hand to take applications, he said.

Driver Jailed After One Of 4 City Mishaps

Police Report None Injured In Series Of Minor Accidents

A Glenmoor area man was fined and jailed for drunken driving after a mishap early today on Dresden Ave., one of four accidents reported by police since noon Monday.

Earl Richard Tucker, 36, of Anneseley Rd. was fined $300 and costs, sentenced to 10 days in jail on the drunk driving charge and an additional $25 and costs for driving without a license. Tucker had been using a South Carolina operator's permit, which had expired, police said.

Tucker was headed south on Dresden Ave. at 12:24 a. m. today when his car struck a utility pole at Moore St. and loosened a cast iron protective pipe erected by the city.

No one was injured in the other three accidents, police said.

Tom Boyle Bell, 33, of 1230 Chaffin St. aimed his car at a guide wire of a utility pole after his brakes failed on the E. 5th St. hill late yesterday afternoon.

Bell told police he had stopped in a line of traffic when his brakes let go and the parking gear wouldn't halt the auto. His car climbed a guide wire as Bell averted a collision with other autos, police said.

Firemen were called a few minutes after the mishap near Walnut St. to flush gasoline.

A young girl learning to drive figured in a mishap at 8:52 p. m. on Ohio Ave., police said.

Leota D. Cole, 16, of 773 Ohio Ave., was being instructed by Bruce M. Rickerd, 191 Haywood St., when she struck the parked car of Grayce G. Wolfe, 1023 Ohio Ave., police said. The entire front end of Rickerd's 1953 coupe was damaged, police said.

A station wagon operated by Homer H. Higgins of Township Line Rd., Wellsville, and a car driven by Mary K. Wright of Pond St. were involved in a collision at 2:24 p. m. at Dresden Ave. and 9th St., police reported.

The woman said she was parking a car owned by J. M. McCollough, 449 Ogden St., and had started to get out when the open door was struck by Higgins' station wagon. Higgins said she opened the door after he started to pass.

Cunningham Granted Delay In Sentencing

Sentencing of Ira Cunningham, former city police officer, for bribery of a prospective juror was postponed this morning at Lisbon by Judge Joel H. Sharp until Aug. 10.

The attempted bribery of a prospective juror is charged at his 1958 burglary trial when Cunningham and Jerry Raimond, former special officer, were convicted of the 1952 entering of the Smith & Phillips Co.

Judge Sharp delayed sentencing to confer with County Prosecutor G. William Brokaw.

Cunningham and Raimond were sentenced in January to 1-15 years at the Ohio Penitentiary at Columbus for the burglaries, but filed appeals to the 7th District Court and are free on bond.

Atty. Hugo Alexander of Steubenville, counsel for Cunningham, said this morning he plans to appeal the bribery sentencing also.

Newest U.S. State Holds First Voting

Hawaii Will Elect 2 To Senate, State Assembly, Governor

HONOLULU (AP)—The nation's newest state votes today in its first election.

From Hilo to Honolulu, the melting pot of people who live on this 300-mile island chain, cast ballots for two U.S. senators, one representative, a governor and a 76-member state Legislature. The polls close at 11:30 p. m. EDT.

It appeared certain — for the first time in U.S. history—that a person of Japanese or Chinese ancestry would be sent to Congress.

Republicans conceded their underdog role but hoped to upset predictions of a Democratic sweep by grabbing several major offices.

Democrats made a strong showing in the June primary and have won Hawaii elections since 1954.

Election officials predicted a record vote, perhaps 90 per cent of the 183,099 registrants.

Most Hawaii attention was focused on the race for governor, pitting Democrat John A. Burns against Eisenhower - appointed Gov. William F. Quinn.

Burns, 50, serving a second term as elected delegate to Congress, piled up 69,152 votes in winning the Democratic nomination June 27 from a comparatively unknown opponent.

Quinn, 40, got 49,531 votes in running unopposed for the Republican candidacy.

Democrats believe they have a sure winner in Japanese-American Daniel K. Inouye, 34, running for Hawaii's lone House seat.

Opposing him is Dr. Charles K. Silva, 55, a dentist who is director of public institutions.

Two oldtimers in island politics are contesting for one of the Senate seats.

They are Oren E. Long, 70, former appointed governor and longtime territorial legislator, and Wilfred C. Tsukiyama, 62, territorial senator and elder statesman of island politicians of Japanese ancestry.

Long is a Democrat, Tsukiyama a Republican.

For the other Senate seat, Hawaii-born Republican Hiram L. Fong, 52, millionaire Chinese-American businessman, is opposing Connecticut - Born Frank F. Fesi, 38, a territorial senator who scored the only upset of the primary by winning the Democratic nomination.

Killer Of Dad Due Hearing

2 Others In Beaver Await Assault Case

Clarence M. Swogger Jr., 22, of New Galilee R. D. 1, who was arraigned last Thursday evening following the killing of his father, will get a hearing Wednesday at 2 p. m. before Justice of the Peace John Bell of Monaca, Pennsylvania State Police said.

Swogger is alleged to have used a rifle and pistol and pumped more than a dozen .22 caliber bullets, perhaps 20, into his father, for beating his mother.

Swogger called the Rochester barracks of the Pennsylvania State Police, then changed clothes and waited the officer's arrival.

In another case handled by the Rochester barracks, Robert Reed, 26, and Mervin Davidson, 23, both of Beaver Falls, are scheduled to have a hearing this afternoon on three charges each involving an alleged attempt to rape a 23-year-old East Palestine area woman in North Sewickley Township July 20.

Both will appear before Justice of the Peace Mrs. Frances Zuck of Beaver Falls R. D. 2. Each is charged with assault with intent to ravish, robbery, and aggravated assault and battery, police said. They took $4 from the woman, police said.

Authorities Hopeful Argentine Crisis Over

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—Authorities were hopeful today that a military crisis plaguing President Arturo Frondizi for two months was ended with the appointment of Gaston Clement, a retired rear admiral and anti-Peronist, as navy secretary.

Clement, 56, a respected career officer, promised to work toward restoring discipline in the navy.

Navy commanders, echoing army charges that Frondizi's government was riddled with followers of ousted dictator Juan D. Peron, forced the resignation of Vice Adm. Adolfo Estevez as navy secretary.

Has Perfect Alibi

NEW YORK (AP) — Arthur Camper, 42, identified by a grocer as one of a pair who held him up for $350 two weeks ago, had a perfect alibi. He was in jail, awaiting sentence for auto theft. He was cleared Monday of any connection with the holdup.

Signs Growing More Favorable Ike Ask Visit By Khrushchev

NOVOSIBIRSK, Soviet Union (AP)—About 20,000 friendly, applauding Russians gave Vice President Richard M. Nixon the warmest welcome of his Soviet tour when he arrived in this Siberian city today for a goodwill visit.

Nixon arrived amid solid signs he was considering more and more favorably a recommendation that President Eisenhower invite Premier Nikita Khrushchev to the United States for a visit.

Persons close to Nixon were understood to be making some impact on him with arguments that Khrushchev must see for himself the strength and vigor of the American economy and the unity of its people to rid him of misconceptions.

Thousands of men and women lined the streets here, in some places four and five deep, to wave greetings to Nixon and his wife.

Communist leaders of this developing Siberian industrial area rode through town with the Nixons.

A bus carrying American correspondents traveling with Nixon was nearly mobbed by several thousand excited Russians, hands outstretched in greeting, when they arrived in Stalin Square.

Soviet authorities were understood to have agreed finally to allow Nixon to tour the Siberian branch of the Academy of Sciences. This will be a big scientific research center for the entire Siberian-Ural area.

Nixon insisted on this visit during his 4½-hour one-stop flight to Leningrad.

Meanwhile, authorities familiar with Nixon's views reported he believed his tour thus far has surpassed his expectations after a slow, rather cool welcome in Moscow.

The crowds who welcomed him in Leningrad were about three times as large as those in Moscow. The turnout at Novosibirsk surpassed the fondest hopes of American aides accompanying him on the visit.

When he arrived, Nixon found many of the women wearing babushkas — or handkerchiefs — over their heads and men with blue tams and work clothes applauding him.

Several times he stopped to shake hands with youngsters, including some girls.

Strife Feared After Slaying In Lebanon

Ex-Right-Hand-Man Of Former President Chamoun Is Killed

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — A right-hand man of former President Camille Chamoun was assassinated Monday night while driving to a champagne reception at President Fuad Chehab's summer palace. Security forces were rushed to the scene to prevent a spread of violence.

Police said Naim Moghabghab, 48-year-old member of the Lebanese Parliament and a former guerilla fighter, was beaten and stabbed to death while driving through territory dominated by followers of his political foe, Socialist leader Kamal Jumblatt.

Authorities said those responsible for the assassination had been arrested but did not identify them.

Friends of Moghabghab gave a different version. They said the pistol-packing leader had been gunned down from a nearby house while driving at the head of a caravan of cars filled with his followers.

The assassination sparked fears of a vendetta which could plunge Lebanon into strife similar to that of last summer. It was about a year ago that the assassination of journalist Nessib Metni prompted a widespread general strike by enemies of Chamoun which developed into a five-month civil war.

Negotiations Deadlocked

Aluminum Strike Looms On Friday

NEW YORK (AP) — A major strike in the aluminum industry was threatened today as negotiations in the two-week-old steel strike remained deadlocked.

David J. McDonald, president of the United Steelworkers of America, said he expected no agreement in the aluminum industry before contracts with major firms expire at midnight Friday.

McDonald, whose union represents workers in aluminum as well as steel, said the same "no contract, no work" policy covers both industries.

The copper industry also faced a possible strike threat.

Officials of the Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers Union were reported considering a strike against the nation's copper plants and mines next month. The union's contracts expired June 30, but its members are working while negotiations continue.

Steel industry and union representatives met jointly Monday for the first time since the nationwide steel strike began.

Joseph F. Finnegan, director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, met newsmen after the two-hour session.

"There was no exchange of viewpoints by the parties, but I can't say anything beyond that," Finnegan said. "I don't think there was any substantial change in the position of either party."

Finnegan scheduled separate meetings with both sides today. But there was no immediate plan for joint talks.

The situation "doesn't look good," Finnegan said.

The strike threat in the aluminum industry is against the Big Three — the Aluminum Co. of America, the Reynolds Metals Co. and the Kaiser Aluminum & Chemical Corp.

Contract negotiations in the aluminum industry are continuing here with the help of federal mediators, but no progress has been reported.

The Big Three aluminum producers—like the major steel companies — have rejected a United Steelworkers' demand for a wage increase of 15 cents an hour in each year of the new contract. The aluminum companies, like the steel companies, have proposed a one-year wage freeze.

Will Submit New Proposal

West To Remain In Berlin If Germany Stays Divided

GENEVA (AP)— The Western Allies today were reported determined to remain in West Berlin as long as Germany remains divided.

Diplomatic informants said a revised Western proposal being drawn up for the Big Four foreign ministers' conference would demand once again that the Soviets pledge not to take unilateral action against West Berlin at any time in the future.

Over the weekend British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd had been reported pressuring his allies to accept a Soviet pledge for a limited time. But Lloyd was said today to have agreed with U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter that Western policy on the issue of protection for West Berlin should stand unchanged.

Both the Soviet Union and the Western powers were rewriting their rival proposals for breaking the Berlin crisis. Each side obviously hoped the other would come up with new concessions.

The Big Four ministers planned no meeting today. But the three Western ministers met and were reported to have sought some new formula for resuming stalled East-West disarmament negotiations.

Diplomatic sources said this problem probably would be taken up with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko before the Geneva Conference ends. Gromyko is said to have indicated an interest in the disarmament question in private talks.

There have been no disarmament negotiations since 1957 when the Soviet Union denounced the U.N. Disarmament subcommittee on the grounds that it was one-sided. It was composed of the United States, Britain, France, Canada and the Soviet Union.

7 Prisoners Flee Jail In Newport, Ky.

2 Are Considered Dangerous; All Still Believed At Large

NEWPORT, Ky. (AP) — Seven prisoners, at least two of them considered dangerous, broke out of Newport City Jail early today. All are believed still at large.

Five of the escapees were being held on federal charges. The other two were local men.

Authorities said Demphus Lewis and Howard D. Glenn were under 20-year sentences and are regarded as dangerous.

The departure of the prisoners was discovered at about 4 a.m. They reportedly sawed two bars to get onto the runway of the second floor, where they were confined. Then they went to the rear of the building, forced out a heavy screening and made the short drop from there to the ground.

Alerted and searching were police in Cincinnati and Hamilton County, just across the Ohio River from Newport, and officers from three Kentucky counties. The FBI was also participating.

The other federal prisoners were Joseph Dinardo, Elbert Wellman and Lawrence Adams. The local prisoners were Carl H. Webb and Harry Lee King.

The floor on which the prisoners were kept was apparently unattended, as no violence is known to have occurred when they escaped.

Four other prisoners, held in the same cellblock, did not join the escapees.

Police said those four told them the escaped men had been sawing the bars for three days and had threatened to kill anyone who told of the escape attempt.

Road blocks were set up on the four bridges leading from Newport and Covington to Cincinnati

4 Adults, Baby Girl Dies In Brooklyn Fire

NEW YORK (AP)—Four adults and a baby girl, perished today as fire swept through two Brooklyn tenement houses. Two of the dead were women and two men.

Four others jumped from the third floor. They were reported in serious conditons at a hospital.

Three policemen were injured fighting the fire.

The fire broke out shortly after 3 a.m. It was reported under control about two hours later.

Police said the fire was apparently of suspicious origin.

Nixon arrived amid solid signs he was considering more and more favorably a recommendation that President Eisenhower invite Premier Nikita Khrushchev to the United States for a visit.

Persons close to Nixon were understood to be making some impact on him with arguments that Khrushchev must see for himself the strength and vigor of the American economy and the unity of its people to rid him of misconceptions.

Thousands of men and women lined the streets here, in some places four and five deep, to wave greetings to Nixon and his wife.

Communist leaders of this developing Siberian industrial area rode through town with the Nixons.

A bus carrying American correspondents traveling with Nixon was nearly mobbed by several thousand excited Russians, hands outstretched in greeting, when they arrived in Stalin Square.

Soviet authorities were understood to have agreed finally to allow Nixon to tour the Siberian branch of the Academy of Sciences. This will be a big scientific research center for the entire Siberian-Ural area.

Nixon insisted on this visit during his 4½-hour one-stop flight to Leningrad.

Meanwhile, authorities familiar with Nixon's views reported he believed his tour thus far has surpassed his expectations after a slow, rather cool welcome in Moscow.

The crowds who welcomed him in Leningrad were about three times as large as those in Moscow. The turnout at Novosibirsk surpassed the fondest hopes of American aides accompanying him on the visit.

When he arrived, Nixon found many of the women wearing babushkas — or handkerchiefs — over their heads and men with blue tams and work clothes applauding him.

Several times he stopped to shake hands with youngsters, including some girls.

Ex-Right-Hand-Man Of Former President Chamoun Is Killed

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — A right-hand man of former President Camille Chamoun was assassinated Monday night while driving to a champagne reception at President Fuad Chehab's summer palace. Security forces were rushed to the scene to prevent a spread of violence.

Police said Naim Moghabghab, 48-year-old member of the Lebanese Parliament and a former guerilla fighter, was beaten and stabbed to death while driving through territory dominated by followers of his political foe, Socialist leader Kamal Jumblatt.

Authorities said those responsible for the assassination had been arrested but did not identify them.

Friends of Moghabghab gave a different version. They said the pistol-packing leader had been gunned down from a nearby house while driving at the head of a caravan of cars filled with his followers.

The assassination sparked fears of a vendetta which could plunge Lebanon into strife similar to that of last summer. It was about a year ago that the assassination of journalist Nessib Metni prompted a widespread general strike by enemies of Chamoun which developed into a five-month civil war.

Authorities Hopeful Argentine Crisis Over

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—Authorities were hopeful today that a military crisis plaguing President Arturo Frondizi for two months was ended with the appointment of Gaston Clement, a retired rear admiral and anti-Peronist, as navy secretary.

Clement, 56, a respected career officer, promised to work toward restoring discipline in the navy.

Navy commanders, echoing army charges that Frondizi's government was riddled with followers of ousted dictator Juan D. Peron, forced the resignation of Vice Adm. Adolfo Estevez as navy secretary.

Has Perfect Alibi

NEW YORK (AP) — Arthur Camper, 42, identified by a grocer as one of a pair who held him up for $350 two weeks ago, had a perfect alibi. He was in jail, awaiting sentence for auto theft. He was cleared Monday of any connection with the holdup.

Negotiations Deadlocked

Aluminum Strike Looms On Friday

NEW YORK (AP) — A major strike in the aluminum industry was threatened today as negotiations in the two-week-old steel strike remained deadlocked.

David J. McDonald, president of the United Steelworkers of America, said he expected no agreement in the aluminum industry before contracts with major firms expire at midnight Friday.

McDonald, whose union represents workers in aluminum as well as steel, said the same "no contract, no work" policy covers both industries.

The copper industry also faced a possible strike threat.

Officials of the Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers Union were reported considering a strike against the nation's copper plants and mines next month. The union's contracts expired June 30, but its members are working while negotiations continue.

Steel industry and union representatives met jointly Monday for the first time since the nationwide steel strike began.

Joseph F. Finnegan, director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, met newsmen after the two-hour session.

"There was no exchange of viewpoints by the parties, but I can't say anything beyond that," Finnegan said. "I don't think there was any substantial change in the position of either party."

Finnegan scheduled separate meetings with both sides today. But there was no immediate plan for joint talks.

The situation "doesn't look good," Finnegan said.

The strike threat in the aluminum industry is against the Big Three — the Aluminum Co. of America, the Reynolds Metals Co. and the Kaiser Aluminum & Chemical Corp.

Contract negotiations in the aluminum industry are continuing here with the help of federal mediators, but no progress has been reported.

The Big Three aluminum producers—like the major steel companies — have rejected a United Steelworkers' demand for a wage increase of 15 cents an hour in each year of the new contract. The aluminum companies, like the steel companies, have proposed a one-year wage freeze.

Will Submit New Proposal

West To Remain In Berlin If Germany Stays Divided

GENEVA (AP)— The Western Allies today were reported determined to remain in West Berlin as long as Germany remains divided.

Diplomatic informants said a revised Western proposal being drawn up for the Big Four foreign ministers' conference would demand once again that the Soviets pledge not to take unilateral action against West Berlin at any time in the future.

Over the weekend British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd had been reported pressuring his allies to accept a Soviet pledge for a limited time. But Lloyd was said today to have agreed with U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter that Western policy on the issue of protection for West Berlin should stand unchanged.

Both the Soviet Union and the Western powers were rewriting their rival proposals for breaking the Berlin crisis. Each side obviously hoped the other would come up with new concessions.

The Big Four ministers planned no meeting today. But the three Western ministers met and were reported to have sought some new formula for resuming stalled East-West disarmament negotiations.

Diplomatic sources said this problem probably would be taken up with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko before the Geneva Conference ends. Gromyko is said to have indicated an interest in the disarmament question in private talks.

There have been no disarmament negotiations since 1957 when the Soviet Union denounced the U.N. Disarmament subcommittee on the grounds that it was one-sided. It was composed of the United States, Britain, France, Canada and the Soviet Union.

7 Prisoners Flee Jail In Newport, Ky.

2 Are Considered Dangerous; All Still Believed At Large

NEWPORT, Ky. (AP) — Seven prisoners, at least two of them considered dangerous, broke out of Newport City Jail early today. All are believed still at large.

Five of the escapees were being held on federal charges. The other two were local men.

Authorities said Demphus Lewis and Howard D. Glenn were under 20-year sentences and are regarded as dangerous.

The departure of the prisoners was discovered at about 4 a.m. They reportedly sawed two bars to get onto the runway of the second floor, where they were confined. Then they went to the rear of the building, forced out a heavy screening and made the short drop from there to the ground.

Alerted and searching were police in Cincinnati and Hamilton County, just across the Ohio River from Newport, and officers from three Kentucky counties. The FBI was also participating.

The other federal prisoners were Joseph Dinardo, Elbert Wellman and Lawrence Adams. The local prisoners were Carl H. Webb and Harry Lee King.

The floor on which the prisoners were kept was apparently unattended, as no violence is known to have occurred when they escaped.

Four other prisoners, held in the same cellblock, did not join the escapees.

Police said those four told them the escaped men had been sawing the bars for three days and had threatened to kill anyone who told of the escape attempt.

Road blocks were set up on the four bridges leading from Newport and Covington to Cincinnati

4 Adults, Baby Girl Dies In Brooklyn Fire

NEW YORK (AP)—Four adults and a baby girl, perished today as fire swept through two Brooklyn tenement houses. Two of the dead were women and two men.

Four others jumped from the third floor. They were reported in serious conditons at a hospital.

Three policemen were injured fighting the fire.

The fire broke out shortly after 3 a.m. It was reported under control about two hours later.

Police said the fire was apparently of suspicious origin.

Brief Showers Provide Slight Relief In Heat

The East Liverpool area got brief showers this morning, with little appreciable relief from the heat, as downriver residents watched their lawns freshen following drenching rains Monday afternoon.

Heavy rains drenched the Steubenville-Weirton area but all that East Liverpool got was cloudy skies—and continued hot and humid.

Lock 10 above Steubenville recorded 1.07 inches of precipitation during the rain that began about noon and lasted over two hours and soaking showers also were reported in the Minerva district. Hookstown also had a brief showers during the afternoon.

The Ohio weatherman again predicted scattered showers or thundershowers for this area this afternoon, tonight and Wednesday but there will be little relief from the heat.

The mercury soared to 88 at Dam 8 at Newell yesterday afternoon and a high of 82 to 87 was forecast for today. Last night's Russell, also one of the oldest original directors of the Masonic Temple Co., has arranged a reminiscing program which will include a review of the first meeting July 26, 1849, when the lodge was chartered. Records of its 75th and 100th anniversary observances will be given.

James Connell was the first worshipful master and Judge J. A. Riddle was the second one in 1850. John F. Jack is the current worshipful master and Wayne B. Hamilton is secretary.

Midland Road Repairs Will Begin Next Week

Efforts to correct drainage which has caused a sinking condition of Route 68, about a mile west of Midland, will be started next week by the Beaver County crew of the State Highway Department of Rochester, Robert Buttermore, superintendent, said.

The section of road still is showing signs of movement and sinking due to seepage and all movement must be stopped before the blacktopping begins, he said.

The drainage correction may take a week and the road section will be blacktopped the following week. The county crew has been applying granulated slag on the section since early June.

DiSalle Renames Bowers State Tax Commissioner

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Stanley J. Bowers, who was forced to leave his engineering studies at Ohio Northern University and go to work for the Ohio Tax Department in the 1933 depression year, is "very, very happy" to be reappointed tax commissioner.

Gov. Michael V. DiSalle announced Bowers' reappointment to the $15,000-a-year job Monday. His term expires in February, 1963.

Bowers' reappointment had been expected in view of his leading role in presenting DiSalle's tax increase program to the Legislature. He has been commissioner since 1954, when he was named to the post by Gov. Frank J. Lausche.

Contacted at his home in Ashville—about 14 miles south of Columbus in Pickaway County — Bowers commented that he is "very, very happy to be reappointed," and feels the governor's program is "very challenging."

Bowers, now 47, began his career as an inspector in the Excise Tax Division. He went to law school nights at Franklin University here, and was admitted to the bar in 1940. He has lived in Ashville all his life, married an Ashville girl and has two daughters, both Ohio State University students.

Past president of the National Assn. of Tax Administrators, Bowers is finishing his term as president of the National Tax Assn., a 2,500-member organization of persons in the tax field.

In another appointment announced Monday, DiSalle named Roosevelt S. Dickey, 38, of Cleveland to the new Ohio Civil Rights Commission. He had also named Richard G. Guggenheim of Cincinnati. Three other members are yet to be appointed.

The commission was set up by the General Assembly to work against racial discrimination in employment. It will hold its first meeting Wednesday in DiSalle's office.

Dickey, 38, is a graduate of Western Reserve University in Cleveland, and Cleveland-Marshall Law School.

A member of the Cleveland Planning Commission and a Democratic precinct committeeman, he operates an insurance agency. He will receive $5,000 a year in the new post.

The appointments are subject to Senate confirmation when the Legislature meets Aug. 14 for its final session.

House Drives To Cut Foreign Aid Measure

WASHINGTON (AP)—A $3,186,500,000 foreign-aid appropriation bill, already far below President Eisenhower's request, faces a new cutting drive today in the House.

But indications were the bill would be sent to the Senate late in the day substantially in the form it was drafted last week by the House Appropriations Committee.

Some members say the amount provided by the committee is too much. Others contend it's too little. The White House has labeled the measure inadequate in its present form and would like it boosted by $390,295,000.

An increase of that amount would provide $3,576,795,000 for use during the present fiscal year to help friendly nations in their resistance to communism. That is the amount authorized by Congress in separate bills setting ceilings for the aid program.

President Eisenhower originally sought an authorization for $3,929,995,000 for the present year. He added 500 million dollars to that request last week with the explanation the extra half billion would be an advance against loan funds authorized for next year.

The committee not only rejected the advance payment of 500 million for next year but lopped $390,295,000 from the amount Congress previously had authorized.

3 Drivers Fined $48 After Radar Citations

Three drivers, cited in a radar speed check on W. Carolina Ave. at Chester Monday night, were fined a total of $48 and costs by Mayor Burton Ward.

John H. Schweitzer of Hallandale, Fla., paid $20 and costs; Mrs. Nora Medley of Youngstown, $10 and costs, and Richard Smith of Grant St., Newell, $18 and costs.

The speed limit at the site is 25 miles an hour, and Mayor Ward added to the basic $10 fine $1 for each mile of speed over 30.

Jon Lombard of Georgetown was fined $10 and costs Saturday by Mayor Ward for failure to have his car under control. He was cited July 16.

Drowns In Pool

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — A 6-year-old Cincinnati boy lost his life in a motel swimming pool accident here Monday night. The victim, Steven Roy Bach, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Bach, apparently wandered away from his parents and fell into the pool.

Free Parking Slated For Midland Shoppers

Shoppers will have free parking at meters Friday and Saturday in Midland during Dollar Days with stores remaining open from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. both days, Nick Tarbuk, chairman of the Retail Division of the Midland Chamber of Commerce, said today.

Both days will feature many savings and low prices for shoppers, Tarbuk said. He said also that several appliance dealers will delay payments for steelworkers until after the strike.

This is the second Dollar Day sale of the year sponsored by the division. The other was held in February.

C. E. Beatty Passes Test For Sewage Plant Job

The Municipal Civil Service Commission today certified the name of Charles E. Beatty, 834 W. 9th St., to Safety-Service Director Joseph F. Ross to fill a vacancy as a sewage plant operator.

Beatty, who scored 98.8 in a test conducted by the commission Monday night, was the only one of two applicants to pass, the commission said.

He has been serving as a provisional appointee in the $300-a-month job. A laborer at the plant, he was named temporarily to fill a vacancy created by a resignation.

Levy Planned At Salineville

SALINEVILLE — A resolution to place a 2-mill cemetery levy on the Nov. 3 general election ballot was approved by Council Monday night.

The proposed five - year levy would provide funds for maintenance equipment and extra help in caring for the village-owned Woodlawn Cemetery.

A 2-mill, 2-year levy was turned down by voters last year.

Council also approved a letter of protest to the Ohio Power Co. about the removal of a fulltime serviceman for the village and area.

Village Solicitor Warren Bettis was directed to ask W. A. Black, district manager of the utility, to restore a fulltime employe at Salineville to serve the village, Millport and Summitville and nearby areas.

George Goppert of Salineville, utility serviceman, was recently assigned to work out of East Liverpool, causing long delays in any emergency service required in this area, Council said.

A copy of the letter is to be sent to the Ohio Public Utilities Commission.

Greenfield's School Head Takes New Post

WASHINGTON COURT HOUSE, Ohio (AP)—William M. West, 38, who has been superintendent of Greenfield schools, was appointed superintendent of Washington Court House schools Monday night by the local board of education.

West, head of Greenfield schools for three years, will succeed W. A. Smith, who has become superintendent at Amherst.

Honor Among Thieves

HUDSON, N.Y. (AP) — Honor among thieves? Joseph Jennings, 48, Boston, Mass., told the judge Monday that he and another man got $380 in a restaurant holdup. The other man gave him $15 and promised more later. Jennings hasn't seen him since. Sentencing was deferred after Jennings pleaded guilty to a robbery charge.

But indications were the bill would be sent to the Senate late in the day substantially in the form it was drafted last week by the House Appropriations Committee.

Some members say the amount provided by the committee is too much. Others contend it's too little. The White House has labeled the measure inadequate in its present form and would like it boosted by $390,295,000.

An increase of that amount would provide $3,576,795,000 for use during the present fiscal year to help friendly nations in their resistance to communism. That is the amount authorized by Congress in separate bills setting ceilings for the aid program.

President Eisenhower originally sought an authorization for $3,929,995,000 for the present year. He added 500 million dollars to that request last week with the explanation the extra half billion would be an advance against loan funds authorized for next year.

The committee not only rejected the advance payment of 500 million for next year but lopped $390,295,000 from the amount Congress previously had authorized.

3 Drivers Fined $48 After Radar Citations

Three drivers, cited in a radar speed check on W. Carolina Ave. at Chester Monday night, were fined a total of $48 and costs by Mayor Burton Ward.

John H. Schweitzer of Hallandale, Fla., paid $20 and costs; Mrs. Nora Medley of Youngstown, $10 and costs, and Richard Smith of Grant St., Newell, $18 and costs.

The speed limit at the site is 25 miles an hour, and Mayor Ward added to the basic $10 fine $1 for each mile of speed over 30.

Jon Lombard of Georgetown was fined $10 and costs Saturday by Mayor Ward for failure to have his car under control. He was cited July 16.

Drowns In Pool

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — A 6-year-old Cincinnati boy lost his life in a motel swimming pool accident here Monday night. The victim, Steven Roy Bach, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Bach, apparently wandered away from his parents and fell into the pool.

Proceedings of the Courts

Free Parking Slated For Midland Shoppers

Shoppers will have free parking at meters Friday and Saturday in Midland during Dollar Days with stores remaining open from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. both days, Nick Tarbuk, chairman of the Retail Division of the Midland Chamber of Commerce, said today.

Both days will feature many savings and low prices for shoppers, Tarbuk said. He said also that several appliance dealers will delay payments for steelworkers until after the strike.

This is the second Dollar Day sale of the year sponsored by the division. The other was held in February.

C. E. Beatty Passes Test For Sewage Plant Job

The Municipal Civil Service Commission today certified the name of Charles E. Beatty, 834 W. 9th St., to Safety-Service Director Joseph F. Ross to fill a vacancy as a sewage plant operator.

Beatty, who scored 98.8 in a test conducted by the commission Monday night, was the only one of two applicants to pass, the commission said.

He has been serving as a provisional appointee in the $300-a-month job. A laborer at the plant, he was named temporarily to fill a vacancy created by a resignation.

Levy Planned At Salineville

SALINEVILLE — A resolution to place a 2-mill cemetery levy on the Nov. 3 general election ballot was approved by Council Monday night.

The proposed five - year levy would provide funds for maintenance equipment and extra help in caring for the village-owned Woodlawn Cemetery.

A 2-mill, 2-year levy was turned down by voters last year.

Council also approved a letter of protest to the Ohio Power Co. about the removal of a fulltime serviceman for the village and area.

Village Solicitor Warren Bettis was directed to ask W. A. Black, district manager of the utility, to restore a fulltime employe at Salineville to serve the village, Millport and Summitville and nearby areas.

George Goppert of Salineville, utility serviceman, was recently assigned to work out of East Liverpool, causing long delays in any emergency service required in this area, Council said.

A copy of the letter is to be sent to the Ohio Public Utilities Commission.

Greenfield's School Head Takes New Post

WASHINGTON COURT HOUSE, Ohio (AP)—William M. West, 38, who has been superintendent of Greenfield schools, was appointed superintendent of Washington Court House schools Monday night by the local board of education.

West, head of Greenfield schools for three years, will succeed W. A. Smith, who has become superintendent at Amherst.

Honor Among Thieves

HUDSON, N.Y. (AP) — Honor among thieves? Joseph Jennings, 48, Boston, Mass., told the judge Monday that he and another man got $380 in a restaurant holdup. The other man gave him $15 and promised more later. Jennings hasn't seen him since. Sentencing was deferred after Jennings pleaded guilty to a robbery charge.

How to deal with your tensions and live happier

Do little things upset you? Do you worry too much? Do you "blow up" when you shouldn't? Then don't fail to read this message! It's the best way you can possibly spend the next 47 seconds.

Today, 1 out of every 10 of our fellow Americans has a serious mental problem. But millions more of us are suffering from minor emotional problems. These problems can take a lot of the joy out of living, both for us and for the people around us.

Somehow each of us must learn how to deal with our own emotional tensions . . . how to keep these tensions from upsetting us and making us unhappy.

Here's a good way to start. Send today for the new free booklet, "How To Deal With Your Tensions". Write: Box 2500, New York 1, New York.

This booklet, written by psychiatric experts, gives valuable, easy-to-follow suggestions about how you can handle your tensions, and thus live happier. It also tells where to find professional help, if needed. Send for it today.

Boots Of Russians Crumble Floor At U.S. Exhibition

MOSCOW (AP) — The harried director of the U.S. exhibition in Moscow made ready today to lay a coating of asphalt over 30,000 square feet of concrete floor being ground to powder by thousands of Russian boots.

Harold C. McClellan, general director of the exhibit, said it might be a good idea if some U.S. firm agreed to ship in crew and material to install a durable flooring.

The dust storm is blamed on the poor quality of the concrete floor the Soviets laid.

The floor beneath the great gold dome became a dust bowl after an estimated 70,000 visitors trudged past the exhibits Sunday. Since then cleaning crews have been trying with only partial success to keep down the dust.

TB Hospital Director Suspended 30 Days

ATHENS, Ohio (AP)—The medical director of the Southeast Ohio Tuberculosis Hospital at Nelsonville, Dr. K. K. Waering, is under 30-day disciplinary suspension, effective last Saturday.

Dr. Robert Atwell of the medical service department at Ohio State University Tuberculosis Hospital has taken over temporarily. The state health director, Dr. Ralph E. Dwork, confirmed Dr. Waering's suspension, but said he would not elaborate pending a Civil Service hearing.

'Just Average' Isn't Good Enough

The 103rd General Assembly of Ohio will assay "just average" when all the judgments are tallied and all the closing-hour temper tantrums have cooled.

It was not the best session ever held, and it was not the worst. But as long as no one knows which were the best and worst sessions anyway, the same can be said about every Legislature when its work is done. In fact, the same thing has been said about every Legislature.

The question is whether "just average" is good enough to give Ohio the kind of government it deserves. The answer is an unequivocal "No."

Ohio is not getting the kind of government it deserves, in the sense that it is one of the great states of the Union with the blessings of abundant natural resources, a strategic geographic advantage and a vigorous and productive population.

But in the sense that Ohio is a state with a population subject to all the stresses and strains of the mid-20th century — all the follies, tensions, prejudices, misapprehensions, pettinesses and jealousies of the era — it is getting as good government as it can expect to get.

THE GOOD PROPOSALS that were blasted in the 1959 legislative session were the victims of bad politics, bad feeling, political feuds, inept leadership, muddied thinking, vicious motives, ruthless lobbying and short-sighted action.

The bad proposals that slipped through were the result of the same things. There are more of these than can be ascertained on a quick count; time reveals the bad laws better than snap judgment reveals them.

One factor played an unusually vital role in the 103rd Assembly's session this year. The Republican minority, ably led by seasoned men, kept the untried and potentially undisciplined Democratic majority on guard. This is the way the two-party system is supposed to work in legislative matters, and this time it paid off.

Republicans made it known early in the session they would keep the Democratic leadership on its toes and make the Democratic majorities in the House and Senate responsible for their authority. Without this party balance, the Democrats in the 103rd Assembly might very well have taken the political bit in their teeth and ridden off in all directions.

AS IT WAS, the Republican minority and the restraint that originated with Gov. DiSalle out of his own high sense of responsibility to the state as a whole curbed the wild-man tendencies of the majority members who thought they had a mandate to change the spelling of Ohio to O-C-I-O.

As to taxes, which will be the remembered trademark of the session, New York presumably has admired Ohio as much for having the courage to pay its way into solvency as most Ohioans have admired New York for doing the same thing.

Taxes are never popular, but they are no more to be held against a Democratic governor in this state than against a Republican governor in New York. Nelson Rockefeller is being praised. Why should Mike DiSalle be castigated?

Governors and legislators do not cause taxes to be high. The cause is the insatiable demand of taxpayers, themselves, for costly services.

Putting The Show On The Road

Most of us have this main thought about last week's report of the vigorous give-and-take between our young vice president and the Soviet Union's hard-bitten premier:

If someone had to tangle with Nikita Khrushchev, we're glad we hadn't sent a boy to do a man's work.

Richard Nixon would be our choice to swap punches with the head of the Russian Communists in any ring-ding-dilly we can think of. He would be our favorite to do it with enough skill and vigor to command the respect of his opponent, moreover.

As we have learned to think of him, Nikita Khrushchev is the ablest spokesman the international conspiracy of the Communist party ever had. There is no question about his sincerity. He puts his heart into his work. He really believes what he is doing, and he is no pussy-footer.

Right now, he is in a bad mood. The breaks have been going against him. It was obvious before Vice President Nixon ever left for Moscow that word had been passed to give him a going-over. There is beginning to be evidence that all this hands-across-the-sea business has begun to gall Premier Khrushchev in some sensitive places.

In any event, the highest U.S. official to visit Russia since Franklin Roosevelt went to Yalta was going to need to be wide awake. He would need to know the ropes of political infighting — and that's our man Nixon.

We'd like to put the show on the road.

We'd like to let these two carry their rough-and-tumble brand of forensics to all the international whistle - stops. As far as we know, nothing like it ever happened before. It's a novelty when men like this stand up and slug it out, instead of pretending to be bubbling over with good will.

We're glad we were represented by our best punch-swapper when Nikita decided the time had come to swing a haymaker. He had to do some quick ducking, too.

A Fair Exchange Is In Order

There was some bitter comment from "the-man-in-the-street" when Deputy Premier Kozlov of Russia was permitted to visit the Shippingport atomic plant during his recent tour of the United States.

The feeling of quite a few East Liverpool and other district residents was: "We're not allowed in, why should Kozlov be?"

Vice Adm. Hyman Rickover, who played host to Mr. Kozlov at Shippingport and who now is with the Nixon party in Russia, might be asking himself the same thing today after the treatment he received Monday at Leningrad.

The admiral was left cooling his heels when he asked to have a look at the three reactors which are to supply the power for the Russians' atomic ice-breaker, Lenin. His reasoning behind the request: "We took Mr. Kozlov right into the reactor room and we answered every question he asked," the admiral emphasized.

He is right. The doors were thrown open to the Russian delegation at Shippingport.

But regardless of incidents such as the above, we feel visits between Russians and Americans have their beneficial side. On the whole, something of a worthwhile nature should result.

However, the ice-breaker incident has supplied fresh ammunition for those who shouted "Foul!" when Mr. Kozlov was allowed to tour the atomic plant at Shippingport.

The Once Over

George Washington in an oil painting has been rushed to American fair at Moscow. In it George appears to be revolving rapidly, his thoughts something like this: "Where am I? Don't tell me! I still can't believe it. From Mt. Vernon to Moscow! From the Potomac to the Volga! From the frozen Delaware to thicker ice! It's a strange world but I never knew it was this cockeyed.

"I stood for no entanglements abroad, for keeping out of Europe and Asia; yet here I am in the land of Lenin, Stalin and Khrushchev! Shades of Princeton and Trenton, Brandywine and Brooklyn Heights. The Father of His Country visiting MOTHER RUSSIA!!!! Quick, Stuart, the smelling salts!

"How far can a man get from Valley Forge and Mt. Vernon in a few generations? If they can do this to me they can do it to Paul Revere. If his horse has made the trip from Lexington to Moscow spare me the news!

Answer me this one question: WAS THIS TRIP NECESSARY?"

Attendant: It's not as bad as you think, George. You are here as a symbol of good will.

George: Have they set up a cherry tree in Moscow and sent me a hatchet?

Attendant: No.

George (relieved): That's something. What's that bronze bust over there on the wall?

Attendant: Abe Lincoln. And near it is a painting of John Adams.

George: That helps. But I'm sure they feel as uncomfortable and dizzy here as I do.

'I Have Some Ideas About Equal Time'

Beatings Turn Natives Anti-West

By Victor Riesel

DURBAN, SOUTH AFRICA

While the Soviets are pouring a hundred million dollars into Addis Ababa, where they have their giant spy and propaganda "embassy" center, non-thinking white South Africans literally are pouring human blood — and I mean literally — into the African soil. The blood's not their own. It's the natives'. It's the life blood of 24 - year - old Mgkopo, whipped to death, lashed to death, because he was too tired to work.

Victor Riesel

Western civilization will be just as dead, because Khrushchev knows the story of all the Mgkopos and we don't. So I'll tell it—not from word of mouth as I heard it first high on a hilltop crawling with human native slums known as Cato Manor, still smoldering where angry natives set fire to government buildings — but from Johannesburg court records.

THEREFORE, I must relate to you the unknown prison-slave system operating here which provides practically free farm labor to big rural operators.

There are three sorts of Devil's Island type prison labor supplied by the government.

First, a big farmer can go to most prisons and rent himself as many hands as he needs for about $1.25 a day. He carts the natives away and they serve their term working his land. But why spend all that money on petrol (gas to you)? It's tough on the trucks as well.

Some of the farmers get together and build their own private prisons. The courts sentence the natives to these personal pens, stone pigsties and the farmers simply come and take what human chattel they want.

Under the third system the court saves the farmers the trouble of spending all that money for construction of private pens. The natives are simply trundled up to the farms direct from the judge.

Now you might say, well, these are criminals. The kids are not.

THEY ARE "jailed" for three to six months for such offenses as not paying a three-dollar tax. Or for forgetting to keep their identity passes on them at night. Or for sneaking out for a beer—verboten — at the local speakeasy (a shebeen). Or maybe for speaking back to one of the 16 to 18-year-old cops (yep, 16-year-old is what I said).

Well, one night Cornelius Mgkopo forgot that he hadn't paid his tax. He was picked up in Pretoria, the gracious national capital. He was dispatched by the Native Affairs office (in charge of all nine million Bantus) to a farm owned by R. Meiring.

Three days later the local "boss boys" dumped Mgkopo's dead body onto a wagon to make room for another kid.

According to eyewitnesses credited by the higher court with accuracy, on the first day Mgkopo worked too slowly. He "lagged." He was "put on the ground on his back and two boss boys struck him with canes. On the second day the two boss boys hit "Mgkopo with a hosepipe and knobkerrie (a Zulu club) and they struck him with them after they had made him lie on the ground."

ON THE SECOND DAY Mgkopo said, "I cannot work anymore. I want to return home." Then Mr. Meiring took the boy to the compound. On the third day he was beaten again.

The report now states: "One held him while the other (boss boy) struck, then the first struck while the other held him." After breakfast Mgkopo could not get up. They laid him then in the shade of the wagons. He was dead.

There are thousands of Mgkopos. Most survive their beatings and go home after three or six months. It keeps them docile. Not only on the farms but in the big plants, too, like the big government steel complex, the Iron and Steel Corp (ISCOR). This makes for slave wages and low cost steel which has just crashed into the Latin American market, pushing us out. So they hit us in our hearts and pocketbooks. Take your choice.

These Mgkopos are just kids growing into strong men with hatred in their hearts for all of us.

Rick Makes Reds Say 'Da'

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

An American's life in the Soviet Union seemed simple to U. S. Vice Admiral Hyman G. Rickover —until the Soviets told him "nyet," which is long for nix.

But he blew up such a storm that the Soviets, who probably never met anyone like the cocky, peppery Rickover before, finally said "da," which is short for yes.

What Rickover had seemed to forget or not understand was that, as a member of Vice President Richard M. Nixon's party, he could do things an American stationed in Moscow wouldn't or couldn't do.

Right after his arrival with Nixon, Rickover, in civilian clothes, strode into the American Embassy, called together all the American naval officers assigned to the embassy, and said: "Let's take a walk."

The parade started. He spotted an apartment house, darted in, knocked on the doors, had a Russian-speaking naval aide explain who he was, asked the tenants how they lived, what they did, how much they earned.

Once outside Rickover, a pioneer in the atomic field, must have felt he had just blazed a new trail in door-knocking. He asked an aide: "Did you ever do this?" When the man said no, Rickover replied: "Why not? It's the only way to find out things."

The story from Moscow didn't say what Rickover's naval aides said. They could have told him that Americans attached to the Embassy in Moscow are not as free to skip around and poke their noses into things as a member of the Nixon party. Many official Soviet doors have been opened—up to a point—for the official visitors.

One American government employe, who spent years in Moscow, explained to this writer: "There are some apartment houses in Moscow where an American attached to the embassy in Moscow could walk in, knock on doors, ask questions, and try to get to know the people.

"But Americans in the embassy are always very careful about making contacts with Soviet citizens—for their sake. They don't want to do anything to make the Soviet police suspicious of the Soviet people.

"This is particularly true with American military men attached to the embassy."

The implication there is that they might be suspected of trying to learn military secrets or make spy contacts.

Further, while Rickover was able to go to Leningrad with Nixon to see the new Soviet atomic-powered icebreaker, Lenin, Americans assigned to their embassy are free to travel only within 25 miles of Moscow.

They can go farther than that only after filing notice with the Soviet government 48 hours beforehand—and then only with special permission. Many areas they can't visit at all.

The Soviets allowed Nixon and Rickover only a superficial examination of their icebreaker. This infuriated Rickover who has been accustomed to getting his own way in atomic doings in this country.

"We are getting the runaround," he said. "I want to see the inside."

He wanted to see the ship's atomic reactors. Nixon, who wanted to look at other things in Leningrad, backed him up but left Rickover on the ship, fuming.

The admiral reminded his Soviet hosts that when Deputy Premier Frol Kozlov visited the United States recently he was permitted to see the reactors of the new American atomic - powered merchant ship, Savannah.

The Soviets, after long consultations, let Rickover have his way. He spent two hours climbing around the reactors.

"A fine job, a good job for the purpose for which it was planned," he commented, but added the Lenin does "not represent an advance in the reactor art."

TWENTY YEARS AGO — Miss Jane Hanley, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hanley of Salineville, was crowned "Miss Salineville" during the four - day centennial celebration.

Don McGraw was elected president of the Grant St. Playground Craft Club.

East Liverpool and other sections of Columbiana County mopped up after one of the most severe rain and electrical storms of the years. Damage was estimated at thousands of dollars.

TEN YEARS AGO — Miss Roberta Heckathorne of Wells Ave., Wellsville, was hired as a second grade school teacher by the East Palestine Board of Education.

East Liverpool's population climbed to 24,600, a gain of 1,145 since 1940.

Nevada, with 66 per cent increase, has had the greatest percentage of population increase since the 1950 census. Arizona was second with 51 per cent, then Florida with 48 per cent and Delaware with 38 per cent.

National Scandal

By David Lawrence

Pickets Keep Citizens From Reaching Jobs

The biggest scandal in local government in America today isn't attracting much attention. It is generally accepted that American citizens can be denied police protection when they are prevented forcibly — upon the orders of a labor union — from working at their jobs? This would seem to be a violation of the Constitution of the United States, which guarantees the "privileges and immunities" of all citizens.

David Lawrence

Two big steel companies have been told that their supervisory personnel would not be permitted to enter and leave the plants without the consent of certain labor unions.

Thus are "civil rights" lost. If the right of entry were denied at a Little Rock school, there would be demands for a return of federal troops but in Northern states today the local authorities, which are supposed to preserve law and order and punish anyone who intimidates another citizen or threatens bodily violence, look the other way and let private organizations continue their threatening and intimidating tactics.

LAST WEEK news dispatches telling of what was happening in the plants of two large steel companies were transmitted throughout the country by the press associations but not a single protest has come from Congress or its civil rights commission.

Nor has any public official of the states or counties where all this has been happening explained to the American people why they ignore the loss of "civil rights" in their respective localities.

Here are extracts from two news dispatches that tell the tragic story of how American citizens are deprived of their right to work. One is from East Chicago, Ill., dated July 24, and says:

"A dispute over an 'open gate' policy at the Youngstown Sheet and Tube Co.'s Indiana Harbor works seemed likely to delay the issuance of pay checks to striking United Steelworkers there today. About 600 members of the United Steelworkers Local 1011 voted last night not to allow non-union personnel to enter and leave the plant."

It so happens that pay checks for a period just before the nationwide steel strike began are due now. The Youngstown Sheet and Tube Co. has several hundred supervisory employes who are not unionized and they are locked up voluntarily in the plant because, once they leave, they would not be allowed back into the office building by the union pickets. The unions had proposed that some union personnel needed for the issuance of the pay checks could go back into the building long enough to write the checks but, immediately after this task was finished, they would not be allowed to return. The supervisors also would be locked out once they left the plant. The company refused to make such an agreement.

Another dispatch on the same kind of dispute came from Pittsburgh on July 21. It said that an agreement was reached to allow the free passage of personnel to and from the Pittsburgh and nearby Aliquippa Works of the Jones & Laughlin Corp. But the agreement was made only after the company had applied for an injunction in the local county courts. The joint statement of the union and the company read as follows:

"The union and the corporation have agreed that all supervisory and salaried employes in the corporation having business in the Pittsburgh and Aliquippa works will pass freely in and out of the works. The corporation will promptly discontinue the injunction proceedings which it commenced against the union in the courts of Common Pleas of Allegheny and Beaver Counties."

THUS DOES the labor-union monopoly in America transcend the power of government.

The average American might think that the right to come and go to a place of employment is as sacred as the right of the American citizen to go in and out of a public school building or a church or any private home but the labor unions have such a political influence over the local police in various cities that the authorities apparently ignore the threats and acts of intimidation which are designed to prevent the free entry of workmen into their places of business.

It's just too bad that to most of the so-called "liberals" the phrase "civil rights" means only the rights of certain citizens and not of all of them. Maybe the reason is that the labor unions contribute so heavily to the campaign funds of many of these "liberals" that, when elected to office, they feel they must do the bidding of the unions.

Injunction proceedings in court, of course, constitute a remedy but this often means long delays. Meanwhile, the damage is done—no workers are allowed in the plants, even though they want to work.

Many prominent churchmen and political "liberals" have lately insisted there is no such thing in America as the denial of the "right to work" and that no laws are necessary to safeguard that right. But the two news dispatches from Pittsburgh and East Chicago last week are impressive testimony to the contrary.

Wish You Were Here

By Truman Twill

Again, we toy with the thought of what lies behind some of the picture post cards received from vacationists.

What do they really mean when they write, "Wish you were here?" Is it a tender longing they feel, or is it sometimes a savage snarl?

As often as not it's a snarl. Misfortune has befallen the vacationer, and he is yielding to an impulse to share his misery.

What he really wants to say is:

"Wish you were here, instead of being comfortable at home where I would be if I had the brains of a mongoose. But no, I had to put all that behind me and come up here to this bucolic slum where the beds sag in the middle, all the cooking is done in rancid lard, screens are something someone saw a picture of once in a magazine and the plumbing is early 19th century.

"I did not have sense enough to realize that while a vacation should be a change from what you have been doing it should not be a throwback to something you never wanted to do. Where in the wide-eyed world did I ever get the idea I wanted to be a fisherman?

"I would not eat fish if I were starving. As for catching the things, which someone told me is thrilling, I can have a bigger thrill sticking my fingers in light sockets. I am beginning to think that people who say they go fishing for fun must get their fun the rest of the time torturing small animals and setting fire to their wives.

"They have insects here that are meat-eaters. There is one in particular you cannot scare away. He nabs you in his sharp teeth and holds on until either you die or he dies. I can believe it when the natives say it is not safe to go out alone. But how can I believe it when the same natives urge innocent outsiders to come here to have fun?

"The water supply is uncertain. I do not mean it is hard to tell whether there will be any, though that too is a problem. I am speaking of the composition of the supply. This is highly agricultural country—plenty of barnyards and the like. They say wells don't have to be drilled very deep. What do I mean "drilled"? They dig 'em, boy, and that's how they get the water. For the natives it is of no consequence, I suppose. They're immune. But for the visitors . . . we didn't take any typhoid shots.

This is why I wish you were here. I have wished the same thing while being overcharged and clipped for a sucker in New York, while traveling in heavy traffic on hot days and while splashing in the surf in seaside resorts where the cuisine was built around hard tack and jerked beef.

"I have yearned for you in flea-bitten summer hotels and sunny climes, especially when it was raining. Every time I feel sorry for myself, I wish you were here so I could share my misery. It is not a healthy state of mind, but it is something that comes over me whenever I flee from the comforts of home in the good old summertime to drink the bitter cup of adversity in strange surroundings.

"I really do wish you were here. If I were to come home with stories of the way things are in this dump, you would never believe them. But if you were here, you would know I am telling the truth. One more thing: The natives' idea of a vacation is to get away from this sink-hole for a fortnight. They cannot understand why anyone in his right mind would come here for any purpose than to serve a sentence for a heinous crime. Wish you were here, pal."

While the Soviets are pouring a hundred million dollars into Addis Ababa, where they have their giant spy and propaganda "embassy" center, nonthinking white South Africans literally are pouring human blood — and I mean literally — into the African soil. The blood's not their own. It's the natives'. It's the life blood of 24 - year - old Mgkopo, whipped to death, lashed to death, because he was too tired to work.

Victor Riesel

Western civilization will be just as dead, because Khrushchev knows the story of all the Mgkopos and we don't. So I'll tell it—not from word of mouth as I heard it first high on a hilltop crawling with human native slums known as Cato Manor, still smoldering where angry natives set fire to government buildings — but from Johannesburg court records.

THEREFORE, I must relate to you the unknown prison-slave system operating here which provides practically free farm labor to big rural operators.

There are three sorts of Devil's Island type prison labor supplied by the government.

First, a big farmer can go to most prisons and rent himself as many hands as he needs for about $1.25 a day. He carts the natives away and they serve their term working his land. But why spend all that money on petrol (gas to you)? It's tough on the trucks as well.

Some of the farmers get together and build their own private prisons. The courts sentence the natives to these personal pens, stone pigsties and the farmers simply come and take what human chattel they want.

Under the third system the court saves the farmers the trouble of spending all that money for construction of private pens. The natives are simply trundled up to the farms direct from the judge.

Now you might say, well, these are criminals. The kids are not.

THEY ARE "jailed" for three to six months for such offenses as not paying a three-dollar tax. Or for forgetting to keep their identity passes on them at night. Or for sneaking out for a beer—verboten — at the local speakeasy (a shebeen). Or maybe for speaking back to one of the 16 to 18-year-old cops (yep, 16-year-old is what I said).

Well, one night Cornelius Mgkopo forgot that he hadn't paid his tax. He was picked up in Pretoria, the gracious national capital. He was dispatched by the Native Affairs office (in charge of all nine million Bantus) to a farm owned by R. Meiring.

Three days later the local "boss boys" dumped Mgkopo's dead body onto a wagon to make room for another kid.

According to eyewitnesses credited by the higher court with accuracy, on the first day Mgkopo worked too slowly. He "lagged." He was "put on the ground on his back and two boss boys struck him with canes. On the second day the two boss boys hit "Mgkopo with a hosepipe and knobkerrie (a Zulu club) and they struck him with them after they had made him lie on the ground."

ON THE SECOND DAY Mgkopo said, "I cannot work anymore. I want to return home." Then Mr. Meiring took the boy to the compound. On the third day he was beaten again.

The report now states: "One held him while the other (boss boy) struck, then the first struck while the other held him." After breakfast Mgkopo could not get up. They laid him then in the shade of the wagons. He was dead.

There are thousands of Mgkopos. Most survive their beatings and go home after three or six months. It keeps them docile. Not only on the farms but in the big plants, too, like the big government steel complex, the Iron and Steel Corp (ISCOR). This makes for slave wages and low cost steel which has just crashed into the Latin American market, pushing us out. So they hit us in our hearts and pocketbooks. Take your choice.

These Mgkopos are just kids growing into strong men with hatred in their hearts for all of us.

Rick Makes Reds Say 'Da'

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

An American's life in the Soviet Union seemed simple to U. S. Vice Admiral Hyman G. Rickover —until the Soviets told him "nyet," which is long for nix.

But he blew up such a storm that the Soviets, who probably never met anyone like the cocky, peppery Rickover before, finally said "da," which is short for yes.

What Rickover had seemed to forget or not understand was that, as a member of Vice President Richard M. Nixon's party, he could do things an American stationed in Moscow wouldn't or couldn't do.

Right after his arrival with Nixon, Rickover, in civilian clothes, strode into the American Embassy, called together all the American naval officers assigned to the embassy, and said: "Let's take a walk."

The parade started. He spotted an apartment house, darted in, knocked on the doors, had a Russian-speaking naval aide explain who he was, asked the tenants how they lived, what they did, how much they earned.

Once outside Rickover, a pioneer in the atomic field, must have felt he had just blazed a new trail in door-knocking. He asked an aide: "Did you ever do this?" When the man said no, Rickover replied: "Why not? It's the only way to find out things."

The story from Moscow didn't say what Rickover's naval aides said. They could have told him that Americans attached to the Embassy in Moscow are not as free to skip around and poke their noses into things as a member of the Nixon party. Many official Soviet doors have been opened—up to a point—for the official visitors.

One American government employe, who spent years in Moscow, explained to this writer: "There are some apartment houses in Moscow where an American attached to the embassy in Moscow could walk in, knock on doors, ask questions, and try to get to know the people.

"But Americans in the embassy are always very careful about making contacts with Soviet citizens—for their sake. They don't want to do anything to make the Soviet police suspicious of the Soviet people.

"This is particularly true with American military men attached to the embassy."

The implication there is that they might be suspected of trying to learn military secrets or make spy contacts.

Further, while Rickover was able to go to Leningrad with Nixon to see the new Soviet atomic-powered icebreaker, Lenin, Americans assigned to their embassy are free to travel only within 25 miles of Moscow.

They can go farther than that only after filing notice with the Soviet government 48 hours beforehand—and then only with special permission. Many areas they can't visit at all.

The Soviets allowed Nixon and Rickover only a superficial examination of their icebreaker. This infuriated Rickover who has been accustomed to getting his own way in atomic doings in this country.

"We are getting the runaround," he said. "I want to see the inside."

He wanted to see the ship's atomic reactors. Nixon, who wanted to look at other things in Leningrad, backed him up but left Rickover on the ship, fuming.

The admiral reminded his Soviet hosts that when Deputy Premier Frol Kozlov visited the United States recently he was permitted to see the reactors of the new American atomic - powered merchant ship, Savannah.

The Soviets, after long consultations, let Rickover have his way. He spent two hours climbing around the reactors.

"A fine job, a good job for the purpose for which it was planned," he commented, but added the Lenin does "not represent an advance in the reactor art."

A Fair Exchange Is In Order

There was some bitter comment from "the-man-in-the-street" when Deputy Premier Kozlov of Russia was permitted to visit the Shippingport atomic plant during his recent tour of the United States.

The feeling of quite a few East Liverpool and other district residents was: "We're not allowed in, why should Kozlov be?"

Vice Adm. Hyman Rickover, who played host to Mr. Kozlov at Shippingport and who now is with the Nixon party in Russia, might be asking himself the same thing today after the treatment he received Monday at Leningrad.

The admiral was left cooling his heels when he asked to have a look at the three reactors which are to supply the power for the Russians' atomic ice-breaker, Lenin. His reasoning behind the request: "We took Mr. Kozlov right into the reactor room and we answered every question he asked," the admiral emphasized.

He is right. The doors were thrown open to the Russian delegation at Shippingport.

But regardless of incidents such as the above, we feel visits between Russians and Americans have their beneficial side. On the whole, something of a worthwhile nature should result.

However, the ice-breaker incident has supplied fresh ammunition for those who shouted "Foul!" when Mr. Kozlov was allowed to tour the atomic plant at Shippingport.

The Once Over

George Washington in an oil painting has been rushed to American fair at Moscow. In it George appears to be revolving rapidly, his thoughts something like this: "Where am I? Don't tell me! I still can't believe it. From Mt. Vernon to Moscow! From the Potomac to the Volga! From the frozen Delaware to thicker ice! It's a strange world but I never knew it was this cockeyed.

"I stood for no entanglements abroad, for keeping out of Europe and Asia; yet here I am in the land of Lenin, Stalin and Khrushchev! Shades of Princeton and Trenton, Brandywine and Brooklyn Heights. The Father of His Country visiting MOTHER RUSSIA!!!! Quick, Stuart, the smelling salts!

"How far can a man get from Valley Forge and Mt. Vernon in a few generations? If they can do this to me they can do it to Paul Revere. If his horse has made the trip from Lexington to Moscow spare me the news!

Answer me this one question: WAS THIS TRIP NECESSARY?"

Attendant: It's not as bad as you think, George. You are here as a symbol of good will.

George: Have they set up a cherry tree in Moscow and sent me a hatchet?

Attendant: No.

George (relieved): That's something. What's that bronze bust over there on the wall?

Attendant: Abe Lincoln. And near it is a painting of John Adams.

George: That helps. But I'm sure they feel as uncomfortable and dizzy here as I do.

National Scandal

Pickets Keep Citizens From Reaching Jobs

The biggest scandal in local government in America today isn't attracting much attention. It is generally accepted that American citizens can be denied police protection when they are prevented forcibly — upon the orders of a labor union — from working at their jobs? This would seem to be a violation of the Constitution of the United States, which guarantees the "privileges and immunities" of all citizens.

David Lawrence

Two big steel companies have been told that their supervisory personnel would not be permitted to enter and leave the plants without the consent of certain labor unions.

Thus are "civil rights" lost. If the right of entry were denied at a Little Rock school, there would be demands for a return of federal troops but in Northern states today the local authorities, which are supposed to preserve law and order and punish anyone who intimidates another citizen or threatens bodily violence, look the other way and let private organizations continue their threatening and intimidating tactics.

LAST WEEK news dispatches telling of what was happening in the plants of two large steel companies were transmitted throughout the country by the press associations but not a single protest has come from Congress or its civil rights commission.

Nor has any public official of the states or counties where all this has been happening explained to the American people why they ignore the loss of "civil rights" in their respective localities.

Here are extracts from two news dispatches that tell the tragic story of how American citizens are deprived of their right to work. One is from East Chicago, Ill., dated July 24, and says:

"A dispute over an 'open gate' policy at the Youngstown Sheet and Tube Co.'s Indiana Harbor works seemed likely to delay the issuance of pay checks to striking United Steelworkers there today. About 600 members of the United Steelworkers Local 1011 voted last night not to allow non-union personnel to enter and leave the plant."

It so happens that pay checks for a period just before the nationwide steel strike began are due now. The Youngstown Sheet and Tube Co. has several hundred supervisory employes who are not unionized and they are locked up voluntarily in the plant because, once they leave, they would not be allowed back into the office building by the union pickets. The unions had proposed that some union personnel needed for the issuance of the pay checks could go back into the building long enough to write the checks but, immediately after this task was finished, they would not be allowed to return. The supervisors also would be locked out once they left the plant. The company refused to make such an agreement.

Another dispatch on the same kind of dispute came from Pittsburgh on July 21. It said that an agreement was reached to allow the free passage of personnel to and from the Pittsburgh and nearby Aliquippa Works of the Jones & Laughlin Corp. But the agreement was made only after the company had applied for an injunction in the local county courts. The joint statement of the union and the company read as follows:

"The union and the corporation have agreed that all supervisory and salaried employes in the corporation having business in the Pittsburgh and Aliquippa works will pass freely in and out of the works. The corporation will promptly discontinue the injunction proceedings which it commenced against the union in the courts of Common Pleas of Allegheny and Beaver Counties."

THUS DOES the labor-union monopoly in America transcend the power of government.

The average American might think that the right to come and go to a place of employment is as sacred as the right of the American citizen to go in and out of a public school building or a church or any private home but the labor unions have such a political influence over the local police in various cities that the authorities apparently ignore the threats and acts of intimidation which are designed to prevent the free entry of workmen into their places of business.

It's just too bad that to most of the so-called "liberals" the phrase "civil rights" means only the rights of certain citizens and not of all of them. Maybe the reason is that the labor unions contribute so heavily to the campaign funds of many of these "liberals" that, when elected to office, they feel they must do the bidding of the unions.

Injunction proceedings in court, of course, constitute a remedy but this often means long delays. Meanwhile, the damage is done—no workers are allowed in the plants, even though they want to work.

Many prominent churchmen and political "liberals" have lately insisted there is no such thing in America as the denial of the "right to work" and that no laws are necessary to safeguard that right. But the two news dispatches from Pittsburgh and East Chicago last week are impressive testimony to the contrary.

Through The Years

THIRTY YEARS AGO — Ten countries were represented by 55 men and women who received naturalization papers in Columbiana County last year.

The 56th interdenominational holiness meetings got under way at the Hollow Rock Campgrounds.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — Miss Jane Hanley, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hanley of Salineville, was crowned "Miss Salineville" during the four - day centennial celebration.

Don McGraw was elected president of the Grant St. Playground Craft Club.

East Liverpool and other sections of Columbiana County mopped up after one of the most severe rain and electrical storms of the years. Damage was estimated at thousands of dollars.

TEN YEARS AGO — Miss Roberta Heckathorne of Wells Ave., Wellsville, was hired as a second grade school teacher by the East Palestine Board of Education.

East Liverpool's population climbed to 24,600, a gain of 1,145 since 1940.

Nevada, with 66 per cent increase, has had the greatest percentage of population increase since the 1950 census. Arizona was second with 51 per cent, then Florida with 48 per cent and Delaware with 38 per cent.

Wish You Were Here

By Truman Twill

Again, we toy with the thought of what lies behind some of the picture post cards received from vacationists.

What do they really mean when they write, "Wish you were here?" Is it a tender longing they feel, or is it sometimes a savage snarl?

As often as not it's a snarl. Misfortune has befallen the vacationer, and he is yielding to an impulse to share his misery.

What he really wants to say is:

"Wish you were here, instead of being comfortable at home where I would be if I had the brains of a mongoose. But no, I had to put all that behind me and come up here to this bucolic slum where the beds sag in the middle, all the cooking is done in rancid lard, screens are something someone saw a picture of once in a magazine and the plumbing is early 19th century.

"I did not have sense enough to realize that while a vacation should be a change from what you have been doing it should not be a throwback to something you never wanted to do. Where in the wide-eyed world did I ever get the idea I wanted to be a fisherman?

"I would not eat fish if I were starving. As for catching the things, which someone told me is thrilling, I can have a bigger thrill sticking my fingers in light sockets. I am beginning to think that people who say they go fishing for fun must get their fun the rest of the time torturing small animals and setting fire to their wives.

"They have insects here that are meat-eaters. There is one in particular you cannot scare away. He nabs you in his sharp teeth and holds on until either you die or he dies. I can believe it when the natives say it is not safe to go out alone. But how can I believe it when the same natives urge innocent outsiders to come here to have fun?

"The water supply is uncertain. I do not mean it is hard to tell whether there will be any, though that too is a problem. I am speaking of the composition of the supply. This is highly agricultural country—plenty of barnyards and the like. They say wells don't have to be drilled very deep. What do I mean "drilled"? They dig 'em, boy, and that's how they get the water. For the natives it is of no consequence. I suppose. They're immune. But for the visitors . . . we didn't take any typhoid shots.

This is why I wish you were here. I have wished the same thing while being overcharged and clipped for a sucker in New York, while traveling in heavy traffic on hot days and while splashing in the surf in seaside resorts where the cuisine was built around hard tack and jerked beef.

"I have yearned for you in flea-bitten summer hotels and sunny climes, especially when it was raining. Every time I feel sorry for myself, I wish you were here so I could share my misery. It is not a healthy state of mind, but it is something that comes over me whenever I flee from the comforts of home in the good old summertime to drink the bitter cup of adversity in strange surroundings.

"I really do wish you were here. If I were to come home with stories of the way things are in this dump, you would never believe them. But if you were here, you would know I am telling the truth. One more thing: The natives' idea of a vacation is to get away from this sink-hole for a fortnight. They cannot understand why anyone in his right mind would come here for any purpose than to serve a sentence for a heinous crime. Wish you were here, pal."

Manager Of Crucible Works Elected In Beaver Fund Group

George M. Burrier, manager of the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co., and representing the Midland area, was elected among six vice presidents of the new United Funds of Beaver County Monday at the Penn-Beaver Hotel in Rochester.

F. S. Dickenson of New Brighton was elected president. Other vice presidents include Michael Baker Jr. of Rochester, J. A. Butts of Beaver, James A. Dunn of Ambridge, A. C. Keller of Aliquippa and Robert F. Shoup of Monaca.

Atty. Harold F. Reed Jr. of Beaver was elected secretary and will also serve temporarily as treasurer. The officers were elected from the group's Board of Directors which numbers 22.

School Supt. Ralph H. Jewell and Atty. Edwin M. Wallover of Midland are directors along with Burrier.

Atty. Wallover was appointed chairman of the by-law development committee which includes Atty. Reed Jr., Wesley Nippert and J. Harvey Moore.

Harry M. Feely Jr., works manager of the Pittsburgh Tube Co. is Monaca campaign chairman. Christopher Gunderson was appointed executive secretary.

The group adopted a policy to guide its operations by agreeing to serve in an advisory capacity and lend assistance when requested to the joint United Fund campaign to be conducted in each autonomous United Fund area this fall in the county.

It also voted, in accordance with area requests, to receive and disburse money alloted to pay for the costs of campaign materials and services.

The group's by-laws, when drafted in primary form, will be submitted to each area for approval of provisions for equitable representation by each area on the Board of Directors and important operating committees.

Birrell Faces Ousting For False Passport

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP)—Brazil intends to expel Lowell M. Birrell on charges the New York lawyer-financier entered the country on a false passport, a police official said Monday.

But Birrell's counsel indicated to newsmen Birrell would fight being sent back to the United States, where he faces charges of stealing stock worth 14 million dollars.

Birrell's attorney, Jorge Chaloupe Sobrinho, told newsmen the New Yorker is willing to go back to the United States only if U.S. authorities can prove to Brazilian officials that his client stole the stocks.

Urges New Legislation

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Lorain County grand jury recommended Monday new legislation be enacted to protect prospective home buyers' down payments. There were no indictments, but the jurors criticized the Ranier Corp., saying the home-building firm's operations were "subject to censure."

Aluminum

The Ormet Corp., the fourth big aluminum producer with a contract with the Steelworkers Union expiring Friday, has not answered the union's demand formally. But Ormet, which is owned jointly by the Olin Mathieson Chemical Corp. and Revere Copper and Brass Inc., is expected to go along with the Big Three in turning down the union's proposals.

A strike against the Big Three and Ormet would affect 30,000 workers and close about 57 per cent of the nation's primary aluminum production.

Alcoa and Reynolds are negotiating with the Aluminum Workers International Union as well as with the United Steelworkers of America.

If the Aluminum Workers Union struck along with the Steelworkers, an additional 25 per cent of the total U.S. aluminum capacity would be closed, raising the shutdown total to 82 per cent. The Aluminum Workers Union has presented demands similar to those of the Steelworkers, but no strike threat has been made.

Current wages in the aluminum industry range from $2.76 to $2.91 an hour.

A strike in the copper industry mines and mills would principally affect Anaconda, American Smelting & Refining, Kennecott, and Phelps-Dodge.

U.S. Steel To Report On First-Half Earnings

NEW YORK (AP) — The nation's top steel maker—U.S. Steel Corp.—today reports its operating results for the first half year.

It will surprise no one if the giant corporation took in more money in those six months than any steel company has ever done in any six-month period.

"Big Steel's" earnings, as well as those of lesser lights in the industry, undoubtedly will be used as a public relations weapon by the striking United Steelworkers Union.

The union has contended steel companies are raking in fantastic profits and could easily cut up a little bigger pie for the workers in the form of a pay rise without boosting steel prices.

Steel companies have contended they need record profits to build new plants and equipment and modernize the old. They say a dollar doesn't go as far as it used to and they must earn more just to keep facilities up-to-date.

In any case, first half-year earnings were inflated by efforts of steel consumers to build inventories prior to the strike, which had been widely anticipated. This was especially true in the second quarter—the April 1 to June 30 period.

The Ohio Valley was not the only section with sizzling temperatures.

Tropical air continued to cling across most of the country east of the Rockies, with increased humidity in wide areas. Little change was indicated from Monday's high temperatures.

Readings reached above 100 degrees in the northern plains, including 108 at Pierre and Philip, S. D. They were mostly in the 80's and 90's in the eastern half of the country. Showers, lowered the mercury into the 70's in many areas.

Thunderstorms with heavy rain hit the area of northern Kentucky south of Cincinnati. Funnel clouds were reported in Kansas. Tornadic winds lashed an area about 80 miles south-southeast of Norfolk, Va.

Reports Not Complete On Firemen's Carnival

Reports on the recent Newell volunteer firemen's carnival were incomplete at a meeting Monday evening in the fire station, Chief J. C. (Carl) Durham said.

He said several bills remain to be paid and the reports have not been completed. Mike Gibas, president, presided.

Next meeting will be Aug. 10. The firemen sounded two blasts on their siren to call the meeting, Durham said, accounting for a rumored fire run.

BURGETTSTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Fire destroyed the Coll Tire Co. in this Washington County community early today, causing extensive damage.

No official damage estimate was available, but Dean Bertrand, a fire policeman, figured the loss at several hundred thousand dollars.

The blaze broke out about 12:20 a. m. Fire-fighters from Burgettstown, McDonald, Avella and Slovan battled nearly two hours before bringing it under control. Two firemen suffered minor injuries.

Bertrand said the fire was touched off when one of several employes spilled some rubber solvent used in the firm's tire recapping business, and it ignited in an unexplained manner. The employes fled safely.

The wrecked building, of one and two-story concrete block construction, measured approximately 60 by 120 feet. A $10,000 addition had recently been completed.

The blaze was confined to the tire firm.

Here's Situation In Steel Walkout

By The Associated Press

IDLE — About 500,000 United Steelworkers on strike against the basic steel industry for the 14th day. Also approximately 78,000 employes in allied industries.

NEGOTIATIONS — Federal mediators plan separate talks with industry and union representatives today. After a joint meeting Monday, Federal Mediation Chief Joseph F. Finnegan said he saw no substantial change in either side's position.

LOSSES — Industry loses about 43 million dollars worth of business each day of the strike; striking steelworkers lose about 10 million a day in wages.

ISSUES — Union seeks a 15-an-hour wage hike plus fringe benefits. Industry balks on grounds higher labor costs would force steel prices upward and force inflation. The union contends industry can absorb higher labor costs without hiking prices.

and the work-bound traffic was jammed as police inspected every automobile.

Road blocks also were set up on other highways leading south out of this area of northern Kentucky.

Lewis, of Camden, Ohio, and Glenn, of Birmingham, Ala., were sentenced early this month to prison for the robbery of the Farmers State Bank at Glencoe, Ky.

Dinardo, of Glencoe, was awaiting trial on a charge of violation of the Mann Act. Wellman was under a four-year sentence for violation of the federal auto theft law and Adams was awaiting trial on a postal law violation charge.

The two state prisoners — Webb and King—were awaiting trial on charges of breaking and entering.

Newport Police Chief George Gugel said the break was the first here since eight men escaped 10 years ago. Five of the participants in that escape were caught as they sought to reach the Ohio side of the river in a boat and the other three were apprehended heading out of town by road.

Patrol boats also started watching the river today and Newport police accepted Cincinnati radio station WSAI's offer of its airplane to aid in the manhunt.

Manager Of Crucible Works Elected In Beaver Fund Group

George M. Burrier, manager of the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co., and representing the Midland area, was elected among six vice presidents of the new United Funds of Beaver County Monday at the Penn-Beaver Hotel in Rochester.

F. S. Dickenson of New Brighton was elected president. Other vice presidents include Michael Baker Jr. of Rochester, J. A. Butts of Beaver, James A. Dunn of Ambridge, A. C. Keller of Aliquippa and Robert F. Shoup of Monaca.

Atty. Harold F. Reed Jr. of Beaver was elected secretary and will also serve temporarily as treasurer. The officers were elected from the group's Board of Directors which numbers 22.

School Supt. Ralph H. Jewell and Atty. Edwin M. Wallover of Midland are directors along with Burrier.

Atty. Wallover was appointed chairman of the by-law development committee which includes Atty. Reed Jr., Wesley Nippert and J. Harvey Moore.

Harry M. Feely Jr., works manager of the Pittsburgh Tube Co. is Monaca campaign chairman. Christopher Gunderson was appointed executive secretary.

The group adopted a policy to guide its operations by agreeing to serve in an advisory capacity and lend assistance when requested to the joint United Fund campaign to be conducted in each autonomous United Fund area this fall in the county.

It also voted, in accordance with area requests, to receive and disburse money alloted to pay for the costs of campaign materials and services.

The group's by-laws, when drafted in primary form, will be submitted to each area for approval of provisions for equitable representation by each area on the Board of Directors and important operating committees.

Birrell Faces Ousting For False Passport

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP)—Brazil intends to expel Lowell M. Birrell on charges the New York lawyer-financier entered the country on a false passport, a police official said Monday.

But Birrell's counsel indicated to newsmen Birrell would fight being sent back to the United States, where he faces charges of stealing stock worth 14 million dollars.

Birrell's attorney, Jorge Chaloupe Sobrinho, told newsmen the New Yorker is willing to go back to the United States only if U.S. authorities can prove to Brazilian officials that his client stole the stocks.

Urges New Legislation

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Lorain County grand jury recommended Monday new legislation be enacted to protect prospective home buyers' down payments. There were no indictments, but the jurors criticized the Ranier Corp., saying the home-building firm's operations were "subject to censure."

Aluminum

The Ormet Corp., the fourth big aluminum producer with a contract with the Steelworkers Union expiring Friday, has not answered the union's demand formally. But Ormet, which is owned jointly by the Olin Mathieson Chemical Corp. and Revere Copper and Brass Inc., is expected to go along with the Big Three in turning down the union's proposals.

A strike against the Big Three and Ormet would affect 30,000 workers and close about 57 per cent of the nation's primary aluminum production.

Alcoa and Reynolds are negotiating with the Aluminum Workers International Union as well as with the United Steelworkers of America.

If the Aluminum Workers Union struck along with the Steelworkers, an additional 25 per cent of the total U.S. aluminum capacity would be closed, raising the shutdown total to 82 per cent. The Aluminum Workers Union has presented demands similar to those of the Steelworkers, but no strike threat has been made.

Current wages in the aluminum industry range from $2.76 to $2.91 an hour.

A strike in the copper industry mines and mills would principally affect Anaconda, American Smelting & Refining, Kennecott, and Phelps-Dodge.

U.S. Steel To Report On First-Half Earnings

NEW YORK (AP) — The nation's top steel maker—U.S. Steel Corp.—today reports its operating results for the first half year.

It will surprise no one if the giant corporation took in more money in those six months than any steel company has ever done in any six-month period.

"Big Steel's" earnings, as well as those of lesser lights in the industry, undoubtedly will be used as a public relations weapon by the striking United Steelworkers Union.

The union has contended steel companies are raking in fantastic profits and could easily cut up a little bigger pie for the workers in the form of a pay rise without boosting steel prices.

Steel companies have contended they need record profits to build new plants and equipment and modernize the old. They say a dollar doesn't go as far as it used to and they must earn more just to keep facilities up-to-date.

In any case, first half-year earnings were inflated by efforts of steel consumers to build inventories prior to the strike, which had been widely anticipated. This was especially true in the second quarter—the April 1 to June 30 period.

Weather

low was a humid 72 at the dam and the predicted low tonight will be 65 to 70.

The Ohio Valley was not the only section with sizzling temperatures.

Tropical air continued to cling across most of the country east of the Rockies, with increased humidity in wide areas. Little change was indicated from Monday's high temperatures.

Readings reached above 100 degrees in the northern plains, including 108 at Pierre and Philip, S. D. They were mostly in the 80's and 90's in the eastern half of the country. Showers, lowered the mercury into the 70's in many areas.

Thunderstorms with heavy rain hit the area of northern Kentucky south of Cincinnati. Funnel clouds were reported in Kansas. Tornadic winds lashed an area about 80 miles south-southeast of Norfolk, Va.

Reports Not Complete On Firemen's Carnival

Reports on the recent Newell volunteer firemen's carnival were incomplete at a meeting Monday evening in the fire station, Chief J. C. (Carl) Durham said.

He said several bills remain to be paid and the reports have not been completed. Mike Gibas, president, presided.

Next meeting will be Aug. 10. The firemen sounded two blasts on their siren to call the meeting, Durham said, accounting for a rumored fire run.

BURGETTSTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Fire destroyed the Coll Tire Co. in this Washington County community early today, causing extensive damage.

No official damage estimate was available, but Dean Bertrand, a fire policeman, figured the loss at several hundred thousand dollars.

The blaze broke out about 12:20 a. m. Fire-fighters from Burgettstown, McDonald, Avella and Slovan battled nearly two hours before bringing it under control. Two firemen suffered minor injuries.

Bertrand said the fire was touched off when one of several employes spilled some rubber solvent used in the firm's tire recapping business, and it ignited in an unexplained manner. The employes fled safely.

The wrecked building, of one and two-story concrete block construction, measured approximately 60 by 120 feet. A $10,000 addition had recently been completed.

The blaze was confined to the tire firm.

Here's Situation In Steel Walkout

By The Associated Press

IDLE — About 500,000 United Steelworkers on strike against the basic steel industry for the 14th day. Also approximately 78,000 employes in allied industries.

NEGOTIATIONS — Federal mediators plan separate talks with industry and union representatives today. After a joint meeting Monday, Federal Mediation Chief Joseph F. Finnegan said he saw no substantial change in either side's position.

LOSSES — Industry loses about 43 million dollars worth of business each day of the strike; striking steelworkers lose about 10 million a day in wages.

ISSUES — Union seeks a 15-an-hour wage hike plus fringe benefits. Industry balks on grounds higher labor costs would force steel prices upward and force inflation. The union contends industry can absorb higher labor costs without hiking prices.

Jailbreak

and the work-bound traffic was jammed as police inspected every automobile.

Road blocks also were set up on other highways leading south out of this area of northern Kentucky.

Lewis, of Camden, Ohio, and Glenn, of Birmingham, Ala., were sentenced early this month to prison for the robbery of the Farmers State Bank at Glencoe, Ky.

Dinardo, of Glencoe, was awaiting trial on a charge of violation of the Mann Act. Wellman was under a four-year sentence for violation of the federal auto theft law and Adams was awaiting trial on a postal law violation charge.

The two state prisoners — Webb and King—were awaiting trial on charges of breaking and entering.

Newport Police Chief George Gugel said the break was the first here since eight men escaped 10 years ago. Five of the participants in that escape were caught as they sought to reach the Ohio side of the river in a boat and the other three were apprehended heading out of town by road.

Patrol boats also started watching the river today and Newport police accepted Cincinnati radio station WSAI's offer of its airplane to aid in the manhunt.

Forest Fires Raging

ST. BERNARD DES LACS, Que. (AP)—Forest fires continued to burn vast stands of prime timber on the Gaspe Peninsula today. Many families in lumbering villages moved to safety. A shift in the wind saved 25 men trapped here in smoke-filled St. Bernard des lacs, where three houses and some garages were destroyed Monday.

He Had It Coming

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—John T. Wassner, 25, sent his wife Ann to Scotland to visit her parents. Then he wrote her to stay there. But she returned and found that John, without getting a divorce, had married another woman. Monday he was sentenced to a year in jail for outraging public decency. Ann has divorced him.

A double-ring wedding ceremony July 18 before an altar setting of palms and fernery united Miss Carole Ann Riffle, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Maltarich, 1051 Pennsylvania Ave., and Harold Lee Johnston, son of Harold R. Johnston, 320 W. 6th St., and Mrs. Edith Scott of Salem.

The Rev. Emanuel Emanuel, pastor, officiated for the 7 o'clock rites in the Second United Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Jean Russell, church pianist, presented a quarter-hour of wedding music and Miss Judy Prince sang, "Because, "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her uncle, Fred Brenneman, the bride wore a ballerina-length gown of Chantilly lace, featuring a bouffant skirt over crinolines.

The fitted bodice was fashioned with a scoop neckline and long, pointed sleeves. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was held in place by a crown of sequins and pearls. She observed all the familiar traditions and carried a white Bible with a white orchid and satin streamers.

Mrs. Fred Brenneman, aunt of the bride, was matron of honor and wore a yellow chiffon ballerina-length gown with a matching picture hat. She carried a Colonial bouquet of white carnations with tinted green tips tied with yellow streamers.

Bridesmaids were Miss Janice Linville, Miss Cathy Cuffaro of Wellsville and Mrs. Paul Myers of Salem, sister of the bridegroom.

They were attired in ballerina-length gowns of shrimp color nylon organdy styled with balloon skirts. The fitted bodices featured V-necklines and hearts appliqued in sequins on the skirts and bodices. Matching headpieces completed their costumes and they carried Colonial bouquets of white carnations tied with shrimp color streamers.

The bride's gifts to her attendants were pearl necklaces and the bridegroom presented his with tie clasp and cuff link sets.

Keith George of Vanport, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man and ushers were Richard Kelly, George Petyak and Keith Klein.

The grandmother of the bride was attired in a Navy dress with matching accessories and wore a red rose corsage.

A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Brenneman, 1907 Allison St., Gardendale. A three-tier cake with a miniature bridal couple centered the buffet table. Flowers were used throughout the home.

Aides were Mrs. Frank Maltarich, Mrs. Thomas Williams, Mrs. Donald Maltarich and Mrs. Robert Prescott, aunts of the bride.

The bride is a 1959 graduate of East Liverpool High School.

Her husband served in the Army two years and is employed at the Petrosol gas station in East End.

The couple is receiving friends in a newly furnished apartment at 312 Market St.

Out-of-town guests were from Cleveland, Beaver, Vanport and Wellsville.

Miss Barbara Ludwig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Okey Ludwig, 121 W. 5th St., will become the bride of Ensign Richard Anderson Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Anderson of St. Louis, Mo., during open church rites at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday evening at the First Methodist Church. The Rev. D. Finley Wood, pastor, will officiate.

A reception will follow at the Travelers Hotel.

The prospective bride is a 1954 graduate of East Liverpool High School and a 1958 graduate of Ohio Wesleyan University. She taught school last year at Garden Grove, Calif.

Her fiance was graduated in 1953 from St. Louis High School and attended the University of Missouri. A 1958 graduate of the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, he is stationed aboard the ship Helena at Long Beach, Calif.

Hanover Girl Killed By Shotgun Blast

CADIZ, Ohio (AP)—Sally Cooper, 13, was shot and killed Monday by a shotgun blast in the kitchen of her home at nearby Hanover. She was hit in the upper right arm and chest.

Harrison County authorities said Sally's brother, Robert, 10, told them he was in the back yard and ran into the house when he heard the shot. The girl was shot from close range and authorities doubted she could have triggered the gun accidentally. The parents were not at home at the time of the incident.

NAACP Drive Described As Racial Issue

NEW YORK (AP)—An NAACP drive to get Negro liquor salesmen a larger share of the Harlem market has touched off allegations that this may constitute discrimination against whites.

The Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, a national Jewish organization, said Monday it was investigating such allegations.

The league said the problem was extremely delicate, because of the long and close association the groups have had in fighting discrimination against both Negroes and Jews.

The campaign was begun by the New York branch of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People. The national organization was not consulted in advance. So far it has taken no stand on the issue.

L. Joseph Overton, president of the New York branch of the NAACP, organized the drive earlier this month. He denied he sought to oust established white salesmen.

Overton said there are about 200 wholesale liquor salesmen selling to Harlem retail stores, and of these only 72 are Negroes.

Air Force Missile Chief Faces Quiz About Atlas Delay

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Space Committee summoned the Air Force's top missile chief today to explain what has gone wrong in efforts to get the Atlas missile in shape for combat use.

Lt. Gen. Bernard A. Schriever, head of the Air Research and Development Command, was called as the first witness.

The committee is inquiring into the recent series of unsuccessful firings of the big intercontinental ballistic missile. It also will look into recent test failures of the Navy's Polaris, an advanced type missile designed to be fired from submerged submarines.

After five successive failures, the Air Force last week successfully launched the first Atlas in five months over the full 5,500-mile Atlantic missile range.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Please forgive the spelling. My head isn't too clear this morning and I'm writing this through bloodshot eyes.

I went with the most terrific girl in the world for two years. Before we met I had lost several good jobs because I went the martini route. She told me from the beginning she had no intention of wasting her life on a drunk so I promised to quit drinking.

I was on the wagon 14 months and pretty proud of myself. We became engaged. Then a guy in our office opened a bottle to celebrate his first son after four girls. I thought he'd be insulted if I didn't toast the new heir. I guess it was the third drink that knocked me out of shape.

At 3 a.m. I phoned Tillie and told her she was the most wonderful thing that ever happened to me. She said, "You're drunk — no wonder you didn't show up for our dinner date. The ring will be in the mail tomorrow."

Then down went the receiver.

The ring just came and I'm the saddest guy in town. Please help me.—THE DOPE.

Dear Dope: I can't follow you around and make sure you keep the cork in the bottle. This is strictly a do-it-yourself project, Bub.

If you're an alcoholic (and you have the earmarks) it wasn't the third drink that knocked you out of shape — it was the first one. One teaspoon of liquor is enough to open the box of snakes for such people.

Your only hope is to go to Tillie and beg for forgiveness. With a 14-month sobriety record she may give you another chance.

P.S.: To Tillie. Give him a break. I think he's learned his lesson.

Mother Instinct

Dear Ann: "Worried Dad" thinks he has a problem because his 17-year-old son is dating a 22-year-old school teacher. Well get a load of this — our handsome 20-year-old boy has gone haywire over a divorcee who is 32!

We've never met the woman because he has orders not to bring her around. It's understandable how a young kid could be fascinated by an experienced woman of the world. But why on earth would a woman that age look twice at a kid who isn't even old enough to vote? — HIS PARENTS.

-:-

Dear Parents: She's looking for a little boy to mother.

Endorsed Gifts

Dear Ann: I know you don't write an etiquette column but you seem to have such a sensible approach to all problems I'm hoping to sneak this in.

Dad and Mother are giving us a rather substantial gift of cash for a wedding present. The grandparents are doing the same.

One etiquette book says, "Gifts of money should never be displayed." Another book says, "Display the envelope only."

Are either of these correct? What is your opinion?—SEPTEMBER BRIDE.

Dear Bride: I'm not an authority on etiquette but if it's my opinion you want, here it is:

To display a check would be vulgar. To display an empty envelope makes no sense. You could, however, tell your close friends and relatives that Dad and Mother and the Grandparents gave checks — and skip the amount.

Confidentially

To the True Believer: I almost had to use asbestos gloves to read the last three pages of your letter. May I suggest that you speak more kindly of your enemies? Remember, you made them.

-:-

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Truck Thief Wounded Mishap Injures Three

CLEVELAND (AP)—The driver of a stolen truck tractor was shot three times today when he drove the vehicle through a police roadblock. The truck slammed into a city bus, injuring three passengers.

The wounded man was identified as Julius Alexander, 28, of Cleveland.

Police responded with a fusillade of pistol shots and shotgun blasts as Alexander drove the tractor through the roadblock at Broadview and Pearl Roads. The truck skidded sideways into the bus.

Officers said the tractor was stolen downtown. As Alexander drove west he smashed into three vehicles, including a Parma police cruiser.

Man Free On Bond In Fatal Shooting

GALLIPOLIS, Ohio (AP)—Until the September grand jury considers the matter, 65-year-old Earl Angell of Crown City is free on $3,500 bond in connection with the fatal shooting of John Raines.

Raines, 54, was killed with a shotgun in front of Angell's home Sunday. The victim was growing tomatoes on land owned by Angell, Sheriff Oscar Baird said. Angell waived preliminary hearing on a murder charge.

Chester To Get $862 In State Liquor Taxes

Chester was slated to receive $862 as its share of municipal liquor taxes distributed by the state treasury for the quarter ended June 30.

New Cumberland gets $458 and Weirton $3,608 as their part of the $172,469 distributed to 105 communities. The state collects the tax for the towns, then returns it.

Two Get Life In Strangling Young Boys

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Mrs. Wanda Brogdon and her former lover, Archie Merriam, have been sentenced to life imprisonment for strangling her two young sons.

The Rockford, (Ill.) couple was convicted of first-degree murder last Thursday. The same jury fixed their punishment Sunday.

Merriam admitted he strangled Virgil Brodgon Jr., 5, and David, 3, last May 2, but said he did so at their mother's instigation. She denied it.

The prosecution sought death for both Mrs. Brogdon and Merriam.

"I had expected to die," Mrs. Brogdon said. "I wanted to be with my boys.

"It's all been a horrible mistake. I loved my sons. It was all his (Merriam's) idea."

Advised that Merriam wanted to see her, the 33-year-old woman shot back! "No, no, I hate him! He deserves to die for this horrible thing."

Mrs. Borgdon came to California with Merriam two weeks before the boys were killed.

"WHEN PAIN GROWS SHARP AND SICKNESS RAGES"

—*(Author's Name Below)—

Pain is an indication of sickness. Persistant recurring pain is nature's warning signal that something must be done soon to correct the condition or serious danger may result.

No one but a physician has the knowledge to determine if a pain is the result of a minor or serious condition. Pain is just one of many other symptoms to be studied if a cure is to result. Do not wait till pain grows sharp and sickness rages. Consult your physician immediately to prevent other pain-filled days and possible serious sickness.

A double-ring wedding ceremony July 18 before an altar setting of palms and fernery united Miss Carole Ann Riffle, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Maltarich, 1051 Pennsylvania Ave., and Harold Lee Johnston, son of Harold R. Johnston, 320 W. 6th St., and Mrs. Edith Scott of Salem.

The Rev. Emanuel Emanuel, pastor, officiated for the 7 o'clock rites in the Second United Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Jean Russell, church pianist, presented a quarter-hour of wedding music and Miss Judy Prince sang, "Because, "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her uncle, Fred Brenneman, the bride wore a ballerina-length gown of Chantilly lace, featuring a bouffant skirt over crinolines.

The fitted bodice was fashioned with a scoop neckline and long, pointed sleeves. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was held in place by a crown of sequins and pearls. She observed all the familiar traditions and carried a white Bible with a white orchid and satin streamers.

Mrs. Fred Brenneman, aunt of the bride, was matron of honor and wore a yellow chiffon ballerina-length gown with a matching picture hat. She carried a Colonial bouquet of white carnations with tinted green tips tied with yellow streamers.

Bridesmaids were Miss Janice Linville, Miss Cathy Cuffaro of Wellsville and Mrs. Paul Myers of Salem, sister of the bridegroom.

They were attired in ballerina-length gowns of shrimp color nylon organdy styled with balloon skirts. The fitted bodices featured V-necklines and hearts appliqued in sequins on the skirts and bodices. Matching headpieces completed their costumes and they carried Colonial bouquets of white carnations tied with shrimp color streamers.

The bride's gifts to her attendants were pearl necklaces and the bridegroom presented his with tie clasp and cuff link sets.

Keith George of Vanport, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man and ushers were Richard Kelly, George Petyak and Keith Klein.

The grandmother of the bride was attired in a Navy dress with matching accessories and wore a red rose corsage.

A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Brenneman, 1907 Allison St., Gardendale. A three-tier cake with a miniature bridal couple centered the buffet table. Flowers were used throughout the home.

Aides were Mrs. Frank Maltarich, Mrs. Thomas Williams, Mrs. Donald Maltarich and Mrs. Robert Prescott, aunts of the bride.

The bride is a 1959 graduate of East Liverpool High School.

Her husband served in the Army two years and is employed at the Petrosol gas station in East End.

The couple is receiving friends in a newly furnished apartment at 312 Market St.

Out-of-town guests were from Cleveland, Beaver, Vanport and Wellsville.

Miss Barbara Ludwig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Okey Ludwig, 121 W. 5th St., will become the bride of Ensign Richard Anderson Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Anderson of St. Louis, Mo., during open church rites at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday evening at the First Methodist Church. The Rev. D. Finley Wood, pastor, will officiate.

A reception will follow at the Travelers Hotel.

The prospective bride is a 1954 graduate of East Liverpool High School and a 1958 graduate of Ohio Wesleyan University. She taught school last year at Garden Grove, Calif.

Her fiance was graduated in 1953 from St. Louis High School and attended the University of Missouri. A 1958 graduate of the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, he is stationed aboard the ship Helena at Long Beach, Calif.

Hanover Girl Killed By Shotgun Blast

CADIZ, Ohio (AP)—Sally Cooper, 13, was shot and killed Monday by a shotgun blast in the kitchen of her home at nearby Hanover. She was hit in the upper right arm and chest.

Harrison County authorities said Sally's brother, Robert, 10, told them he was in the back yard and ran into the house when he heard the shot. The girl was shot from close range and authorities doubted she could have triggered the gun accidentally. The parents were not at home at the time of the incident.

NAACP Drive Described As Racial Issue

NEW YORK (AP)—An NAACP drive to get Negro liquor salesmen a larger share of the Harlem market has touched off allegations that this may constitute discrimination against whites.

The Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, a national Jewish organization, said Monday it was investigating such allegations.

The league said the problem was extremely delicate, because of the long and close association the groups have had in fighting discrimination against both Negroes and Jews.

The campaign was begun by the New York branch of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People. The national organization was not consulted in advance. So far it has taken no stand on the issue.

L. Joseph Overton, president of the New York branch of the NAACP, organized the drive earlier this month. He denied he sought to oust established white salesmen.

Overton said there are about 200 wholesale liquor salesmen selling to Harlem retail stores, and of these only 72 are Negroes.

Air Force Missile Chief Faces Quiz About Atlas Delay

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Space Committee summoned the Air Force's top missile chief today to explain what has gone wrong in efforts to get the Atlas missile in shape for combat use.

Lt. Gen. Bernard A. Schriever, head of the Air Research and Development Command, was called as the first witness.

The committee is inquiring into the recent series of unsuccessful firings of the big intercontinental ballistic missile. It also will look into recent test failures of the Navy's Polaris, an advanced type missile designed to be fired from submerged submarines.

After five successive failures, the Air Force last week successfully launched the first Atlas in five months over the full 5,500-mile Atlantic missile range.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Please forgive the spelling. My head isn't too clear this morning and I'm writing this through bloodshot eyes.

I went with the most terrific girl in the world for two years. Before we met I had lost several good jobs because I went the martini route. She told me from the beginning she had no intention of wasting her life on a drunk so I promised to quit drinking.

I was on the wagon 14 months and pretty proud of myself. We became engaged. Then a guy in our office opened a bottle to celebrate his first son after four girls. I thought he'd be insulted if I didn't toast the new heir. I guess it was the third drink that knocked me out of shape.

At 3 a.m. I phoned Tillie and told her she was the most wonderful thing that ever happened to me. She said, "You're drunk — no wonder you didn't show up for our dinner date. The ring will be in the mail tomorrow."

Then down went the receiver.

The ring just came and I'm the saddest guy in town. Please help me.—THE DOPE.

Dear Dope: I can't follow you around and make sure you keep the cork in the bottle. This is strictly a do-it-yourself project, Bub.

If you're an alcoholic (and you have the earmarks) it wasn't the third drink that knocked you out of shape — it was the first one. One teaspoon of liquor is enough to open the box of snakes for such people.

Your only hope is to go to Tillie and beg for forgiveness. With a 14-month sobriety record she may give you another chance.

P.S.: To Tillie. Give him a break. I think he's learned his lesson.

Mother Instinct

Dear Ann: "Worried Dad" thinks he has a problem because his 17-year-old son is dating a 22-year-old school teacher. Well get a load of this — our handsome 20-year-old boy has gone haywire over a divorcee who is 32!

We've never met the woman because he has orders not to bring her around. It's understandable how a young kid could be fascinated by an experienced woman of the world. But why on earth would a woman that age look twice at a kid who isn't even old enough to vote? — HIS PARENTS.

Dear Parents: She's looking for a little boy to mother.

Endorsed Gifts

Dear Ann: I know you don't write an etiquette column but you seem to have such a sensible approach to all problems I'm hoping to sneak this in.

Dad and Mother are giving us a rather substantial gift of cash for a wedding present. The grandparents are doing the same.

One etiquette book says, "Gifts of money should never be displayed." Another book says, "Display the envelope only."

Are either of these correct? What is your opinion?—SEPTEMBER BRIDE.

Dear Bride: I'm not an authority on etiquette but if it's my opinion you want, here it is:

To display a check would be vulgar. To display an empty envelope makes no sense. You could, however, tell your close friends and relatives that Dad and Mother and the Grandparents gave checks — and skip the amount.

Confidentially

To the True Believer: I almost had to use asbestos gloves to read the last three pages of your letter. May I suggest that you speak more kindly of your enemies? Remember, you made them.

-:-

Massillon Mayor Urged To Control Drive On Cleanup

MASSILLON, Ohio (AP) — A city councilman has called on Mayor Edgar L. Lash to exert complete control over the city's drive to clean up gambling.

The mayor went before Council Monday night to give a detailed, secret report on the clean-up operation. Councilman James Young told his colleagues:

"I don't think the job of cleaning up the town can be considered completed. Since the responsibility for preserving the peace is in the chief executive, I feel it is a problem for the city administration and not a legislative one."

During the special meeting, councilmen heard in private certain confidential information from the mayor and 10 police raiders who also presented tape recordings.

Fifteen members of the city's 28-man police force have staged 25 raids on gambling operations, resulting in 11 arrests. Police Chief Stanley Switter resigned last week when the mayor told him to quit or be fired.

No Dating Town Girls, Boys Told At English School

MALVERN, England (AP) — Boys at one of England's swankier schools have been advised discreetly: "Dating town girls just isn't done."

Young gentlemen at Malvern College instead should choose their girl friends from three or four expensive private schools nestling in the surrounding hills.

Wolf whistles are out and local belles are asked to look the other way as the boys in black jackets pass.

"Call it advice," said 49-year-old Headmaster Donald Lindsay, 49, "discreet advice."

"It is not snobbery, you know," the headmaster added. "It is a question of manners. Boys will be boys—if you let them."

Petition Is Denied In Pennsy Election Bid

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Ninth District Court of Appeals has denied a petition filed by a Pennsylvania Railroad brakeman which sought to force the 200,000-member Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen to hold a convention and elect officers.

The court ruled Monday it could not intervene in the internal rules of the Brotherhood in rejecting the mandamus petition of Clyde Titler, of Hiller, Pa. He had asserted the Brotherhood, under its constitution, must hold a convention every four years. The last was in 1954.

Trustees Approve Mowing Of Weeds

Mowing of weeds along various roads in St. Clair Township was approved by the township trustees Monday night when several such requests were received.

Permission was granted the Ohio Valley Gas Co. to make street openings on Lincoln St. and St. Clair Ave. Ext. at Harding Ave.

At the request of Martin Christian and Wilmer Bryson of Lyle St., Neil McIntosh, clerk, reported on the status of the street in relation to the township.

McIntosh said he had been advised by an attorney in the Lyle Estate case, that Lyle St. was among certain streets deeded to the township in the settlement of the estate. He said any street not dedicated previously in the property, had been deeded to the township.

A number of residents paid money due on street oiling work. Clarence Bick of the Calcutta volunteer fire department expressed appreciation for the oiling of the street to the fire station.

Clara Barton, founder of the American Red Cross, was born in Washington D. C., on Christmas Day, 1821.

County Ballot Lists Only 57

With but seven days remaining before the filing deadline, only 57 nonpartisan candidates for village, township and school district posts have filed for the Nov. 3 general election, the County Election Board said today.

Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk, warned aspirants the filing deadline is Wednesday, Aug. 5 at 4 p. m.

The board anticipates nearly 200 candidates will seek the nonpartisan offices, indicating a last-minute rush of aspirants.

The majority of the 57 already filed are seeking township trustee and clerk posts with a few filing for school board seats.

A three-man slate of Salem candidates entered for the Board of Education yesterday but neither East Liverpool nor Wellsville has any official school board candidates as yet. The terms of three men on each board are expiring but some are expected to seek re-election.

Terms ending on the East Liverpool board are those of C. Walter Ashbaugh, vice president; James Lowe and James B. Moss while those of Earl A. Bake, president, William L. Bush and Donald Wellington are expiring in Wellsville.

Four new candidates entered today, O'Hanlon said.

Draft Board Sends 6 Youths For Induction

Six Columbiana County men left today for Cleveland for induction into the armed services, Draft Board 16 reported at Lisbon. They included:

Philip A. Buxton, of Gardendale, East Liverpool; Basil William Galipo, 2200 Danbury Ave., Wellsville; John Marion Nation of Salineville R. D. 1; George A. Harrigan of Salem, and Walter E. Dyke and Lyle Dean Samek, both of Negley.

Ten have been called for induction next month and they will leave Tuesday, Aug. 18.

Complications Fatal

LA JOLLA, Calif. (AP) — Dr. Flora Rose, 84, pioneer home economics expert, died Sunday of complications resulting from a lung infection. She helped found the College of Home Economics at Cornell University in 1907 and served as its dean until her retirement in 1940. She was born at Denver.

Nearly 50 per cent of accidents in the United States occur in the home.

State Aid

Here's the amount each school district is receiving at present and the additional amount of state aid they will receive:

East Liverpool, $738,748 and $79,683; East Palestine, $265,944 and $30,087; Salem, $296,806 and $11,868; Wellsville, $272,544 and $37,805; Columbiana, $141,935 and $11,629; Leetonia, $182,968 and $23,366; Lisbon, $224,222 and $27,800.

In the county area:

Beaver Local, $370,571 and $45,995; Fairfield - Waterford, $111,021 and $7,107; Franklin $10,623 and $375; Southern, $214,908 and $26,755, and United, $185,553.

Stanton Local, which embraces the Port Homer - Irondale - Hammondsville areas, now receives $113,631 and will get an additional $6,585.

The figures were supplied by the Ohio Education Association in a report to school superintendents.

Some Of Ohioans Still Feel Bricker Is Their Senator

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some Ohioans still think Republican John W. Bricker is their senator.

But his former administrative assistant, John M. McElroy, patiently tells them Bricker was defeated last year.

"I've just received 12 letters to Bricker telling him to do something about Jimmy Hoffa (Teamsters Union president)," McElroy said today.

Now on the staff of the Senate Commerce Committee, McElroy says he gets mail for Bricker from Ohioans who really should know better—like presidents of corporations, ministers and school teachers.

Casale Blanks Indians, 4-0, With Neat 3-Hit Performance

Tribe, White Sox Tied For AL Lead

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Indians got a taste Monday night of some of the medicine they've been dishing out to the other American League clubs—good pitching by a young hurler.

Boston's Jerry Casale turned the trick for the Red Sox with a superb three-hit shutout and the Indians went down to a 4-0 defeat.

The loss knocked the Indians out of sole possession of first place, which they now share with the Chicago White Sox. It also snapped a five - game winning streak while Boston ended its six-game losing spell.

Casale, 25-year-old righthander from Brooklyn, N. Y., had some trouble with wildness, but not with Cleveland bats. None of the three hits was tagged hard.

The first hit, a single to right by George Strickland in the second, was the best of the bunch for the Indians. Jim Baxes bounced a single off second baseman Pete Runnels' knee in the seventh inning and Minnie Minoso singled off third baseman Malzone's glove in the eighth.

Herb Score, who hurled the first five innings and yielded three runs, was tagged with his ninth loss. He now has lost four in a row. Score, plagued by wildness again, walked five and struck out five.

After Dick Gernert opened the second with a single, Score walked Jensen and Ted Williams. One run scored as Malzone bounced into a force play at second.

Boston scored its second run in the third inning on a single and Jim Busby's pop fly double.

Jensen smacked his 22nd homer into the left field seats in the fourth frame to make it 3-0. Malzone greeted relief hurler Al Cicotte with his 12th home run in the sixth inning.

Vic Power was held hitless in four trips by Casale and his 13-game hitting streak was broken.

In a twi-night doubleheader this evening, Cleveland will send Gary Bell (9-9) and Don Ferrarese (5-3) against Boston's Bill Monbouquette (2-3) and Frank Sullivan (6-6).

EL Americans Advance To District Finals

Hissom Stops Scio, 2-1, On Four-Hit Job

The East Liverpool American Leaguers found themselves in the District Little League tournament finals after a heard earned 2-1 victory over Scio Monday at Myler Park.

Manager Tom Cloran's team will meet Canton Timken Wednesday at Canton beginning at 6 p. m. for the District 4 championship. Timken defeated Uhrichsville Monday, 11-0.

The appearance of the Americans in the district tourney finals marks the farthest that any American League team from East Liverpool has advanced.

Monday Cloran's team jumped off to a two-run lead in the first inning and gave big Jim Hissom all the working room he needed.

Hissom breezed to his second straight tourney victory.

Never in any real trouble, Hissom struck out 10, walked only one and scattered four hits.

In two of the six innings he worked, he struck out the side and had at least one strikeout in each of the other innings.

Roy Scott, lead off man for East Liverpool, punched a single to left to advance all the way to third on a wild pitch.

Terry Robinson walked, stole second the Hissom sent the right-fielder to the fence with Scott scoring after the catch.

Jim Johnson's single sent Robinson to third and he scored on a passed ball.

Hissom lost his shutout in the third inning when he gave up his only walk and two singles.

Johnson had two for three to pace the East Liverpool hitters.

Ed Ingram lost a home run in the fourth inning when he belted a pitch out of the park but the plate umpire ruled he had stepped out of the batter's box when he hit the ball.

Rinkes was the losing pitcher and fanned six. He allowed East Liverpool six hits. Monigold had two of the four hits off Hissom.

Merchants' Rally Nips Irons, 7-5

The East Liverpool Merchants punched across five runs in the sixth inning to squeeze past Irondale, 7-5, in a City League contest Monday at Patterson Field.

Trailing 5-2 going into the bottom of the sixth, the Merchants put together a pair of walks, one error and four hits.

The Merchants scored their other two runs in the third inning to take a 2-0 lead, but Irondale tied it up with two in the fourth, went ahead with one in the fifth and added a pair in the sixth.

Jim Burks started for Manager John Andrason's Merchants but was relieved by John Zawoysky in the sixth. Zawoysky received credit for the victory.

Bud Santimarino was the losing hurler and gave up 10 hits.

Rambo with a triple and single and Vermillion's two safeties paced Andrason's team while Frampton and Henderson collected two hits each for Irondale.

EL Pony Leaguers Face Tough Test Wednesday

The East Liverpool Pony League All-Stars will have their work cut out for them when they meet a strong Bridgeport squad Wednesday at 6:30 at Dover in the area finals.

Bridgeport walked past its first opponent Bellaire-Shadyside, 12-1, then dumped Martins Ferry, 4-2, in the last game.

The Bridgeport squad is loaded with players up from the Little League teams which have been runnersup to the state title the past two years.

Manager Dick Owen named three pitchers who may get the nod Wednesday. Eddie Pruden, Jim Tridico or Dave Myer could be on the mound for East Liverpool, Owen said.

Pruden pitched East Liverpool to its first tourney win and Tridico defeated Dover Friday on a four-hitter.

Joe Niekro is expected to start for Bridgeport. He is the ace of the Bridgeport pitching staff with a three-hit victory over Bellaire-Shadyside and 2⅓ innings of hitless relief pitching against Martins Ferry.

Trip Pirates Again, 5-2

Braves Demoralize Bucs; Move Within 1½ Of First

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Milwaukee Braves, who only a few days ago looked as they had had it, now have it again—and the "it" is pitching.

With Warren Spahn, Lew Burdette, Juan Pizarro, Bob Buhl and Joey Jay back in form, the Braves have reclaimed second place, closing within 1½ games of idle San Francisco in the National League race as Jay put away a five-game sweep over Pittsburgh Monday, 5-2.

That five-man staff gave up only three runs in the five games, blanking the Bucs through the first 30 2-3 innings and not allowing an earned run for 38 frames until Pittsburgh finally got one home in the third inning Monday.

Cincinnati rapped St. Louis 8-3 in the only other NL game.

In the American League, Cleveland dropped into a first-place tie with idle Chicago, losing 4-0 to Boston and the three-hit pitching of rookie Jersey Casale. Kansas City matched the longest winning string in the majors this season, making it eight straight with a 7-6 victory over Washington. Baltimore defeated Detroit 5-2, with Gene Woodling driving in all the Oriole runs, in the only other game.

Despite a five-hitter by Jay (4-7), who hadn't won in a month, the Braves didn't bag it until the seventh. Blanked on three hits until then by Ron Kline (7-10), they broke loose for all five runs, scoring on Del Crandall's tying, two-run single and Bobby Avila's clinching, two-run triple.

The Reds scored twice in the first inning, then nailed Vinegar Bend Mizell (11-6) with Johnny Temple's fifth homer, a three-run shot in the fourth. Bob Purkey (9-10) went all the way, giving up five of the Cards' nine hits when they scored all three runs in the fifth.

Kansas City Moving Up After Eighth Straight

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Herb Score still is the "if" man for Cleveland, but now the young left-hander could be the difference between the pennant and a near-miss by the Indians, not just a first or second division finish.

In each of the last two springs, the lightly regarded Indians had been figured to be only as good as Score. Last season it was "if Score can come back from that tragic injury." This spring it was "if Score can shake that arm trouble."

Now, with the Injuns shooting for all the marbles, he has been the tough-luck disappointment of their surprising staff.

Score lost his fourth in a row Monday night, a loser to a shutout for the second time in a three-week span. This one was a three-hitter by Jerry Casale that ended Boston's slump at six games with a 4-0 victory, clipped the Injuns' winning streak at five and dropped them into a tie for the American League lead with Chicago's idle White Sox.

It was only the sixth time Cleveland has been blanked this season, but Score (9-9) has been the loser in half of them.

In the only other AL games, Kansas City matched the longest winning streak in the majors this season, making it eight in a row with a 7-6 decision over Washington that hoisted the A's past Detroit into fifth place. Baltimore dropped the Tigers 5-2, with Gene Woodling driving in all the Oriole runs.

Two runs in the eighth on singles by pinchhitter Frank House and Joe DeMaestri won it for the A's, matching the White Sox's mid-May winning streak. The Senators, losing their ninth in a row, set a Washington record with 123 home runs for a season on Harmon Killebrew's 33rd and a grand-slam by Faye Throneberry, which was matched by the A's Roger Maris. Harry Chiti also homered for Kansas City. Murry Dickson (1-0) won it, with Hal Woodeshick (0-3) the loser.

Woodling, driving in the Orioles' last nine runs, cracked a grand-slam, his 13th homer, off loser Jim Bunning (9-9) in the third inning, then added an RBI single in the seventh. Hec Brown (7-6) won it with Billy Loes' three innings of hitless relief.

Bobby Avila Plugs Dike At Second Base

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Bobby Avila is proving that competent second basemen are the sparkplugs that make the Milwaukee Braves baseball machine run the best.

Since he joined the Braves last Wednesday, Milwaukee has changed a rout into a chase and is challenging for the National League lead.

Two years ago, after just missing the title in 1956, the Braves traded with the Giants, then of New York, for Red Schoendienst and went on to win their first pennant since moving to Milwaukee. He was at second again last year and the Braves repeated.

Tuberculosis put the veteran infielder out of the lineup this year. A parade of replacements attempted to fill the post. The Braves turned to the American League and bought the 33-year-old Avila from the Boston Red Sox.

In his first game with Milwaukee, Avila's first hit was a ninth-inning home run that beat the Cincinnati Reds and snapped the losing streak.

He's been at second every game since and during the span the Braves have won 6 of 7 contests, and climbed back to second place, only a game and a half behind the league-leading San Francisco Giants.

Betsy Rawls Wins Tourney

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

MOUNT PROSPECT, Ill. (AP) —Momentarily, at least, Richard Hauff has lost his Midas touch.

The 25-year-old raconteur, who in 1943 was a war waif in his native Iran and last February bought the Mount Prospect Country Club for a million dollars, just blew $27,500 on his first golf tournament.

That $27,500—the dapper Hauff's own figure—represents his first setback after spiraling financially upward in an amazing rags-to-riches story.

Betsy Rawls won Hauff's $20,000 Mount Prospect Women's Open Monday with a 5-under-par 291. She beat out her closest chum, Mickey Wright, by one stroke for the $6,500 first prize, richest in women's golf.

Mickey blew her chance on the last hole, when a trap cost her a bogey 5, and settled for runner-up cash of $2,100. Fay Crocker was third with 293, followed by Louise Suggs at 295 and Beverly Hanson 296.

Hauff said this may be his last attempt to promote a tournament for a while. Next year, the Women's Western Open is in Chicago June 22-26, interfering with any plans he may have for another meet for the distaff side.

"I learned a lot," he said. "But the lesson was expensive. I thought I might drop as much as $20,000 and count it as good publicity for the club. But $27,500 is too much."

Probst Wins Golf Event At Country Club

J. S. Probst with 30 points captured the par-birdie-eagle contest Sunday at the East Liverpool Country Club.

His nearest rival was Dr. J. J. Laneve with 23 points while Bill Hocking Jr., Everson Hall and J. M. Wells tied with 22 points each.

In the second division, W. A. Harris won the honors with 26 points with Dick Heddleston and C. H. Peterson tying for second with 19.

In Saturday's match play against par, Bob Patterson was the winner by finishing 6-up. J. R. Porter closed with 5 up and J. T. Hall and Don Schreckengost, 2-up.

W. H. Harris was 7-up in the second division, with Okey Ludwig 6-up and Bill Mayers and Russ Smith 4-up.

Fawn Township Loses; 6 Remain At Midland

Fawn Township was bumped from the Pennsylvania Non - Pro tourney Monday when Moses Service came out on top with a 3-1 victory.

With Fawn Township falling by the wayside, only six teams remain to pick up all the marbles in the Midland tournament.

The teams will rest tonight with only Little League and Pony League contests set at the Crucible Field.

In a big contest Wednesday at 8 p. m., Midland USW, the 1958 champions, meets a strong Ford City outfit.

Thursday night will be a battle of the undefeated when Freeport and Wampum, both 4-0, meet at 8 p. m. The winner of this contest will go into the finals while the loser will meet Levittown Friday night at 10.

In the 8 p. m. game Friday, the winner of the Midland-Ford City game will meet Moses Service.

Bolt Of Lightning Kills Little Leaguer

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—He had just made the third out of the inning.

As he jogged across the ball diamond in suburban Northridge to his position Monday night, lightning from a threatening summer storm flashed overhead.

Suddenly a bolt seared the evening air and hit the boy.

His horrified father, who had been looking on, rushed the youngster to a hospital but attendants could only pronounce him dead.

Later Jack King spoke of his only son, Jack Jr.

"His Little League uniform was his proudest possession," he said.

Finest Field And Course Are Set For PGA Play

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—The finest field and the finest course in years mark the 1959 Professional Golfers' Assn. championship which starts here Thursday.

Conversation among the early arrivals for the tournament hasn't concerned the possibility of winning the top money of $5,500 or more but the superb condition of the 6,850-yard, par 35-35—70 Minneapolis Golf Club course in suburban St. Louis Park.

Dow Finsterwald, the defending champion, tabs this as one of the half-dozen best courses in the United States.

It's a lush, well-watered layout that will penalize shots that stray more than a yard or two off the fairways. They even had sprinklers working Monday while the players were tuning up their shots. In spite of this, Jackie Burke, the 1956 champion, fired a 2-under-par 68 and a few others shaded par.

Gene Littler, who won his fourth tournament of the year a little over a week ago, had no kind words for his game after hitting the 10th green—the showpiece of the MGC, with his tee shot—and then losing the hole by three-putting.

The only complaint about the course has been that a couple of fairways — notably the 581-yard 15th, longest on the course, and the 430-yard 17th, were rather narrow.

"That 17th is like looking down a church aisle," commented Bob Toski, the 1954 Tam O'Shanter world champion.

Browns' McCormack Suffers Twisted Knee

The injury appeared to be torn ligaments.

McCormack, team captain, suffered an injury to the same knee early last season, was sidelined for a month and never regained full effectiveness.

McCormack should be ready before the season opens, but there is some concern that the injury may be a chronic one.

Fight Remains Up In The Air

GOTEBORG, Sweden, (AP) — Promoter Bill Rosensohn is sure Ingemar Johansson will defend his heavyweight title against Floyd Patterson as per agreement in the United States in September.

Edwin Ahlquist, the champion's advisor, says there will be no negotiations until all questions about Ingemar's purse for the first fight, June 26, are fully settled.

Johansson said he surely is going to the United States. He added henceforth he would only sign contracts "where I can see the signature of my challenger on the opposite side."

Ahlquist and Rosensohn held conferences all day Monday. Then Ahlquist called a press conference to explain that the promoter was going back to New York today to get a complete financial statement on the first fight.

Rosensohn had nothing to say at the conference. Monday night in a telephone interview he said emphatically he had an ironcald contract for the return fight. He said he was confident things would be straightened out.

"It is only natural that he wants to see that he gets what he has coming to him," said Rosensohn. Much of the champ's purse was tied up in escrow to assure he would go through with the rematch and in legal proceedings by heavyweight Eddie Machen who claimed damages for a run-out on an alleged rematch.

Casale Blanks Indians, 4-0, With Neat 3-Hit Performance

Tribe, White Sox Tied For AL Lead

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Indians got a taste Monday night of some of the medicine they've been dishing out to the other American League clubs—good pitching by a young hurler.

Boston's Jerry Casale turned the trick for the Red Sox with a superb three-hit shutout and the Indians went down to a 4-0 defeat.

The loss knocked the Indians out of sole possession of first place, which they now share with the Chicago White Sox. It also snapped a five - game winning streak while Boston ended its six-game losing spell.

Casale, 25-year-old righthander from Brooklyn, N. Y., had some trouble with wildness, but not with Cleveland bats. None of the three hits was tagged hard.

The first hit, a single to right by George Strickland in the second, was the best of the bunch for the Indians. Jim Baxes bounced a single off second baseman Pete Runnels' knee in the seventh inning and Minnie Minoso singled off third baseman Malzone's glove in the eighth.

Herb Score, who hurled the first five innings and yielded three runs, was tagged with his ninth loss. He now has lost four in a row. Score, plagued by wildness again, walked five and struck out five.

After Dick Gernert opened the second with a single, Score walked Jensen and Ted Williams. One run scored as Malzone bounced into a force play at second.

Boston scored its second run in the third inning on a single and Jim Busby's pop fly double.

Jensen smacked his 22nd homer into the left field seats in the fourth frame to make it 3-0. Malzone greeted relief hurler Al Cicotte with his 12th home run in the sixth inning.

Vic Power was held hitless in four trips by Casale and his 13-game hitting streak was broken.

In a twi-night doubleheader this evening, Cleveland will send Gary Bell (9-9) and Don Ferrarese (5-3) against Boston's Bill Monbouquette (2-3) and Frank Sullivan (6-6).

EL Americans Advance To District Finals

Hissom Stops Scio, 2-1, On Four-Hit Job

The East Liverpool American Leaguers found themselves in the District Little League tournament finals after a heard earned 2-1 victory over Scio Monday at Myler Park.

Manager Tom Cloran's team will meet Canton Timken Wednesday at Canton beginning at 6 p. m. for the District 4 championship. Timken defeated Uhrichsville Monday, 11-0.

The appearance of the Americans in the district tourney finals marks the farthest that any American League team from East Liverpool has advanced.

Monday Cloran's team jumped off to a two-run lead in the first inning and gave big Jim Hissom all the working room he needed.

Hissom breezed to his second straight tourney victory.

Never in any real trouble, Hissom struck out 10, walked only one and scattered four hits.

In two of the six innings he worked, he struck out the side and had at least one strikeout in each of the other innings.

Roy Scott, lead off man for East Liverpool, punched a single to left to advance all the way to third on a wild pitch.

Terry Robinson walked, stole second the Hissom sent the rightfielder to the fence with Scott scoring after the catch.

Jim Johnson's single sent Robinson to third and he scored on a passed ball.

Hissom lost his shutout in the third inning when he gave up his only walk and two singles.

Johnson had two for three to pace the East Liverpool hitters.

Ed Ingram lost a home run in the fourth inning when he belted a pitch out of the park but the plate umpire ruled he had stepped out of the batter's box when he hit the ball.

Rinkes was the losing pitcher and fanned six. He allowed East Liverpool six hits. Monigold had two of the four hits off Hissom.

Merchants' Rally Nips Irons, 7-5

The East Liverpool Merchants punched across five runs in the sixth inning to squeeze past Irondale, 7-5, in a City League contest Monday at Patterson Field.

Trailing 5-2 going into the bottom of the sixth, the Merchants put together a pair of walks, one error and four hits.

The Merchants scored their other two runs in the third inning to take a 2-0 lead, but Irondale tied it up with two in the fourth, went ahead with one in the fifth and added a pair in the sixth.

Jim Burks started for Manager John Andrason's Merchants but was relieved by John Zawoysky in the sixth. Zawoysky received credit for the victory.

Bud Santimarino was the losing hurler and gave up 10 hits.

Rambo with a triple and single and Vermillion's two safeties paced Andrason's team while Frampton and Henderson collected two hits each for Irondale.

EL Pony Leaguers Face Tough Test Wednesday

The East Liverpool Pony League All-Stars will have their work cut out for them when they meet a strong Bridgeport squad Wednesday at 6:30 at Dover in the area finals.

Bridgeport walked past its first opponent Bellaire-Shadyside, 12-1, then dumped Martins Ferry, 4-2, in the last game.

The Bridgeport squad is loaded with players up from the Little League teams which have been runnersup to the state title the past two years.

Manager Dick Owen named three pitchers who may get the nod Wednesday. Eddie Pruden, Jim Tridico or Dave Myer could be on the mound for East Liverpool, Owen said.

Pruden pitched East Liverpool to its first tourney win and Tridico defeated Dover Friday on a four-hitter.

Joe Niekro is expected to start for Bridgeport. He is the ace of the Bridgeport pitching staff with a three-hit victory over Bellaire-Shadyside and 2⅓ innings of hitless relief pitching against Martins Ferry.

Fawn Township Loses; 6 Remain At Midland

Fawn Township was bumped from the Pennsylvania Non - Pro tourney Monday when Moses Service came out on top with a 3-1 victory.

With Fawn Township falling by the wayside, only six teams remain to pick up all the marbles in the Midland tournament.

The teams will rest tonight with only Little League and Pony League contests set at the Crucible Field.

In a big contest Wednesday at 8 p. m., Midland USW, the 1958 champions, meets a strong Ford City outfit.

Thursday night will be a battle of the undefeated when Freeport and Wampum, both 4-0, meet at 8 p. m. The winner of this contest will go into the finals while the loser will meet Levittown Friday night at 10.

In the 8 p. m. game Friday, the winner of the Midland-Ford City game will meet Moses Service.

Bolt Of Lightning Kills Little Leaguer

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—He had just made the third out of the inning.

As he jogged across the ball diamond in suburban Northridge to his position Monday night, lightning from a threatening summer storm flashed overhead.

Suddenly a bolt seared the evening air and hit the boy.

His horrified father, who had been looking on, rushed the youngster to a hospital but attendants could only pronounce him dead.

Later Jack King spoke of his only son, Jack Jr.

"His Little League uniform was his proudest possession," he said.

Ohioan Making Bid In Horseshoe Pitching

Braves Demoralize Bucs; Move Within 1½ Of First

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Milwaukee Braves, who only a few days ago looked as they had had it, now have it again—and the "it" is pitching.

With Warren Spahn, Lew Burdette, Juan Pizarro, Bob Buhl and Joey Jay back in form, the Braves have reclaimed second place, closing within 1½ games of idle San Francisco in the National League race as Jay put away a five-game sweep over Pittsburgh Monday, 5-2.

That five-man staff gave up only three runs in the five games, blanking the Bucs through the first 30 2-3 innings and not allowing an earned run for 38 frames until Pittsburgh finally got one home in the third inning Monday.

Cincinnati rapped St. Louis 8-3 in the only other NL game.

In the American League, Cleveland dropped into a first-place tie with idle Chicago, losing 4-0 to Boston and the three-hit pitching of rookie Jersey Casale. Kansas City matched the longest winning string in the majors this season, making it eight straight with a 7-6 victory over Washington. Baltimore defeated Detroit 5-2, with Gene Woodling driving in all the Oriole runs, in the only other game.

Despite a five-hitter by Jay (4-7), who hadn't won in a month, the Braves didn't bag it until the seventh. Blanked on three hits until then by Ron Kline (7-10), they broke loose for all five runs, scoring on Del Crandall's tying, two-run single and Bobby Avila's clinching, two-run triple.

The Reds scored twice in the first inning, then nailed Vinegar Bend Mizell (11-6) with Johnny Temple's fifth homer, a three-run shot in the fourth. Bob Purkey (9-10) went all the way, giving up five of the Cards' nine hits when they scored all three runs in the fifth.

Kansas City Moving Up After Eighth Straight

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Herb Score still is the "if" man for Cleveland, but now the young left-hander could be the difference between the pennant and a near-miss by the Indians, not just a first or second division finish.

In each of the last two springs, the lightly regarded Indians had been figured to be only as good as Score. Last season it was "if Score can come back from that tragic injury." This spring it was "if Score can shake that arm trouble."

Now, with the Injuns shooting for all the marbles, he has been the tough-luck disappointment of their surprising staff.

Score lost his fourth in a row Monday night, a loser to a shutout for the second time in a three-week span. This one was a three-hitter by Jerry Casale that ended Boston's slump at six games with a 4-0 victory, clipped the Injuns' winning streak at five and dropped them into a tie for the American League lead with Chicago's idle White Sox.

It was only the sixth time Cleveland has been blanked this season, but Score (9-9) has been the loser in half of them.

In the only other AL games, Kansas City matched the longest winning streak in the majors this season, making it eight in a row with a 7-6 decision over Washington that hoisted the A's past Detroit into fifth place. Baltimore dropped the Tigers 5-2, with Gene Woodling driving in all the Oriole runs.

Two runs in the eighth on singles by pinchhitter Frank House and Joe DeMaestri won it for the A's, matching the White Sox's mid-May winning streak. The Senators, losing their ninth in a row, set a Washington record with 123 home runs for a season on Harmon Killebrew's 33rd and a grand-slam by Faye Throneberry, which was matched by the A's Roger Maris. Harry Chiti also homered for Kansas City. Murry Dickson (1-0) won it, with Hal Woodeshick (0-3) the loser.

Woodling, driving in the Orioles' last nine runs, cracked a grand-slam, his 13th homer, off loser Jim Bunning (9-9) in the third inning, then added an RBI single in the seventh. Hec Brown (7-6) won it with Billy Loes' three innings of hitless relief.

Finest Field And Course Are Set For PGA Play

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—The finest field and the finest course in years mark the 1959 Professional Golfers' Assn. championship which starts here Thursday.

Conversation among the early arrivals for the tournament hasn't concerned the possibility of winning the top money of $5,500 or more but the superb condition of the 6,850-yard, par 35-35—70 Minneapolis Golf Club course in suburban St. Louis Park.

Dow Finsterwald, the defending champion, tabs this as one of the half-dozen best courses in the United States.

It's a lush, well-watered layout that will penalize shots that stray more than a yard or two off the fairways. They even had sprinklers working Monday while the players were tuning up their shots. In spite of this, Jackie Burke, the 1956 champion, fired a 2-under-par 68 and a few others shaded par.

Gene Littler, who won his fourth tournament of the year a little over a week ago, had no kind words for his game after hitting the 10th green—the showpiece of the MGC, with his tee shot—and then losing the hole by three-putting.

The only complaint about the course has been that a couple of fairways — notably the 581-yard 15th, longest on the course, and the 430-yard 17th, were rather narrow.

"That 17th is like looking down a church aisle," commented Bob Toski, the 1954 Tam O'Shanter world champion.

The injury appeared to be torn ligaments.

McCormack, team captain, suffered an injury to the same knee early last season, was sidelined for a month and never regained full effectiveness.

McCormack should be ready before the season opens, but there is some concern that the injury may be a chronic one.

Fight Remains Up In The Air

GOTEBORG, Sweden, (AP) — Promoter Bill Rosensohn is sure Ingemar Johansson will defend his heavyweight title against Floyd Patterson as per agreement in the United States in September.

Edwin Ahlquist, the champion's advisor, says there will be no negotiations until all questions about Ingemar's purse for the first fight, June 26, are fully settled.

Johansson said he surely is going to the United States. He added henceforth he would only sign contracts "where I can see the signature of my challenger on the opposite side."

Ahlquist and Rosensohn held conferences all day Monday. Then Ahlquist called a press conference to explain that the promoter was going back to New York today to get a complete financial statement on the first fight.

Rosensohn had nothing to say at the conference. Monday night in a telephone interview he said emphatically he had an ironcald contract for the return fight. He said he was confident things would be straightened out.

"It is only natural that he wants to see that he gets what he has coming to him," said Rosensohn. Much of the champ's purse was tied up in escrow to assure he would go through with the rematch and in legal proceedings by heavyweight Eddie Machen who claimed damages for a run-out on an alleged rematch.

Bobby Avila Plugs Dike At Second Base

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Bobby Avila is proving that competent second basemen are the sparkplugs that make the Milwaukee Braves baseball machine run the best.

Since he joined the Braves last Wednesday, Milwaukee has changed a rout into a chase and is challenging for the National League lead.

Two years ago, after just missing the title in 1956, the Braves traded with the Giants, then of New York, for Red Schoendienst and went on to win their first pennant since moving to Milwaukee. He was at second again last year and the Braves repeated.

Tuberculosis put the veteran infielder out of the lineup this year. A parade of replacements attempted to fill the post. The Braves turned to the American League and bought the 33-year-old Avila from the Boston Red Sox.

In his first game with Milwaukee, Avila's first hit was a ninth-inning home run that beat the Cincinnati Reds and snapped the losing streak.

He's been at second every game since and during the span the Braves have won 6 of 7 contests, and climbed back to second place, only a game and a half behind the league-leading San Francisco Giants.

Betsy Rawls Wins Tourney

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

MOUNT PROSPECT, Ill. (AP) —Momentarily, at least, Richard Hauff has lost his Midas touch.

The 25-year-old raconteur, who in 1943 was a war waif in his native Iran and last February bought the Mount Prospect Country Club for a million dollars, just blew $27,500 on his first golf tournament.

That $27,500—the dapper Hauff's own figure—represents his first setback after spiraling financially upward in an amazing rags-to-riches story.

Betsy Rawls won Hauff's $20,000 Mount Prospect Women's Open Monday with a 5-under-par 291. She beat out her closest chum, Mickey Wright, by one stroke for the $6,500 first prize, richest in women's golf.

Mickey blew her chance on the last hole, when a trap cost her a bogey 5, and settled for runner-up cash of $2,100. Fay Crocker was third with 293, followed by Louise Suggs at 295 and Beverly Hanson 296.

Hauff said this may be his last attempt to promote a tournament for a while. Next year, the Women's Western Open is in Chicago June 22-26, interfering with any plans he may have for another meet for the distaff side.

"I learned a lot," he said. "But the lesson was expensive. I thought I might drop as much as $20,000 and count it as good publicity for the club. But $27,500 is too much."

Yesterday's Stars

Pitching — Jerry Casale, Red Sox, allowed only three singles, walking five and striking out three, for 3-0 victory over Indians, who dropped into first place tie with White Sox.

Hitting — Gene Woodling, Orioles, drove in all Baltimore runs in 5-2 victory over the Tigers with a grand-slam homer and a single.

Probst Wins Golf Event At Country Club

J. S. Probst with 30 points captured the par-birdie-eagle contest Sunday at the East Liverpool Country Club.

His nearest rival was Dr. J. J. Laneve with 23 points while Bill Hocking Jr., Everson Hall and J. M. Wells tied with 22 points each.

In the second division, W. A. Harris won the honors with 26 points with Dick Heddleston and C. H. Peterson tying for second with 19.

In Saturday's match play against par, Bob Patterson was the winner by finishing 6-up. J. R. Porter closed with 5 up and J. T. Hall and Don Schreckengost, 2-up.

W. H. Harris was 7-up in the second division, with Okey Ludwig 6-up and Bill Mayers and Russ Smith 4-up.

Third Major League Plans To Operate By 1961 Season

Continental Loop To Have Eight Clubs

NEW YORK (AP) — The five founding cities of the third major baseball league — the Continental League—plan to operate in 1961 with at least eight clubs.

Where will they get the players? Will they work with the other majors? Or outside the present structure?

These questions will be batted around when the founders meet Aug. 18 with Commissioner Ford Frick's seven-man committee from the existing majors.

New York is one of the five founders. The names and backers of the others were announced Monday at a news conference by Bill Shea, chairman of Mayor Wagner's baseball committee.

Toronto, Houston, Denver and Minneapolis-St. Paul round out the group of founders. Shea listed 11 cities that have evinced interest in joining. They are Buffalo, Montreal, Atlanta, New Orleans, Miami, Indianapolis, Dallas-Fort Worth, Seattle, Portland, Ore., San Diego and San Juan, Puerto Rico.

Shea said he hoped to have two or three more cities lined up with the founders before his group meets with Frick's committee. He declined to reveal details of his plans for securing players from existing major league teams and their minor league farms.

The new league said it expected full cooperation from the American and National leagues, who voted in May to favorably consider applications for major league status by "an acceptable group of eight clubs which could qualify."

Shea said the league would have a minimum of eight clubs, perhaps 10 and more than 12 when fully organized. It will play a 154-game schedule.

"We are proceeding on the basis of complete and unqualified cooperation of the two existing major leagues," Shea said in a statement.

Shea also disclosed the league had arranged to comply with a request from Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn) to appear July 31 in Washington before an antitrust subcommittee.

Purkey Stops Cards 8 To 3

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Cincinnati Reds' Bob Purkey says he's just lucky.

But Purkey at his best shows talent too. Monday night, he scattered nine hits in the Reds' 8-3 victory over St. Louis.

If the round-faced righthander says "luck" is his biggest asset, he also admits that the change of pace he learned last year is a big help.

"That good year helped my confidence tremendously," he said. "I picked up a change of pace and I think that's the best pitch in baseball. The fast ball, change, curve and knuckler are all I throw."

The stubby Pennsylvanian ran into some bad luck—or at least some defeats—last month, but still might be the Reds' winningest hurler again this season.

His only unlucky spot Monday night came in the fifth inning when the Cards turned on him for five hits, and three runs, cutting an early Cincinnati lead to two runs.

Former Redleg George Crow's double and Don Blasingame's triple were the big hits.

Purkey's colleagues, however, used their half of the fifth to score two more runs and give him a softer cushion.

Willie Jones' single, Frank Thomas' double and Dutch Dotterer's sacrifice fly put one marker over and Thomas scored on Eddie Kasko's single.

The big blow of the Reds' 11-hit assault came in the fourth when Dotterer and Kasko singled and skinny Johnny Temple banged his fifth home run of the season.

Temple also scored the final run in the eighth. He doubled and Gus Bell singled him in.

The Reds got the jump on the Cards in the first inning. Starter Wilmer Mizell doled out four walks that blended with Frank Robinson's sacrifice fly and Thomas' single for two runs.

Mizell didn't last out the fourth inning, departing after Temple's homer. But his boss, Solly Hemus, didn't even finish the first inning.

Hemus got into a talking match with Umpire Stan Landes and was thumbed from the game.

The Cards and Reds meet again tonight with young Jay Hook for the Reds, and Ernie Broglio slated to pitch.

Yawkey Calls For Shake Up

BOSTON (AP) — Boston Red Sox owner Tom Yawkey, challenging his players to get going or get out, has ordered the cellar club's infield shaken up.

Yawkey and General Manager Bucky Harris Monday called the shots as shortstop Jim Mahoney and Negro pitcher Earl Wilson were summoned from the Minneapolis farm.

After a phone conversation with field boss Billy Jurges in Cleveland, it was announced that Mahoney, batting .211 in the American Assn., would start for the Sox at short in tonight's doubleheader with the Indians. Pumpsie Green, recently called up as the first Negro to play for the parent club, takes over second base while Pete Runnels moves to first.

Benched until further notice are shortstop Don Buddin and previously platooned first basemen Dick Gernert and Vic Wertz.

Jurges said in Cleveland he would work Wilson (10-2) in relief at first, then perhaps move him to a starting job later.

North Carolina Names Hickey As Grid Coach

CHAPEL HILL, N. C. (AP)—Jim Hickey, an assistant of North Carolina's football staff for three years and a successful small college coach before that, is the new head coach of the Tar Heels.

The 39-year-old Hickey was appointed Monday to succeed Jim Tatum, who died last Thursday of a virus infection.

Hickey, head coach at Hampden-Sydney College in Virginia for five years before coming here in 1956, was given a three-year contract. It calls for an annual salary of $12,000.

Pitcher Don Newcombe credits Cincinnati trainer Wayne Anderson for his successful comeback this season. Andy takes care of Newk's arm.

Young Drivers 'Scorch' East End Midget Track

Midget car racing, a sport which is popular in the West and is spreading across the country, has caught the attention of many East Liverpool youngsters.

A group of 15 local men are laying the groundwork and have organized a Micro Midget Automobile Racing Club here.

Columbian Park, in the East End, has been a hub of activity the last few weeks where the new midget track opened.

Sanctioned by the National Track Rabbit Racing Association, the local club plans to stage races each Saturday night.

Any youngster interested in midget racing can attend a "school" for young drivers held the night before the races.

The automobiles are constructed of welded steel tubing and plate and are designed in every way for the protection of the driver. The midgets are powered by 2½-horsepower gasoline engines, with chain drive to left rear wheel sprocket. They are equipped with foam rubber cushions and safety belt and the National Track Rabbit group requires all safety equipment to be used, such as protective helmets and goggles.

Some 200 spectators lined Columbian Park Saturday to view the first official racing card.

A recent survey showed that 100 tracks are in operation in Ohio, Michigan and Pennsylvania.

The East End track will be governed by national association rules. Races will be held in various age groups, club officials said.

Venezuela 'Bandit' Keeps Chicago In Pennant Race

By JOE MOOSHIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP)—Luis Aparicio, the little bandit of the basepaths, from Maraciabo, Venezuela, has Chicago White Sox rivals cursing with admiration.

The 25-year-old shortstop, the solid center of Chicago's well knit defense, is keeping the Sox in contention for the American League pennant not only with his fielding but also his superb base-running.

Luis has been the American League's top base stealer since breaking in the majors in 1956. As a rookie he had 21 stolen bases. Two years ago he led the league with 28, last year he was tops with 29 and this year he already has 31.

The minute Luis gets on base, White Sox fans begin their hammering chant of "go, go, go." He has been caught stealing only eight times and three of these involved the tough attempts at third base or home plate.

In the field, Luis has no peer in either league. There are those who claim he is the greatest shortstop of all time. Many who won't go this far refuse to name anyone greater and add "he's as good as any" they've seen.

Baltimore Manager Paul Richards recently called Aparicio "the greatest living shortstop of all time."

'And That Ain't Artichokes!' Horse Moans As He Eats Hay

NEW YORK (AP) — How can you expect a horse to run without artichokes?

The horse is named Jamin. He is 6 years old and he has eaten artichokes all his life.

They seem to agree with him, too, because, as every sporting Frenchman knows, Jamin is the trotting champion of all France. He came to the United States to run in the $50,000 International Trot at Roosevelt Raceway on Long Island Saturday.

The artichokes — 150 pounds of them—came in on the plane with Jamin last week. They were impounded for inspection by the Department of Agriculture. But when a truck came to pick them up for Jamin, they were missing.

None can be found here because they're out of season. Jamin has had to live for a whole week on oats and hay.

His trainer-rider, Jean Riaud, gave him a workout Monday. He was gloomy about the results.

"He ees, 'ow you say, sloogish? Not good. No artichokes."

Food for two Italian trotters who came over on the same plane was impounded too, but no one seems to care beans about them.

They eat artichokes too?

Nope. Beans.

Auto Club Didn't Suggest Route

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Taking a route definitely not recommended by the Columbus Automobile Club, a woman driver bounced her car over the curb, across the sidewalk and through the club's plate glass window Monday.

The driver, Mrs. Manfred Linick of Columbus, had visited the club a few minutes earlier for travel information and then picked up her husband. He said he believes the car veered "when the right wheel froze."

There are several consolations. The Linicks' insurance agent was walking nearby when the accident happened. And the club's general manager, Russell Campbell, said he had been discussing the need for remodeling the front only a couple hours earlier.

The renovation begins today. Campbell said it will not be a drive-in.

Sammy Baugh, the former professional passing star, has a 20-21 record in four years as football coach at Hardin-Simmons in Abilene, Tex.

3 Post Wins In Y-League

First Free Methodist failed to stop Grace U. P. in their bid for the YMCA-Church Softball title.

Grace U. P., behind the relief pitching by Gene Talbott, handed First Free Methodist a 9-3 defeat Monday.

Talbott came in to relieve Seevers in the fifth inning with two men on and struck out the last eight men to face him.

Second Church of Christ defeated Oakland, 7-1, behind the five hit pitching of Gail Talbott. B. Talbott and P. Wilkinson had two hits apiece for the winners.

J. Horner, Larry Morris and Wilkinson had three consecutive home runs in the fifth inning for Second Church of Christ.

First Methodist nipped First Church of Christ, 4-3, with Allison the winning hurler.

Field Slashed To 67 In Jaycee Golf Play

MANSFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Thirty-six holes of golf at Westbrook Country Club today will determine the four young golfers from Ohio who will go to the National Junior Chamber of Commerce Tournament at Portsmouth, Va.

The Ohio Jaycees junior golf tournament began Monday with a field of 158, but an 18-hole qualifier whittled that down to 67. Low man was 17-year-old Grant Kloppman of Cleveland, who shot a par 72.

All entrants are 18 or younger. The four with the lowest scores today will compete in the National in two weeks.

2 Young People Killed In Scooter-Car Crash

NAPOLEON, Ohio (AP) — Two young people riding a motor scooter were injured fatally Monday evening when the scooter collided with an automobile at an intersection of county roads two miles north of Westhope in Henry County.

Victims of the accident were Jerry Komon, 18, of Metamora, and June Hohenberger, 19, of Rt. 2, Holgate.

A witness told deputy sheriffs that Komon stopped the scooter at a stop sign, then pulled into the intersection and was struck by a car driven by Gayle Meekus, 19, of New Bavaria. Meekus was not hurt.

Rutgers' Associate Professor Dies At 57

NEWFOUNDLAND, N. J. (AP) Francis M. Cody, 57, associate professor of marketing at Rutgers University, died Monday of a heart attack.

Born in Marysville, Ohio, he graduated from the College of Wooster and Harvard University, served as a captain in the U.S. Air Technical Service Command in World War II, and worked for several newspapers and Look Magazine in merchandising capacities.

Weirton Man Fined By Cumberland Squire

NEW CUMBERLAND — A Weirton driver was fined $10 and costs on a hazardous driving charge at a hearing Monday evening before Squire John D. Herron.

Harold R. Johns, 28, was arrested Saturday by Hancock County sheriff's deputies on Route 2.

Lester S. Nolan, 45, of Pittsburgh, posted a $17 bond yesterday for an appearance today on a charge of hazardous driving. Nolan was arrested last night by deputies on Route 66.

Third Major League Plans To Operate By 1961 Season

Continental Loop To Have Eight Clubs

NEW YORK (AP) — The five founding cities of the third major baseball league — the Continental League—plan to operate in 1961 with at least eight clubs.

Where will they get the players? Will they work with the other majors? Or outside the present structure?

These questions will be batted around when the founders meet Aug. 18 with Commissioner Ford Frick's seven-man committee from the existing majors.

New York is one of the five founders. The names and backers of the others were announced Monday at a news conference by Bill Shea, chairman of Mayor Wagner's baseball committee.

Toronto, Houston, Denver and Minneapolis-St. Paul round out the group of founders. Shea listed 11 cities that have evinced interest in joining. They are Buffalo, Montreal, Atlanta, New Orleans, Miami, Indianapolis, Dallas-Fort Worth, Seattle, Portland, Ore., San Diego and San Juan, Puerto Rico.

Shea said he hoped to have two or three more cities lined up with the founders before his group meets with Frick's committee. He declined to reveal details of his plans for securing players from existing major league teams and their minor league farms.

The new league said it expected full cooperation from the American and National leagues, who voted in May to favorably consider applications for major league status by "an acceptable group of eight clubs which could qualify."

Shea said the league would have a minimum of eight clubs, perhaps 10 and more than 12 when fully organized. It will play a 154-game schedule.

"We are proceeding on the basis of complete and unqualified cooperation of the two existing major leagues," Shea said in a statement.

Shea also disclosed the league had arranged to comply with a request from Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn) to appear July 31 in Washington before an antitrust subcommittee.

Purkey Stops Cards 8 To 3

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Cincinnati Reds' Bob Purkey says he's just lucky.

But Purkey at his best shows talent too. Monday night, he scattered nine hits in the Reds' 8-3 victory over St. Louis.

If the round-faced righthander says "luck" is his biggest asset, he also admits that the change of pace he learned last year is a big help.

"That good year helped my confidence tremendously," he said. "I picked up a change of pace and I think that's the best pitch in baseball. The fast ball, change, curve and knuckler are all I throw."

The stubby Pennsylvanian ran into some bad luck—or at least some defeats—last month, but still might be the Reds' winningest hurler again this season.

His only unlucky spot Monday night came in the fifth inning when the Cards turned on him for five hits, and three runs, cutting an early Cincinnati lead to two runs.

Former Redleg George Crow's double and Don Blasingame's triple were the big hits.

Purkey's colleagues, however, used their half of the fifth to score two more runs and give him a softer cushion.

Willie Jones' single, Frank Thomas' double and Dutch Dotterer's sacrifice fly put one marker over and Thomas scored on Eddie Kasko's single.

The big blow of the Reds' 11-hit assault came in the fourth when Dotterer and Kasko singled and skinny Johnny Temple banged his fifth home run of the season.

Temple also scored the final run in the eighth. He doubled and Gus Bell singled him in.

The Reds got the jump on the Cards in the first inning. Starter Wilmer Mizell doled out four walks that blended with Frank Robinson's sacrifice fly and Thomas' single for two runs.

Mizell didn't last out the fourth inning, departing after Temple's homer. But his boss, Solly Hemus, didn't even finish the first inning.

Hemus got into a talking match with Umpire Stan Landes and was thumbed from the game.

The Cards and Reds meet again tonight with young Jay Hook for the Reds, and Ernie Broglio slated to pitch.

A HANDFUL of the young drivers line up for the start at Columbian Park where a new midget track has been in operation for the last two weeks. The drivers are waiting the starter's flag to begin a 15-lap race.

Yawkey Calls For Shake Up

BOSTON (AP) — Boston Red Sox owner Tom Yawkey, challenging his players to get going or get out, has ordered the cellar club's infield shaken up.

Yawkey and General Manager Bucky Harris Monday called the shots as shortstop Jim Mahoney and Negro pitcher Earl Wilson were summoned from the Minneapolis farm.

After a phone conversation with field boss Billy Jurges in Cleveland, it was announced that Mahoney, batting .211 in the American Assn., would start for the Sox at short in tonight's doubleheader with the Indians. Pumpsie Green, recently called up as the first Negro to play for the parent club, takes over second base while Pete Runnels moves to first.

Benched until further notice are shortstop Don Buddin and previously platooned first basemen Dick Gernert and Vic Wertz.

Jurges said in Cleveland he would work Wilson (10-2) in relief at first, then perhaps move him to a starting job later.

North Carolina Names Hickey As Grid Coach

CHAPEL HILL, N. C. (AP)—Jim Hickey, an assistant of North Carolina's football staff for three years and a successful small college coach before that, is the new head coach of the Tar Heels.

The 39-year-old Hickey was appointed Monday to succeed Jim Tatum, who died last Thursday of a virus infection.

Hickey, head coach at Hampden-Sydney College in Virginia for five years before coming here in 1956, was given a three-year contract. It calls for an annual salary of $12,000.

Pitcher Don Newcombe credits Cincinnati trainer Wayne Anderson for his successful comeback this season. Andy takes care of Newk's arm.

Young Drivers 'Scorch' East End Midget Track

Midget car racing, a sport which is popular in the West and is spreading across the country, has caught the attention of many East Liverpool youngsters.

A group of 15 local men are laying the groundwork and have organized a Micro Midget Automobile Racing Club here.

Columbian Park, in the East End, has been a hub of activity the last few weeks where the new midget track opened.

Sanctioned by the National Track Rabbit Racing Association, the local club plans to stage races each Saturday night.

Any youngster interested in midget racing can attend a "school" for young drivers held the night before the races.

The automobiles are constructed of welded steel tubing and plate and are designed in every way for the protection of the driver. The midgets are powered by 2½-horsepower gasoline engines, with chain drive to left rear wheel sprocket. They are equipped with foam rubber cushions and safety belt and the National Track Rabbit group requires all safety equipment to be used, such as protective helmets and goggles.

Some 200 spectators lined Columbian Park Saturday to view the first official racing card.

A recent survey showed that 100 tracks are in operation in Ohio, Michigan and Pennsylvania.

The East End track will be governed by national association rules. Races will be held in various age groups, club officials said.

Venezuela 'Bandit' Keeps Chicago In Pennant Race

By JOE MOOSHIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP)—Luis Aparicio, the little bandit of the basepaths, from Maraciabo, Venezuela, has Chicago White Sox rivals cursing with admiration.

The 25-year-old shortstop, the solid center of Chicago's well knit defense, is keeping the Sox in contention for the American League pennant not only with his fielding but also his superb base-running.

Luis has been the American League's top base stealer since breaking in the majors in 1956. As a rookie he had 21 stolen bases. Two years ago he led the league with 28, last year he was tops with 29 and this year he already has 31.

The minute Luis gets on base, White Sox fans begin their hammering chant of "go, go, go." He has been caught stealing only eight times and three of these involved the tough attempts at third base or home plate.

In the field, Luis has no peer in either league. There are those who claim he is the greatest shortstop of all time. Many who won't go this far refuse to name anyone greater and add "he's as good as any" they've seen.

Baltimore Manager Paul Richards recently called Aparicio "the greatest living shortstop of all time."

'And That Ain't Artichokes!' Horse Moans As He Eats Hay

NEW YORK (AP — How can you expect a horse to run without artichokes?

The horse is named Jamin. He is 6 years old and he has eaten artichokes all his life.

They seem to agree with him, too, because, as every sporting Frenchman knows, Jamin is the trotting champion of all France. He came to the United States to run in the $50,000 International Trot at Roosevelt Raceway on Long Island Saturday.

The artichokes — 150 pounds of them—came in on the plane with Jamin last week. They were impounded for inspection by the Department of Agriculture. But when a truck came to pick them up for Jamin, they were missing.

None can be found here because they're out of season. Jamin has had to live for a whole week on oats and hay.

His trainer-rider, Jean Riaud, gave him a workout Monday. He was gloomy about the results.

"He ees, 'ow you say, sloogish? Not good. No artichokes."

Food for two Italian trotters who came over on the same plane was impounded too, but no one seems to care beans about them.

They eat artichokes too?

Nope. Beans.

Auto Club Didn't Suggest Route

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Taking a route definitely not recommended by the Columbus Automobile Club, a woman driver bounced her car over the curb, across the sidewalk and through the club's plate glass window Monday.

The driver, Mrs. Manfred Linick of Columbus, had visited the club a few minutes earlier for travel information and then picked up her husband. He said he believes the car veered "when the right wheel froze."

There are several consolations. The Linicks' insurance agent was walking nearby when the accident happened. And the club's general manager, Russell Campbell, said he had been discussing the need for remodeling the front only a couple hours earlier.

The renovation begins today. Campbell said it will not be a drive-in.

Sammy Baugh, the former professional passing star, has a 20-21 record in four years as football coach at Hardin-Simmons in Abilene, Tex.

3 Post Wins In Y-League

First Free Methodist failed to stop Grace U. P. in their bid for the YMCA-Church Softball title.

Grace U. P., behind the relief pitching by Gene Talbott, handed First Free Methodist a 9-3 defeat Monday.

Talbott came in to relieve Seevers in the fifth inning with two men on and struck out the last eight men to face him.

Second Church of Christ defeated Oakland, 7-1, behind the five hit pitching of Gail Talbott. B. Talbott and P. Wilkinson had two hits apiece for the winners.

J. Horner, Larry Morris and Wilkinson had three consecutive home runs in the fifth inning for Second Church of Christ.

First Methodist nipped First Church of Christ, 4-3, with Allison the winning hurler.

Field Slashed To 67 In Jaycee Golf Play

MANSFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Thirty-six holes of golf at Westbrook Country Club today will determine the four young golfers from Ohio who will go to the National Junior Chamber of Commerce Tournament at Portsmouth, Va.

The Ohio Jaycees junior golf tournament began Monday with a field of 158, but an 18-hole qualifier whittled that down to 67. Low man was 17-year-old Grant Kloppman of Cleveland, who shot a par 72.

All entrants are 18 or younger. The four with the lowest scores today will compete in the National in two weeks.

2 Young People Killed In Scooter-Car Crash

NAPOLEON, Ohio (AP) — Two young people riding a motor scooter were injured fatally Monday evening when the scooter collided with an automobile at an intersection of county roads two miles north of Westhope in Henry County.

Victims of the accident were Jerry Komon, 18, of Metamora, and June Hohenberger, 19, of Rt. 2, Holgate.

A witness told deputy sheriffs that Komon stopped the scooter at a stop sign, then pulled into the intersection and was struck by a car driven by Gayle Meekus, 19, of New Bavaria. Meekus was not hurt.

Rutgers' Associate Professor Dies At 57

NEWFOUNDLAND, N. J. (AP) Francis M. Cody, 57, associate professor of marketing at Rutgers University, died Monday of a heart attack.

Born in Marysville, Ohio, he graduated from the College of Wooster and Harvard University, served as a captain in the U.S. Air Technical Service Command in World War II, and worked for several newspapers and Look Magazine in merchandising capacities.

Weirton Man Fined By Cumberland Squire

NEW CUMBERLAND — A Weirton driver was fined $10 and costs on a hazardous driving charge at a hearing Monday evening before Squire John D. Herron.

Harold R. Johns, 28, was arrested Saturday by Hancock County sheriff's deputies on Route 2.

Lester S. Nolan, 45, of Pittsburgh, posted a $17 bond yesterday for an appearance today on a charge of hazardous driving. Nolan was arrested last night by deputies on Route 66.

Robert Montgomery Answers

Marrie Torre is on vacation. Today Robert Montgomery answers questions about TV.

Q. What have you been doing since severing TV connections?

A. I have been busy preparing a script for "The Gallant Hours" which stars James Cagney as Adm. Halsey and in accumulating other material for motion pictures, none of which can be announced as yet. I also have been somewhat occupied with duties in Washington.

Q. Are you professionally happier than you were in TV?

A. My functions during the time I was in television were largely administrative. My functions as a producer and director of motion pictures are somewhat in the administrative field, but also in the so-called creative end of the business as well. Therefore, I am personally happier than I was in television.

Q. What were your reasons for leaving television?

A. There were many. First, it was impossible for me to go on with "Robert Montgomery Presents" because the time had been taken over by the National Broadcasting Co. for other shows. Second, more and more I felt the barrier of the network, the sponsor and the agency between what we were trying to present and the audience to whom we were trying to present it. Third, the attitude of the networks toward the independent producer is becoming more and more obvious and I felt it was only a question of time before I was put out of business anyway.

These are only three reasons. I can give you a considerable number more but I don't want to bore you with them.

Q. Is it possible for a man of taste, courage and imagination to be happily employed in TV?

A. This is a difficult question to answer, for I think it depends entirely upon the position and the conditions surrounding his personal life. In general, I think it might be possible, providing he will compromise with his taste, not be too courageous and stifle his imagination to fit the so-called rules of television.

Q. Do you contemplate returning to TV at some future date?

A. I do not. I would be delighted to return to pay-television. I believe pay-television should have its chance in competition against what is referred to inaccurately as "free" television.

Q. Did you notice much change in Hollywood on your return to motion pictures?

A. Yes. There is considerable change. The studios are attempting to keep themselves alive by production of television series and independent motion picture production. Independent motion picture production is a very healthy and stimulating activity to be connected with. There is a tremendous amount of talent of all kinds in California—acting, writing, directing and production talent. The equipment in the studios is superb and the crews expert in their jobs. It is very stimulating to work there, but I'd rather live in the East.

Q. How do you rate TV drama today?

A. From what I have seen of television drama in the last 12 months it is hogwash. Most of the time I don't even feel they are trying.

Q. How does it compare with TV drama five years ago?

A. We were trying, as were many other independent producers. We didn't always succeed, but we always tried.

Q. You haven't acted in some time. Why?

A. I honestly haven't had the time and, frankly, have not had too many opportunities which have been offered where there was an equation in acting that interested me. I don't pretend to know all about it by a country mile, but I think I have gone beyond the finger exercises.

Senate's Action On Radio-TV Bill Scheduled Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate takes up today a bill its sponsors contend is needed to prevent a virtual blackout of radio-TV coverage of the 1960 election campaign.

The measure, approved by the Senate Commerce Committee, would set aside the Federal Communications Commission ruling in the Lar (America First) Daly case.

The FCC ruled that Daly, a third party candidate for mayor of Chicago, was entitled to as much time as the Democratic and Republican candidates received on newscasts.

The networks and individual stations protested in long hearings before the committee that if the ruling stood they might be forced to turn their cameras away from the entire political campaign next year, including the big national conventions.

Wife Awaits Jury Action In Fatal Shooting

CONNEAUT, Ohio (AP)—Mrs. Arleta Hankins, 49, was in the Ashtabula County jail at Jefferson today awaiting grand jury action in the slaying of her husband, Earl C., business manager of the Ashtabula Star-Beacon.

George Kingdom, one of her two attorneys, entered a plea of innocent at her arraignment in Municipal Court Monday on a second - degree murder charge and waived preliminary hearing. Judge Jack Stolson held her to the grand jury, which meets in September, under $20,000 bond. Kingdom said an attempt to raise the bond money would be made today.

Mrs. Hankins sat silent during the arraignment.

Hankins, 54, was killed Sunday by a bullet fired into his back at close range from a .32-caliber revolver. He had just finished mowing the lawn and was seated at the bottom of the basement steps in his home changing his shoes when the bullet struck him.

Police Chief Jack Sanford said Mrs. Hankins admitted shooting her husband quoted her as saying "All I meant to do was scare him."

He also quoted her as saying Hankins had beaten her shortly before the shooting and that they had had frequent quarrels over the past 21 years. The couple had been married 28 years.

Sanford said Mrs. Hankins told Patrolman Carl Sweet, the first police on the scene, that she had asked her husband before she shot him: "Where do you want it? In the front or in the back?"

The police chief said Mrs. Hankins bore no visible marks of a beating when examined at police headquarters shortly after the shooting.

Contract Awarded To Study Siren In Speeding Rockets

NEW YORK (AP)—A New York firm has been awarded a government contract to study the possibility of using a siren to speed up rockets of the future.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration awarded the $85,000 contract to Acoustica Associates.

The problem concerns solid-fuel rockets. At present such rockets contain a mixture of gases trapped in tiny pockets of a rubbery material molded to the inside of the rocket chamber.

When an electric spark touches off the rocket, the gases mix and burn. The siren's sound waves would speed up the mixing of the gases as they seep from the rubbery base.

Thus the higher the power of the siren, the faster the rate of burning and the faster the speed of the rocket.

Integration Delay Seen As Averting Violence In Dallas

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Each day's delay in integrating Dallas schools lessens the likelihood of violence when segregation does end, the Dallas School Board said Monday.

"General tensions of the citizens on both sides of the segregation problem have been and are lessening and mellowing, and the likelihood of strife is becoming less by the day," the board said in a brief prepared by its attorney, Henry W. Strasburger.

The board directed Strasburger to file the brief in U.S. District Court in answer to requests by Negroes seeking integration of the city's schools this fall.

Judge T. Whitfield Davidson will hear the Negroes' plea Thursday.

The petition said until the conflict between state and federal laws has been decided, desegregation is impractical. Texas law requires an end to state aid for local schools when a district is integrated without approval of a majority of its voters.

Dallas would lose an estimated $2,500,000 per year if allocation of state funds was stopped.

'Satellite Sundae' Wins Convention Prize

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—Lucille Bridges of Brenham, Tex., mixed vanilla ice cream, pecans, whipped cream, cherries and pretzels and set the concoction afire.

Sound terrible?

It must have tasted good, because judges gave the 16-year-old Brenham, Tex., girl the title of "Fountaineer of 59" at the Texas Pharmaceutical Assn. convention Monday.

Her winning entry was called a "Satellite Sundae."

Ike Canvasses GOP On Civil Rights Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower canvasses with GOP congressional leaders today the prospects of getting some civil rights legislation before Congress quits.

In advance of a White House conference, Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois said in an interview he thinks the chances of action by the Senate are improving.

Salvation Army To Request $15,000 Of Community Fund

A $15,000 request from the Community Fund Association for the ensuing year was approved after a review of the budget at a meeting of the Salvation Army Advisory Board Monday at noon at Tice's Restaurant. Don Baxter, chairman, presided.

It was pointed out that if such an amount could be realized, it would relieve the necessity of weekly tambourine collection stands at various local stores and businesses.

Copies of the uniform minimum conditions for participation by the Salvation Army in federated funding groups were distributed and endorsed. A report was given on the current divisional extension campaign. A $820 contract for redecorating the citadel was approved.

A report on a survey of the electrical wiring in the citadel was read and it was recommended that a tentative estimate for needed corrections be secured from a local contractor.

The Evangels Male Quartet of the Chicago Evangelistic Institute sang several numbers.

An "Oldtimers" reunion of the Salvation Army Band will be conducted in the citadel Wednesday night at 7:30 under the baton of Robert Barton as guest conductor.

Barton, of Springfield, Ohio, is a former resident of East Liverpool.

Landslide Foils Effort To Reenact Crossing Of Alps

LE PLANEY, France (AP) — Jumbo the traveling elephant headed slowly back home today, her handlers' attempts to re-enact Hannibal's historic crossing of the Alps foiled by a landslide everybody overlooked.

British historian John, Hoyte started climbing with Jumbo a week ago to prove that Hannibal could have taken the 7,300 - foot high Clapier Pass in his elephant-assisted invasion of Italy in 219 B.C. Other historians believe the Carthaginian used lower passes near the Mediterranean.

After covering 72 miles and climbing from 726 feet to 7,150, Hoyte discovered on arrival here Monday that the pass had been blocked for some time by a slide.

The historian said he hoped to find another route through which to maneuver Jumbo back to her home in the Turin, Italy, zoo.

Residents Donate $37 For Retarded Children

Collections in the E. 5th St. "Well of Hope" container of the Columbiana County Retarded Children's Council amounted to $37.13 Monday, Richard Emmerling, treasurer of the Executive Council, reported. At Salem, $65.61 was contributed.

Information on the retarded children's program and donation envelopes are to be distributed this week as the two-week drive for $20,000 is intensified, officials said.

Sales Set Record For National Steel

PITTSBURGH (AP) — National Steel Corp. reports record high sales of $438,730,125 for the first six months of 1959. For the similar period last year sales were $231,288,194.

Thomas E. Millsop, president, said Monday increased sales resulted from improved business conditions and a general tendency of customers to stock up on steel in anticipation of the steel strike.

Net income for the first half of this year was $39,461,108 or $5.26 a share. This compares with $10,329,188 or $1.39 a share for the similar period in 1958.

The Weirton Steel Co. at Weirton is a facility of National Steel.

DiSalle Vetoes Beer Sales Bill

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Liquor Control Board won't set minimum prices on retail carryout beer sales if Gov. Michael V. DiSalle can help it.

But—in vetoing an act to that effect Monday—the governor commented that the board has authority to cope with certain retail sales situations by adopting regulations.

He specifically mentioned loss leaders; that is, sale of alcoholic beverages at a loss to attract cusomers.

"It has been clearly established in the past," he declared, "That the liquor board may adopt regulations forbidding the giving of anything of value in connection with the attempt to promote the sale of alcoholic beverages.

"Certainly the sale of an alcoholic beverage at less than purchase price would be the giving of something of value."

The experience of the board in trying to fix minimum prices on wines "has not had the desired . . . result," DiSalle asserted, adding that the power to issue permits to engage in the beer and wine business "does not impose upon the state the responsibility for assuring that a permit holder operates at a profit."

In effect, he went on, the beer act would be "giving legislative sanction to the state entering into the competitive relationship that exists between various types of retailers in the retail beer industry."

And, DiSalle concluded:

"Felling that authority does exist in the present law which permits the Board of Liquor Control to act in the case of unfair practices, I cannot see the need for a minimum mark-up regulation."

The veto was DiSalle's sixth this year, and third dealing with a price-fixing act.

The beer act veto will probably be taken up when the Legislature meets Aug. 14 for final adjournment.

Gov. Long Ditches Reporters, Police; Goes With Woman

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Gov. Earl K. Long of Louisiana ditched a bunch of trailing newsmen and his police escort Monday night and took an automobile ride with a pretty divorcee. After a midnight chat with her, he returned to his hotel room.

Today he planned to take one of the thermal baths for which this resort city is famous and visit the "Jot - Em - Down" store at Pine Ridge, Ark., made famous by radio's Lum and Abner comedy team.

After their drive, Ann Billings, about 35, auburn-haired divorcee from Memphis, Tenn., said their talk was delightful.

"We talked about politics," she told newsmen. "He's got a brilliant mind; I don't care what they say."

Swollen Creek Sweeps 2 Children To Deaths

GREENSBORO, N. C. (AP)—A normally shallow creek, swollen by a heavy rain, swept two children to their deaths Monday.

The victims were Diane Williams, 11, of Greensboro, and Doris Jean Head, 10, of Akron, Ohio. The Head girl was visiting relatives here.

Authorities said the girls were wading when the flash flood swept them off their feet. Their bodies were recovered about 1½ hours later three - quarters of a mile downstream.

3 Of 8 Who Fled Jail Recaptured

SUMMERSVILLE, W. Va. (AP) — Eight prisoners — including a woman — broke out of the Nicholas County Jail here last night. The woman and two male prisoners were recaptured a short time later.

A jail source said the men somehow dug their way from a second floor cell to the women's lockup on the third floor.

Tying bed sheets together, they lowered themselves to the ground. One of the four female prisoners in the cell, Dorothy Jarvis of Richwood, fled with them. The Jarvis woman, Charles Workman of Swiss and James Moss of Richwood were recaptured.

Still missing were Eugene Duling and Lee Morris, both of Gilboa; Dana Vickers of Swiss; Bill Cobb of Cowen and James Willsion of Tioga.

Police Group Hears Mayor

CLEVELAND (AP)—Maintaining basic law and order is the most fundamental task of our society, Mayor Anthony J. Celebrezze told the state Fraternal Order of Police convention Monday night.

The mayor, guest speaker at a banquet for more than 400 persons, said this task has become more challenging with great population and technological changes. The changes have brought together great masses with widely diverse backgrounds, he said, adding:

"They are so interdependent on each other that their food, shelter and almost every other phase of their daily existence depends on finely balanced cooperation, regulated by what is perhaps the most complex concentration of laws to be found in all history.

"It is your job as policemen to do the impossible each day by encouraging this cooperation and, when necessary, enforcing the law in a way that is consistent with the tradition of individual liberty which we all share."

Carl C. Bare, Cleveland, state FOP president, and William J. Murphy, Columbus, state secretary, were unopposed in nominations and are assured of reelection today.

Hildegarde Planning To Wed British Actor

LONDON (AP) — Hildegarde Neff's agent today announced that she plans to marry a British actor.

The agent, Ray Montgomery, declined to give the groom-to-be's name, saying he is already married but is getting a divorce. He said the couple would marry as soon as it was legally possible.

The German actress is in Britain filming a television show for the British Broadcasting Corp. She has been married and divorced.

Robert Montgomery Answers

Marrie Torre is on vacation. Today Robert Montgomery answers questions about TV.

Q. What have you been doing since severing TV connections?

A. I have been busy preparing a script for "The Gallant Hours" which stars James Cagney as Adm. Halsey and in accumulating other material for motion pictures, none of which can be announced as yet. I also have been somewhat occupied with duties in Washington.

Q. Are you professionally happier than you were in TV?

A. My functions during the time I was in television were largely administrative. My functions as a producer and director of motion pictures are somewhat in the administrative field, but also in the so-called creative end of the business as well. Therefore, I am personally happier than I was in television.

Q. What were your reasons for leaving television?

A. There were many. First, it was impossible for me to go on with "Robert Montgomery Presents" because the time had been taken over by the National Broadcasting Co. for other shows. Second, more and more I felt the barrier of the network, the sponsor and the agency between what we were trying to present and the audience to whom we were trying to present it. Third, the attitude of the networks toward the independent producer is becoming more and more obvious and I felt it was only a question of time before I was put out of business anyway.

These are only three reasons. I can give you a considerable number more but I don't want to bore you with them.

Q. Is it possible for a man of taste, courage and imagination to be happily employed in TV?

A. This is a difficult question to answer, for I think it depends entirely upon the position and the conditions surrounding his personal life. In general, I think it might be possible, providing he will compromise with his taste, not be too courageous and stifle his imagination to fit the so-called rules of television.

Q. Do you contemplate returning to TV at some future date?

A. I do not. I would be delighted to return to pay-television. I believe pay-television should have its chance in competition against what is referred to inaccurately as "free" television.

Q. Did you notice much change in Hollywood on your return to motion pictures?

A. Yes. There is considerable change. The studios are attempting to keep themselves alive by production of television series and independent motion picture production. Independent motion picture production is a very healthy and stimulating activity to be connected with. There is a tremendous amount of talent of all kinds in California—acting, writing, directing and production talent. The equipment in the studios is superb and the crews expert in their jobs. It is very stimulating to work there, but I'd rather live in the East.

Q. How do you rate TV drama today?

A. From what I have seen of television drama in the last 12 months it is hogwash. Most of the time I don't even feel they are trying.

Q. How does it compare with TV drama five years ago?

A. We were trying, as were many other independent producers. We didn't always succeed, but we always tried.

Q. You haven't acted in some time. Why?

A. I honestly haven't had the time and, frankly, have not had too many opportunities which have been offered where there was an equation in acting that interested me. I don't pretend to know all about it by a country mile, but I think I have gone beyond the finger exercises.

Senate's Action On Radio-TV Bill Scheduled Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate takes up today a bill its sponsors contend is needed to prevent a virtual blackout of radio-TV coverage of the 1960 election campaign.

The measure, approved by the Senate Commerce Committee, would set aside the Federal Communications Commission ruling in the Lar (America First) Daly case.

The FCC ruled that Daly, a third party candidate for mayor of Chicago, was entitled to as much time as the Democratic and Republican candidates received on newscasts.

The networks and individual stations protested in long hearings before the committee that if the ruling stood they might be forced to turn their cameras away from the entire political campaign next year, including the big national conventions.

Wife Awaits Jury Action In Fatal Shooting

CONNEAUT, Ohio (AP)—Mrs. Arleta Hankins, 49, was in the Ashtabula County jail at Jefferson today awaiting grand jury action in the slaying of her husband, Earl C., business manager of the Ashtabula Star-Beacon.

George Kingdom, one of her two attorneys, entered a plea of innocent at her arraignment in Municipal Court Monday on a second - degree murder charge and waived preliminary hearing. Judge Jack Stolson held her to the grand jury, which meets in September, under $20,000 bond. Kingdom said an attempt to raise the bond money would be made today.

Mrs. Hankins sat silent during the arraignment.

Hankins, 54, was killed Sunday by a bullet fired into his back at close range from a .32-caliber revolver. He had just finished mowing the lawn and was seated at the bottom of the basement steps in his home changing his shoes when the bullet struck him.

Police Chief Jack Sanford said Mrs. Hankins admitted shooting her husband quoted her as saying "All I meant to do was scare him."

He also quoted her as saying Hankins had beaten her shortly before the shooting and that they had had frequent quarrels over the past 21 years. The couple had been married 28 years.

Sanford said Mrs. Hankins told Patrolman Carl Sweet, the first police on the scene, that she had asked her husband before she shot him: "Where do you want it? In the front or in the back?"

The police chief said Mrs. Hankins bore no visible marks of a beating when examined at police headquarters shortly after the shooting.

Contract Awarded To Study Siren In Speeding Rockets

NEW YORK (AP)—A New York firm has been awarded a government contract to study the possibility of using a siren to speed up rockets of the future.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration awarded the $85,000 contract to Acoustica Associates.

The problem concerns solid-fuel rockets. At present such rockets contain a mixture of gases trapped in tiny pockets of a rubbery material molded to the inside of the rocket chamber.

When an electric spark touches off the rocket, the gases mix and burn. The siren's sound waves would speed up the mixing of the gases as they seep from the rubbery base.

Thus the higher the power of the siren, the faster the rate of burning and the faster the speed of the rocket.

Integration Delay Seen As Averting Violence In Dallas

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Each day's delay in integrating Dallas schools lessens the likelihood of violence when segregation does end, the Dallas School Board said Monday.

"General tensions of the citizens on both sides of the segregation problem have been and are lessening and mellowing, and the likelihood of strife is becoming less by the day," the board said in a brief prepared by its attorney, Henry W. Strasburger.

The board directed Strasburger to file the brief in U.S. District Court in answer to requests by Negroes seeking integration of the city's schools this fall.

Judge T. Whitfield Davidson will hear the Negroes' plea Thursday.

The petition said until the conflict between state and federal laws has been decided, desegregation is impractical. Texas law requires an end to state aid for local schools when a district is integrated without approval of a majority of its voters.

Dallas would lose an estimated $2,500,000 per year if allocation of state funds was stopped.

'Satellite Sundae' Wins Convention Prize

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—Lucille Bridges of Brenham, Tex., mixed vanilla ice cream, pecans, whipped cream, cherries and pretzels and set the concoction afire. Sound terrible?

It must have tasted good, because judges gave the 16-year-old Brenham, Tex., girl the title of "Fountaineer of 59" at the Texas Pharmaceutical Assn. convention Monday.

Her winning entry was called a "Satellite Sundae."

Ike Canvasses GOP On Civil Rights Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower canvasses with GOP congressional leaders today the prospects of getting some civil rights legislation before Congress quits.

In advance of a White House conference, Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois said in an interview he thinks the chances of action by the Senate are improving.

Salvation Army To Request $15,000 Of Community Fund

A $15,000 request from the Community Fund Association for the ensuing year was approved after a review of the budget at a meeting of the Salvation Army Advisory Board Monday at noon at Tice's Restaurant. Don Baxter, chairman, presided.

It was pointed out that if such an amount could be realized, it would relieve the necessity of weekly tambourine collection stands at various local stores and businesses.

Copies of the uniform minimum conditions for participation by the Salvation Army in federated funding groups were distributed and endorsed. A report was given on the current divisional extension campaign. A $820 contract for redecorating the citadel was approved.

A report on a survey of the electrical wiring in the citadel was read and it was recommended that a tentative estimate for needed corrections be secured from a local contractor.

The Evangels Male Quartet of the Chicago Evangelistic Institute sang several numbers.

An "Oldtimers" reunion of the Salvation Army Band will be conducted in the citadel Wednesday night at 7:30 under the baton of Robert Barton as guest conductor.

Barton, of Springfield, Ohio, is a former resident of East Liverpool.

Landslide Foils Effort To Reenact Crossing Of Alps

LE PLANEY, France (AP) — Jumbo the traveling elephant headed slowly back home today, her handlers' attempts to re-enact Hannibal's historic crossing of the Alps foiled by a landslide everybody overlooked.

British historian John Hoyte started climbing with Jumbo a week ago to prove that Hannibal could have taken the 7,300 - foot high Clapier Pass in his elephant-assisted invasion of Italy in 219 B.C. Other historians believe the Carthaginian used lower passes near the Mediterranean.

After covering 72 miles and climbing from 726 feet to 7,150, Hoyte discovered on arrival here Monday that the pass had been blocked for some time by a slide.

The historian said he hoped to find another route through which to maneuver Jumbo back to her home in the Turin, Italy, zoo.

Residents Donate $37 For Retarded Children

Collections in the E. 5th St. "Well of Hope" container of the Columbiana County Retarded Children's Council amounted to $37.13 Monday, Richard Emmerling, treasurer of the Executive Council, reported. At Salem, $65.61 was contributed.

Information on the retarded children's program and donation envelopes are to be distributed this week as the two-week drive for $20,000 is intensified, officials said.

Sales Set Record For National Steel

PITTSBURGH (AP) — National Steel Corp. reports record high sales of $438,730,125 for the first six months of 1959. For the similar period last year sales were $231,288,194.

Thomas E. Millsop, president, said Monday increased sales resulted from improved business conditions and a general tendency of customers to stock up on steel in anticipation of the steel strike.

Net income for the first half of this year was $39,461,108 or $5.26 a share. This compares with $10,329,188 or $1.39 a share for the similar period in 1958.

The Weirton Steel Co. at Weirton is a facility of National Steel.

DiSalle Vetoes Beer Sales Bill

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Liquor Control Board won't set minimum prices on retail carryout beer sales if Gov. Michael V. DiSalle can help it.

But—in vetoing an act to that effect Monday—the governor commented that the board has authority to cope with certain retail sales situations by adopting regulations.

He specifically mentioned loss leaders; that is, sale of alcoholic beverages at a loss to attract cusomers.

"It has been clearly established in the past," he declared, "That the liquor board may adopt regulations forbidding the giving of anything of value in connection with the attempt to promote the sale of alcoholic beverages.

"Certainly the sale of an alcoholic beverage at less than purchase price would be the giving of something of value."

The experience of the board in trying to fix minimum prices on wines "has not had the desired . . . result," DiSalle asserted, adding that the power to issue permits to engage in the beer and wine business "does not impose upon the state the responsibility for assuring that a permit holder operates at a profit."

In effect, he went on, the beer act would be "giving legislative sanction to the state entering into the competitive relationship that exists between various types of retailers in the retail beer industry."

And, DiSalle concluded:

"Felling that authority does exist in the present law which permits the Board of Liquor Control to act in the case of unfair practices, I cannot see the need for a minimum mark-up regulation."

The veto was DiSalle's sixth this year, and third dealing with a price-fixing act.

The beer act veto will probably be taken up when the Legislature meets Aug. 14 for final adjournment.

Gov. Long Ditches Reporters, Police; Goes With Woman

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Gov. Earl K. Long of Louisiana ditched a bunch of trailing newsmen and his police escort Monday night and took an automobile ride with a pretty divorcee. After a midnight chat with her, he returned to his hotel room.

Today he planned to take one of the thermal baths for which this resort city is famous and visit the "Jot - Em - Down" store at Pine Ridge, Ark., made famous by radio's Lum and Abner comedy team.

After their drive, Ann Billings, about 35, auburn-haired divorcee from Memphis, Tenn., said their talk was delightful.

"We talked about politics," she told newsmen. "He's got a brilliant mind; I don't care what they say."

Swollen Creek Sweeps 2 Children To Deaths

GREENSBORO, N. C. (AP)—A normally shallow creek, swollen by a heavy rain, swept two children to their deaths Monday.

The victims were Diane Williams, 11, of Greensboro, and Doris Jean Head, 10, of Akron, Ohio. The Head girl was visiting relatives here.

Authorities said the girls were wading when the flash flood swept them off their feet. Their bodies were recovered about 1½ hours later three - quarters of a mile downstream.

3 Of 8 Who Fled Jail Recaptured

SUMMERSVILLE, W. Va. (AP) — Eight prisoners — including a woman — broke out of the Nicholas County Jail here last night. The woman and two male prisoners were recaptured a short time later.

A jail source said the men somehow dug their way from a second floor cell to the women's lockup on the third floor.

Still missing were Eugene Duling and Lee Morris, both of Gilboa; Dana Vickers of Swiss; Bill Cobb of Cowen and James Willsion of Tioga.

Police Group Hears Mayor

CLEVELAND (AP)—Maintaining basic law and order is the most fundamental task of our society, Mayor Anthony J. Celebrezze told the state Fraternal Order of Police convention Monday night.

The mayor, guest speaker at a banquet for more than 400 persons, said this task has become more challenging with great population and technological changes. The changes have brought together great masses with widely diverse backgrounds, he said, adding:

"They are so interdependent on each other that their food, shelter and almost every other phase of their daily existence depends on finely balanced cooperation, regulated by what is perhaps the most complex concentration of laws to be found in all history.

"It is your job as policemen to do the impossible each day by encouraging this cooperation and, when necessary, enforcing the law in a way that is consistent with the tradition of individual liberty which we all share."

Carl C. Bare, Cleveland, state FOP president, and William J. Murphy, Columbus, state secretary, were unopposed in nominations and are assured of reelection today.

Hildegarde Planning To Wed British Actor

LONDON (AP) — Hildegarde Neff's agent today announced that she plans to marry a British actor.

The agent, Ray Montgomery, declined to give the groom-to-be's name, saying he is already married but is getting a divorce. He said the couple would marry as soon as it was legally possible.

The German actress is in Britain filming a television show for the British Broadcasting Corp. She has been married and divorced.

Lay Political Careers On The Line

DiSalle, Other Democrats Risk Future In Tax Bills

By ART PARKS

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's Democratic governor and dozens of Democratic lawmakers — troubled, but still convinced they are right—have laid their political careers on the line.

They risked the voters' ire when they powered, wheedled and cajoled through the Legislature the biggest single tax-increase program in the history of the state. Gov. Michael Disalle and his legislative supporters now are hoping the events of the next two bookkeeping years will vindicte their judgment; that by Election Day next year they will have been able to persuade the voters that it was fiscal statesmanship that led them to press for new taxes.

Present estimates are that the state treasury will receive about 317 million dollars in new revenue in the next two years.

They add up this way:

	Millions
Cigarettes at 2 cents a pack	46
Corporation franchise	60
3.2 beer	4½
Horse race wagering	7
Workmen's compensation tax	7
Sales tax revision	33½
Inheritance tax increase	3
Liquor price increase	40
Gasoline at 2 cents a gallon	116

The biggest political sweat is among Democratic House members, all of whom must face the electorate in 1960, and nine Democratic senators who hold only two-year terms and also must run again next year. The other 11 Democratic senators have four-year terms.

Many of the two-year-term legislators are politically ambitious and keenly anxious about their political fortunes next year.

Gov. DiSalle, with the protection of a four-year term, also, has the political insulation of time in his favor. But he has a markedly different attitude from some of the politically ambitious.

He told newsmen a few days ago of a telephone conversation with an irate taxpayer from the Indian Lake area. The taxpayer told the governor the tax program would hurt his chances for re-election. DiSalle replied:

"I couldn't care less."

"Well, I'll be damned!" blurted the flabbergasted taxpayer.

Republican lawmakers, while conceding some new taxes were needed, gave little support to the DiSalle program on grounds his requests were far too heavy.

But DiSalle pointed out automatic increases in state spending under present laws require an extra outlay of about 106 millions in the next two years. He was referring to such "build in" increases as those provided in the school foundation law: as school population soar, so does the state's obligation to subsidize their operations.

The only spending increases for which he feels he is responsible, the governor asserts, are for school teacher salaries, additional aid for higher education and more money for mental hygiene and welfare. These total about 103 million dollars.

Complicating the state's financial woes which the DiSalle administration has attempted to solve is the fact, as the governor puts it, that Ohio is paying for two highway programs at once.

All of the money collected under a one-cent gasoline tax levied several years and the axle-mile tax is going toward retirement of a 500-million-dollar highway bond issue which financed much of ormer Gov. C. William O'Neill's big program.

The present Legislature was forced into another two-cent gasoline tax to finance a continuation of the roadbuilding program. Together with hoped-for federal highway funds, Ohio will be able to continue the program at the rate of about 300 million dollars a year.

But, DiSalle points out, the new highway program is on a pay-as-you-go basis.

For the benefit of Ohioans of both political parties who never have had a chance to get to know DiSalle, let this impartial observer import the information that the governor has a mind so quick and a memory so prodigious that it frightens even his close associates. In short, the governor is not a man to be trifled with.

Along that line, then, let's take a look at three paragraphs in his budget message of last March:

"For almost 20 years there have been no substantial increases in state taxation. This is one of the most critical fiscal conditions this state has ever faced . . . ."

"It is my belief that if the people thoroughly understand the present fiscal condition and understand further the products which they are buying in the form of highways, schools, universities, aid to the handicapped and unfortunate and other areas, that they will approve fully of what we suggest here.

"This crisis which has been building over the years, we can say, was not of our making, but to face it and to attempt its solution is a responsibility which rests with us alone."

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Slimming Goal Should Be Kept In Mind

Lazy summer days often lack a definite pattern. It's so easy to drift into eating at odd hours instead of having meals on schedule. This aimless way of living leads to ennui - a languor of spirits. And haphazard eating encourages poor food habits.

Ida Jean Kain

The protective foods are slighted, and as a result, energy wanes. You lose your bounce and sparkle, and blame the whole thing on the heat.

The system by which one homemaker reduced 84 pounds was to put order in her diet day and start meal preparation before she was weary. In other words, she succeeded because she cut ahead of hunger and that all-gone feeling that wilts the will.

This summer diet affords better nutrition than your usual fattening fare, and allows you to slim down two to three pounds a week. Nature has a way of rewarding those who protect the body's basic nutrition needs, and an equally effective way of retaliating when nutrition is slighted.

TO REDUCE FAT, not healthy tissue, a summer diet must be highly protective, including adequate protein. Summer meals are less hearty; roasts and such are not so appealing.

However the backbone of the menu must still be protein...eggs, cheese, lean meat or seafood, and skim milk or buttermilk. Make sure that each meal contains a complete protein food.

These menus are built around the seasonal foods that are garden fresh and flavorful without the fat trimmings that boost the calories. Summer fruits are delicious for their own sweet flavor. Taste before you sugar. For sweetening iced tea, try a liquid non-nutritive sweetener, such as Sucaryl.

Three adequate meals a day distribute energy over the day. Eat an appetizing breakfast, for this helps you to stand up to the heat of the day. Be sure to have a late afternoon pick-up.

Many dieters ask what to do about left-overs. Use your judgement. Any left-over vegetable, meat, or fruit can be repeated the following day - as long as the whole meal contains foods within the same protective group and averages the same calorie count.

SUMMER MENU

Breakfast

Tangerine juice, 4 oz. (unsweetened); soft cooked egg; toast, 1 thin slice; butter, ½ pat, ¼" thick, coffee, black.

Choice of glass of skim milk with breakfast, or mid-morning.

Luncheon

American cheese, 1 oz., grilled on slice of rye bread; sliced tomato and cucumber (vinegar and seasoning;, gelatine dessert with fruit added.

Dinner

Ground round steak pattie (3½ oz. cooked weight - fat trimmed before grinding); toasted hamburger bun, whole; relishes: pickle relish, slice of sweet onion, mustard; string beans, liberal serving; shredded lettuce with mound of grated carrot; melon balls with mint, coffee or tea.

Total calories for day — 1045.

Youth Will Be Blind After Clawing By Bear

JUNEAU, Alaska (AP) — A teen-aged sharpshooter fired at a charging bear Monday, but the animal knocked his rifle aside and clawed him so severely a doctor said he would be blind.

Lee Hagmeier, 17, of Auke Bay, Alaska, was reported in fair condition at a Juneau hospital after two hours of surgery.

Gets Neighbor Told

SAN PEDRO, Calif. (AP) — The following sign was displayed today on an overgrown front lawn: "To one of my disgusted neighbors who won't mind his own business: I will clear the weeds when I'm good and ready. Kelly."

Heiress In Hoax About Kidnaping Delays Wedding

SHORT HILLS, N.J. (AP) — Socialite Jacquelin Gay Hart, 21, who says she fled to Chicago to escape the strain of elaborate wedding plans, has decided to postpone her marriage.

Publicity over her case caused the postponement, says Gay's father, Ralph A. Hart.

Hart, executive vice president of the Colgate Palmolive Co., told of his daughter's decision Monday. He said she eventually would marry Stanley Gaines, 25, of Fayetteville, W.Va., as planned, but gave no date. They were to be wed Aug. 29.

A nationwide alarm went out for Gay last week. The honey-blonde vanished without a trace from Newark Airport after seeing Gaines off to Pittsburgh.

She turned up Friday in Chicago, 50 hours after her disappearance, and told police that she had been kidnaped. She admitted later the story was false.

4 City Youths To Play In Band At State Fair

Four city youths will play with the All-Ohio Boys Band at the Ohio State Fair at Columbus Aug. 28-Sept. 4.

Slated to leave Aug. 23 for rehearsals are David North of Fisher Ave., Wilbur F. Forester Jr. of Montana Ave., Pleasant Heights, and Ronald McAtee, 839 St. George St., seniors at East Liverpool High School, and Warren Lincoln Jr., 310 Elizabeth St., a recent graduate.

Forester plays the tympani, North a French horn, McAtee a clarinet and Lincoln, a baritone saxophone.

Members of the band were selected by the director, Louis A. Pete, upon recommendation of high school music instructors.

The city boys' parents are Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Forester, Mr. and Mrs. Karl North, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. Michael Fuderich.

Culverts Constructed On Route 30 Project

LISBON — Work is progressing slowly on the relocation of Route 30, about five miles west, according to George Gonzales of Lisbon, resident state highway engineer. Work began July 6.

Two culverts are now being constructed over the west fork of Little Beaver Creek to carry the new section.

The completion date is Nov. 30. C. F. Replogle Co. of Circleville has the contract for the $316,313 project.

Young Swedish Actress

In Footsteps Of Marlene?

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — A young Swedish girl with Civil War eyes —they're blue-gray, sonny—hopes to springboard to fame in the same role that made Marlene Dietrich an international star.

"I only hope it will do for me what it did for her," said May Britt.

She wasn't even born when Dietrich broke grandpa's heart 30 years ago with a pair of enticing gams and a throaty voice singing "Falling in Love Again." The film: "The Blue Angel."

The same song is retained in the new version of the picture.

"It has an even more interesting title in German," said May. "It is called, 'I am from head to foot made for love.'"

This seems like a pretty fair description of May herself. She is vibrantly slim, and her saucy freckled face is half-draped by long hair the color of August wheat.

May made her American debut in a few memorial scenes opposite Marlon Brando in "The Young Lions." But before that she made 11 films in Rome, where she stacked up well against the competition of such native daughters as Sophia Loren and Gina Lollobrigida.

A girl of startling beauty, she says she doesn't mind sexy roles —at least at this stage of her career.

But May has a strong distaste for bust-and-hip publicity — she doesn't like to give her personal measurements, dislikes being asked to compare European and American men.

"I don't actually know my own weight," she said. "I find it a great bore to speak about weight. Weight is very much an American preoccupation. I am not worried if friends gain or lose a few pounds I still think the same of them.

"As to what men are most attractive, I married an American. That should settle that."

Her husband, Edwin Gregson, is a student at Stanford University.

May—it's pronounced My—was born Maybritt Wilkens in a suburb of Stockholm. Her father is a Swedish postal employe. She had worked as a baby sitter and waitress and was studying photography when Carlos Ponti, an Italian producer, discovered her.

She admires Ingrid Bergman, Greta Garbo, and Dietrich but takes pains not to imitate them.

"I like movement — hustle and bustle—people coming and going. I like to hear the telephone ring, and I love to come home and find a pile of messages waiting for me.

"But I hate to go to parties. Crowds make me shy. Too many people I can't stand around me all at once."

Eventually May hopes to have five or six children, but her career is of top interest now. She disciplines herself strictly.

"I take one drink a year and smoke one cigaret a week," she said. "I have no minor vices.

"What do I like to do? I like to do exactly what I want. You have to be in this business strong-willed."

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY MEYERS

Make 'No' Decisive When Child Teases

Of a boy four with a brother two, a mother writes from Ohio: "He teases and torments both children and adults. Playing in the sand box with other children he will destroy all their creations and be overjoyed at their anger and annoyance. Other children hate him and try to avoid him.

By Garry Meyers

He delights in doing everything to annoy not only us, his parents, but all adults." The mother reports that although this child was very jealous of his brother, she thinks this is not so now. Then she goes on to say:

"We show him an abundance of love and praise him when he does praiseworthy things. He goes to play-school two mornings a week and Sunday School.

—:—

"BOTH HIS daddy and I play with him; sing, read and talk to him. He has all kinds of books and toys."

My reply in part.

No doubt jealousy is a factor in your child's behavior. Yet you seem to be acting well to help this child feel secure in the family.

Apparently you are trusting too much to persuasive measures and have not made No decisive and effective. When he deliberately annoys other children, as when he destroyed their creations in the sand pile, you need to be on hand. You should turn him over your knee at such times and smack or paddle him soundly.

ONCE YOU have him under control you might abandon spanking. Punish him by having him sit in a chair for 20 minutes, unamused. Spank him only if he leaves the chair too soon.

Spend time studying him, guiding, even curbing him when he is with other children. No sense in punishing him after some person has reported his bad doings. Also, you might learn more about him by observing him occasionally in the play-school.

It is not clear how he could tease you parents except by hurting you or refusing to obey you.

DEFINE CLEARLY what he must not do to you or other persons. Then see that he cannot repeat without instant physical discomfort — no explaining, no repetition of No. Use your hand and don't wait until you get angry with him.

Do go on, you and Dad, reading to him, making things with him and having fun with him. If he likes it, cuddle and rock him. But add two things: define limitations and train him to accept No or Don't promptly with finality and without doubt.

My bulletins, "Preventing and Reducing Jealousy," "Stubbornness" and "How to Teach Child Meaning of No," may be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

Purdue Student Silent In Shooting Of Admiral's Son

LAFAYETTE, Ind. (AP) — A Purdue University graduate student Monday maintained his silence over the fatal shooting of a retired admiral's son and asked a delay in a preliminary hearing until he could get a lawyer.

A preliminary charge of first-degree murder was filed against Prentice G. Van Conrad, 31, of Houston, Tex., who was studying for his third scholastic degree.

The pistol victim last Friday night in a garage apartment near the campus was James F. Strain, 26, of La Porte, son of retired Rear Adm. Charles L. Strain.

Van Conrad appeared only a few minutes in Lafayette city court.

Prosecutor George L. Hanna said the case will be referred to the grand jury on or after Sept. 14.

Retired Judge Dies

DETROIT (AP) — Patrick H. O'Brien, 91, a retired probate judge and former Michigan attorney general, died Monday, 36 hours after the death of his son, D'Arcy W. O'Brien, Michigan state public administrator. O'Brien, long active in Democratic politics, was born in Houghton, Mich.

Officer Stops Disabled Truck With Patrol Car

LOS ANGELES (AP)—When a truck loaded with 12 tons of gravel started to roll down an embankment onto the Harbor Freeway, policeman Norman Judd leaped—not to safety, but into his patrol car parked in the path of the truck. He slammed on his brakes. The truck smashed into the car's grill. It shoved the car seven feet. Both stopped short of the busy freeway.

Officials credited Judd's action with preventing a possible major smashup in the five traffic-jammed lanes. He had stopped to question the disabled truck's driver.

Woman Is Uninjured As House Collapses

DENVER (AP) — Things really went to pieces Monday for Phyllis Hickman, who was doing chores on the second floor of her home when the north wall of the 50-year-old brick structure collapsed.

Mrs. Hickman, 46, fled the trembling home through a broken window. Minutes later, the house collapsed.

Neighbors said a heavy truck which caused severe vibrations on a nearby street passed just before the incident.

Sophistication Swelling Note In Paris Fashions

PARIS (AP) — Sophistication is the swelling note in Paris fashions for fall and winter—less prettiness and more elegance.

Diagonal drapes are going strong, but most other trimmings have been trimmed off the new "plucked" silhouette, with a slimmer line and slightly longer skirts.

Pierre Cardin's show Monday night brought new shapes and shaded colors.

Cardin's promised suit revolution turned out to be long-jacketed tunic suits, mostly slim but unwaisted tubes. Jackets strike halfway between waist and knee. Tunic dresses have sheath underskirts showing just about an inch at the bottom.

Cardin refuses to be pinned to one hemline. Some are short, barely covering the kneecap. Others come down to midcalf, as long as anything likely to be seen.

Colors of his coats shade subtly to a deeper tone at the hem. A coat trio called Oxford, Cambridge and Harvard was in wide-shaded chalk stripes—one blue, one brown, one green.

How Can I? ? ?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. What kind of spray is best for ridding the house of roaches?

A. About the best insecticide is chlordane. Use it as a two per cent oil or water spray, or as a five per cent powder. For best results, a combination of the two is most effective.

Q. How can I deal with squeaking pedals on my piano?

A. If the friction is occurring between wood, and wood or metal, squirt some powdered graphite between the two parts; if both surfaces are of metal, use a good lubricating oil instead.

Q. How can I freshen bread that has become dry or stale?

A. Wrap the loaf in a damp cloth, and heat it in a slow oven for 15 or 20 minutes.

Cap Near Rocky Ledge Leads To Boy's Body

IDAHO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP)—A boy's cap at the base of a rocky ledge led searchers to the body of Larry Corkran, 12, Monday.

The youngster apparently slipped unnoticed from a narrow mountain trail while on an outing with a teen-age group Sunday.

The Eiffel Tower, rising 985 feet above the Seine River, was built in 1889 as an attraction for the Paris Exposition.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY MEYERS

Make 'No' Decisive When Child Teases

Of a boy four with a brother two, a mother writes from Ohio: "He teases and torments both children and adults. Playing in the sand box with other children he will destroy all their creations and be overjoyed at their anger and annoyance. Other children hate him and try to avoid him.

By Garry Meyers

He delights in doing everything to annoy not only us, his parents, but all adults." The mother reports that although this child was very jealous of his brother, she thinks this is not so now. Then she goes on to say:

"We show him an abundance of love and praise him when he does praiseworthy things. He goes to play-school two mornings a week and Sunday School.

—:—

"BOTH HIS daddy and I play with him; sing, read and talk to him. He has all kinds of books and toys."

My reply in part.

No doubt jealousy is a factor in your child's behavior. Yet you seem to be acting well to help this child feel secure in the family.

Apparently you are trusting too much to persuasive measures and have not made No decisive and effective. When he deliberately annoys other children, as when he destroyed their creations in the sand pile, you need to be on hand. You should turn him over your knee at such times and smack or paddle him soundly.

ONCE YOU have him under control you might abandon spanking. Punish him by having him sit in a chair for 20 minutes, unamused. Spank him only if he leaves the chair too soon.

Spend time studying him, guiding, even curbing him when he is with other children. No sense in punishing him after some person has reported his bad doings. Also, you might learn more about him by observing him occasionally in the play-school.

It is not clear how he could tease you parents except by hurting you or refusing to obey you.

DEFINE CLEARLY what he must not do to you or other persons. Then see that he cannot repeat without instant physical discomfort — no explaining, no repetition of No. Use your hand and don't wait until you get angry with him.

Do go on, you and Dad, reading to him, making things with him and having fun with him. If he likes it, cuddle and rock him. But add two things: define limitations and train him to accept No or Don't promptly with finality and without doubt.

My bulletins, "Preventing and Reducing Jealousy," "Stubbornness" and "How to Teach Child Meaning of No," may be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

Sophistication Swelling Note In Paris Fashions

PARIS (AP) — Sophistication is the swelling note in Paris fashions for fall and winter—less prettiness and more elegance.

Diagonal drapes are going strong, but most other trimmings have been trimmed off the new "plucked" silhouette, with a slimmer line and slightly longer skirts.

Pierre Cardin's show Monday night brought new shapes and shaded colors.

Cardin's promised suit revolution turned out to be long-jacketed tunic suits, mostly slim but unwaisted tubes. Jackets strike halfway between waist and knee. Tunic dresses have sheath underskirts showing just about an inch at the bottom.

Cardin refuses to be pinned to one hemline. Some are short, barely covering the kneecap. Others come down to midcalf, as long as anything likely to be seen.

Colors of his coats shade subtly to a deeper tone at the hem. A coat trio called Oxford, Cambridge and Harvard was in wide-shaded chalk stripes—one blue, one brown, one green.

How Can I? ? ?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. What kind of spray is best for ridding the house of roaches?

A. About the best insecticide is chlordane. Use it as a two per cent oil or water spray, or as a five per cent powder. For best results, a combination of the two is most effective.

Q. How can I deal with squeaking pedals on my piano?

A. If the friction is occurring between wood, and wood or metal, squirt some powdered graphite between the two parts; if both surfaces are of metal, use a good lubricating oil instead.

Q. How can I freshen bread that has become dry or stale?

A. Wrap the loaf in a damp cloth, and heat it in a slow oven for 15 or 20 minutes.

Cap Near Rocky Ledge Leads To Boy's Body

IDAHO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP)—A boy's cap at the base of a rocky ledge led searchers to the body of Larry Corkran, 12, Monday.

The youngster apparently slipped unnoticed from a narrow mountain trail while on an outing with a teen-age group Sunday.

The Eiffel Tower, rising 985 feet above the Seine River, was built in 1889 as an attraction for the Paris Exposition.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Slimming Goal Should Be Kept In Mind

Lazy summer days often lack a definite pattern. It's so easy to drift into eating at odd hours instead of having meals on schedule. This aimless way of living leads to ennui - a languor of spirits. And haphazard eating encourages poor food habits.

Ida Jean Kain

The protective foods are slighted, and as a result, energy wanes. You lose your bounce and sparkle, and blame the whole thing on the heat.

The system by which one homemaker reduced 84 pounds was to put order in her diet day and start meal preparation before she was weary. In other words, she succeeded because she cut ahead of hunger and that all-gone feeling that wilts the will.

This summer diet affords better nutrition than your usual fattening fare, and allows you to slim down two to three pounds a week. Nature has a way of rewarding those who protect the body's basic nutrition needs, and an equally effective way of retaliating when nutrition is slighted.

TO REDUCE FAT, not healthy tissue, a summer diet must be highly protective, including adequate protein. Summer meals are less hearty; roasts and such are not so appealing.

However the backbone of the menu must still be protein...eggs, cheese, lean meat or seafood, and skim milk or buttermilk. Make sure that each meal contains a complete protein food.

These menus are built around the seasonal foods that are garden fresh and flavorful without the fat trimmings that boost the calories. Summer fruits are delicious for their own sweet flavor. Taste before you sugar. For sweetening iced tea, try a liquid non-nutritive sweetener, such as Sucaryl.

Three adequate meals a day distribute energy over the day. Eat an appetizing breakfast, for this helps you to stand up to the heat of the day. Be sure to have a late afternoon pick-up.

Many dieters ask what to do about left-overs. Use your judgement. Any left-over vegetable, meat, or fruit can be repeated the following day - as long as the whole meal contains foods within the same protective group and averages the same calorie count.

SUMMER MENU

Breakfast

Tangerine juice, 4 oz. (unsweetened); soft cooked egg; toast, 1 thin slice; butter, ½ pat, ¼" thick, coffee, black.

Choice of glass of skim milk with breakfast, or mid-morning.

Luncheon

American cheese, 1 oz., grilled on slice of rye bread; sliced tomato and cucumber (vinegar and seasoning;, gelatine dessert with fruit added.

Dinner

Ground round steak pattie (3½ oz. cooked weight - fat trimmed before grinding); toasted hamburger bun, whole; relishes: pickle relish, slice of sweet onion, mustard; string beans, liberal serving; shredded lettuce with mound of grated carrot; melon balls with mint, coffee or tea.

Total calories for day — 1045.

Youth Will Be Blind After Clawing By Bear

JUNEAU, Alaska (AP) — A teen-aged sharpshooter fired at a charging bear Monday, but the animal knocked his rifle aside and clawed him so severely a doctor said he would be blind.

Lee Hagmeier, 17, of Auke Bay, Alaska, was reported in fair condition at a Juneau hospital after two hours of surgery.

SAN PEDRO, Calif. (AP) — The following sign was displayed today on an overgrown front lawn: "To one of my disgusted neighbors who won't mind his own business: I will clear the weeds when I'm good and ready. Kelly."

Heiress In Hoax About Kidnaping Delays Wedding

SHORT HILLS, N.J. (AP) — Socialite Jacquelin Gay Hart, 21, who says she fled to Chicago to escape the strain of elaborate wedding plans, has decided to postpone her marriage.

Publicity over her case caused the postponement, says Gay's father, Ralph A. Hart.

Hart, executive vice president of the Colgate Palmolive Co., told of his daughter's decision Monday. He said she eventually would marry Stanley Gaines, 25, of Fayetteville, W.Va., as planned, but gave no date. They were to be wed Aug. 29.

A nationwide alarm went out for Gay last week. The honey-blonde vanished without a trace from Newark Airport after seeing Gaines off to Pittsburgh.

She turned up Friday in Chicago, 50 hours after her disappearance, and told police that she had been kidnaped. She admitted later the story was false.

4 City Youths To Play In Band At State Fair

Four city youths will play with the All-Ohio Boys Band at the Ohio State Fair at Columbus Aug. 28-Sept. 4.

Slated to leave Aug. 23 for rehearsals are David North of Fisher Ave., Wilbur F. Forester Jr. of Montana Ave., Pleasant Heights, and Ronald McAtee, 839 St. George St., seniors at East Liverpool High School, and Warren Lincoln Jr., 310 Elizabeth St., a recent graduate.

Forester plays the tympani, North a French horn, McAtee a clarinet and Lincoln, a baritone saxophone.

Members of the band were selected by the director, Louis A. Pete, upon recommendation of high school music instructors.

The city boys' parents are Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Forester, Mr. and Mrs. Karl North, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. Michael Fuderich.

Culverts Constructed On Route 30 Project

LISBON — Work is progressing slowly on the relocation of Route 30, about five miles west, according to George Gonzales of Lisbon, resident state highway engineer. Work began July 6.

Two culverts are now being constructed over the west fork of Little Beaver Creek to carry the new section.

The completion date is Nov. 30. C. F. Replogle Co. of Circleville has the contract for the $316,313 project.

Purdue Student Silent In Shooting Of Admiral's Son

LAFAYETTE, Ind. (AP) — A Purdue University graduate student Monday maintained his silence over the fatal shooting of a retired admiral's son and asked a delay in a preliminary hearing until he could get a lawyer.

A preliminary charge of first-degree murder was filed against Prentice G. Van Conrad, 31, of Houston, Tex., who was studying for his third scholastic degree.

The pistol victim last Friday night in a garage apartment near the campus was James F. Strain, 26, of La Porte, son of retired Rear Adm. Charles L. Strain.

Van Conrad appeared only a few minutes in Lafayette city court.

Prosecutor George L. Hanna said the case will be referred to the grand jury on or after Sept. 14.

Retired Judge Dies

DETROIT (AP) — Patrick H. O'Brien, 91, a retired probate judge and former Michigan attorney general, died Monday, 36 hours after the death of his son, D'Arcy W. O'Brien, Michigan state public administrator. O'Brien, long active in Democratic politics, was born in Houghton, Mich.

Officer Stops Disabled Truck With Patrol Car

LOS ANGELES (AP)—When a truck loaded with 12 tons of gravel started to roll down an embankment onto the Harbor Freeway, policeman Norman Judd leaped—not to safety, but into his patrol car parked in the path of the truck. He slammed on his brakes. The truck smashed into the car's grill. It shoved the car seven feet. Both stopped short of the busy freeway.

Officials credited Judd's action with preventing a possible major smashup in the five traffic-jammed lanes. He had stopped to question the disabled truck's driver.

Woman Is Uninjured As House Collapses

DENVER (AP) — Things really went to pieces Monday for Phyllis Hickman, who was doing chores on the second floor of her home when the north wall of the 50-year-old brick structure collapsed.

Mrs. Hickman, 46, fled the trembling home through a broken window. Minutes later, the house collapsed.

Neighbors said a heavy truck which caused severe vibrations on a nearby street passed just before the incident.

BURLINGTON, Vt. (AP) — Patrolman Donald Ray went to North Beach to investigate a drowning Monday. He discovered it was his own son, Stephen, 8.

Nixon

Among Nixon's advisers meanwhile, Quebec was being mentioned as a possible site for a Summit Conference, if and when one is agreed to.

Their reasoning was that Khrushchev might go on to the United States for a visit afterwards. President Charles de Gaulle of France, who has opposed San Francisco as a site, would likely accept the French-speaking Canadian city as an alternative, it was believed. It was stressed that President Eisenhower would of course make the final decision.

Nixon in a talk to the throng of airport wellwishers noted that Novosibirsk has always been one of the cities closed to foreigners.

"As we know, some cities in the Soviet Union are called 'closed cities'. There are some 'closed cities' in the United States but we feel that all cities should be open cities so that we should get to know each other," he said.

This is a big machine manufacturing center 1,750 miles east of Moscow. It has a population of 887,000.

On the visit to Leningrad, Nixon intervened to help Vice Adm. Hyman Rickover, the Naval expert in his party, get a close look at the heart of a new Russian atomic icebreaker. Soviet officials had balked at first.

In a farewell speech at the airport, Nixon said the United States is aware that the differences between it and the Soviet Union are not easy to eliminate.

"It is necessary to have discussions at the conference table so that we may achieve an agreed solution," he said.

Nixon expressed confidence that if conferences are held, ways can be found toward adjustment of differences and to peace.

The vice president said Premier Nikita Khrushchev and other Soviet leaders had assured him of their desire to achieve this aim. He said the Americans are equally willing to achieve friendship and peace through negotiations.

Nixon and Rickover, father of America's atomic submarines, collided with Soviet restrictions Monday as they toured the 16,000-ton Lenin nearing completion in Leningrad.

Rickover protested they were getting a run-around because they were allowed only a long-range look at the three reactors that will power the ship. He said Soviet First Deputy Premier Frol R. Kozlov, on his visit to the United States, had been given a close look at American atomic installations and "we answered every question he asked."

"I want to see the insides," demanded Rickover. Nixon backed him up.

The shipyard master refused at first but was overruled by higher Soviet officials. Rickover then made a two-hour inspection of "everything I wanted to see." The reactors themselves were inactive.

He emerged to describe the pride of the Red navy "a fine job" but said, "it does not represent an advance in the reactor art."

The incident at the shipyard was the only disconcerting note of the first stop of the Nixon party's five-day tour outside Moscow.

Nixon was reportedly seriously considering recommending to President Eisenhower that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev be invited to visit the United States.

Won't Drop Ironton Case, DiSalle Says

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's attorney general can call a special grand jury for investigations, Gov. Michael V. DiSalle has pointed out.

But whether such action will be taken in connection with an investigation of an April hearing in Ironton Municipal Court remains to be seen.

DiSalle made the statement Monday after learning that Common Pleas Judge Warren Earhart denied a motion by an aide of Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy to give McElroy full charge of the Lawrence County grand jury investigation.

The whole matter stems from an accusation by the governor that Orville Elias, formerly with the Ohio Department of Industrial Relations, represented himself as someone else at the hearing three months ago.

It concerned charges by the Ohio Health Department that former State Sen. Oakley C. Collins of Ironton failed to obtain a permit to build an apartment-office building in nearby Hanging Rock. The charges were dismissed.

Collins and Elias have denied DiSalle's accusation, and Elias has filed a $400,000 libel suit against the governor.

DiSalle did not say McElroy will call a special grand jury, but commented: "We are not going to drop it (the case)."

DiSalle Scheduled In Miami Debate On Death Penalty

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — There's going to be a debate in Miami, Fla. on Aug. 24, during the American Bar Assn. meeting. The subject will be capital punishment, and Ohio's Gov. Michael V. DiSalle will argue against it.

And that, says DiSalle, is all he knows about it.

He said he thought originally that Sen. Herman Talmadge of Georgia was to be his opponent. Then Gov. John Patterson of Alabama was mentioned. But DiSalle says he has had no word who will advance the argument for the death penalty.

The meeting in Florida will climax a 10-day vacation for the governor, scheduled to begin after the General Assembly adjourns in mid-August. He attempted to get the Legislature to abolish the death penalty in Ohio, but was successful only in having a legislative study ordered.

DiSalle, Talmadge and Patterson are all Democrats.

Some Western diplomats are now thinking in terms of a larger group made up of three members each from the East and the West with a neutral chairman.

The Big Four conference on Germany may be entering its final phase. If neither side gives ground on the Berlin issue the conference may end by the middle of next week or sooner.

Some Western diplomats said chances are the new plans will differ enough from the earlier ones to indicate the possibility of a compromise agreement which would lift the Soviet threat to Berlin and clear the way for a summit meeting.

Reports circulated that Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko in recasting his Berlin proposal, might omit direct reference to his previous demand for creation of a committee of East and West Germans to negotiate on German reunification during a truce in the Berlin crisis.

Western officials said this could mean Gromyko was cutting his price for a Berlin truce. It also could mean he had decided against pressing his point for the moment in hopes of prolonging negotiations on other aspects of the Berlin dispute.

Deputies of the Western ministers were reported working out still another formula calling for continuation of the Allied position in West Berlin and access to that city for an indefinite period. Their aim is to get the Soviet Union to agree to refrain from unilateral action against West Berlin, at the same time putting no time limit on the pledge.

Rangers In Park Resume Hunt For Missing Boy, 16

GRAND CANYON, Ariz. (AP) —National Park Rangers today resumed a slow, careful search for a Georgia youth, missing since Saturday on an ill-fated trek into the Grand Canyon.

There was little Hope Mason Owens, 16, of Savannah, would be found alive. The canyon's treacherous trails and searing heat already are known to have taken the lives of his two companions.

The body of the Rev. Eugene A. Gavigan, 30, a Catholic priest from Savannah, was found at the base of a 200-foot cliff in the southeast part of the canyon Monday.

It lay about 1½ miles from where the body of Walter J. Mahany Jr., 16, also of Savannah, was found Sunday.

Rangers said Father Gavigan died of injuries suffered in a plunge from a trail on the cliff's edge. Mahany died of exposure and lack of water while seeking help for the priest.

It was believed Mahany and Owens split up to seek help for the priest, although Rangers said Owens also may have been hurt.

BURLINGTON, Vt. (AP) — Patrolman Donald Ray went to North Beach to investigate a drowning Monday. He discovered it was his own son, Stephen, 8.

Among Nixon's advisers meanwhile, Quebec was being mentioned as a possible site for a Summit Conference, if and when one is agreed to.

Their reasoning was that Khrushchev might go on to the United States for a visit afterwards. President Charles de Gaulle of France, who has opposed San Francisco as a site, would likely accept the French-speaking Canadian city as an alternative, it was believed. It was stressed that President Eisenhower would of course make the final decision.

Nixon in a talk to the throng of airport wellwishers noted that Novosibirsk has always been one of the cities closed to foreigners.

"As we know, some cities in the Soviet Union are called 'closed cities'. There are some 'closed cities' in the United States but we feel that all cities should be open cities so that we should get to know each other," he said.

This is a big machine manufacturing center 1,750 miles east of Moscow. It has a population of 887,000.

On the visit to Leningrad, Nixon intervened to help Vice Adm. Hyman Rickover, the Naval expert in his party, get a close look at the heart of a new Russian atomic icebreaker. Soviet officials had balked at first.

In a farewell speech at the airport, Nixon said the United States is aware that the differences between it and the Soviet Union are not easy to eliminate.

"It is necessary to have discussions at the conference table so that we may achieve an agreed solution," he said.

Nixon expressed confidence that if conferences are held, ways can be found toward adjustment of differences and to peace.

The vice president said Premier Nikita Khrushchev and other Soviet leaders had assured him of their desire to achieve this aim. He said the Americans are equally willing to achieve friendship and peace through negotiations.

Nixon and Rickover, father of America's atomic submarines, collided with Soviet restrictions Monday as they toured the 16,000-ton Lenin nearing completion in Leningrad.

Rickover protested they were getting a run-around because they were allowed only a long-range look at the three reactors that will power the ship. He said Soviet First Deputy Premier Frol R. Kozlov, on his visit to the United States, had been given a close look at American atomic installations and "we answered every question he asked."

"I want to see the insides," demanded Rickover. Nixon backed him up.

The shipyard master refused at first but was overruled by higher Soviet officials. Rickover then made a two-hour inspection of "everything I wanted to see." The reactors themselves were inactive.

He emerged to describe the pride of the Red navy "a fine job" but said, "it does not represent an advance in the reactor art."

The incident at the shipyard was the only disconcerting note of the first stop of the Nixon party's five-day tour outside Moscow.

Nixon was reported seriously considering recommending to President Eisenhower that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev be invited to visit the United States.

Won't Drop Ironton Case, DiSalle Says

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's attorney general can call a special grand jury for investigations, Gov. Michael V. DiSalle has pointed out.

But whether such action will be taken in connection with an investigation of an April hearing in Ironton Municipal Court remains to be seen.

DiSalle made the statement Monday after learning that Common Pleas Judge Warren Earhart denied a motion by an aide of Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy to give McElroy full charge of the Lawrence County grand jury investigation.

The whole matter stems from an accusation by the governor that Orville Elias, formerly with the Ohio Department of Industrial Relations, represented himself as someone else at the hearing three months ago.

It concerned charges by the Ohio Health Department that former State Sen. Oakley C. Collins of Ironton failed to obtain a permit to build an apartment-office building in nearby Hanging Rock. The charges were dismissed.

Collins and Elias have denied DiSalle's accusation, and Elias has filed a $400,000 libel suit against the governor.

DiSalle did not say McElroy will call a special grand jury, but commented: "We are not going to drop it (the case)."

DiSalle Scheduled In Miami Debate On Death Penalty

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — There's going to be a debate in Miami, Fla. on Aug. 24, during the American Bar Assn. meeting. The subject will be capital punishment, and Ohio's Gov. Michael V. DiSalle will argue against it.

And that, says DiSalle, is all he knows about it.

He said he thought originally that Sen. Herman Talmadge of Georgia was to be his opponent. Then Gov. John Patterson of Alabama was mentioned. But DiSalle says he has had no word who will advance the argument for the death penalty.

The meeting in Florida will climax a 10-day vacation for the governor, scheduled to begin after the General Assembly adjourns in mid-August. He attempted to get the Legislature to abolish the death penalty in Ohio, but was successful only in having a legislative study ordered.

DiSalle, Talmadge and Patterson are all Democrats.

Some Western diplomats are now thinking in terms of a larger group made up of three members each from the East and the West with a neutral chairman.

The Big Four conference on Germany may be entering its final phase. If neither side gives ground on the Berlin issue the conference may end by the middle of next week or sooner.

Some Western diplomats said chances are the new plans will differ enough from the earlier ones to indicate the possibility of a compromise agreement which would lift the Soviet threat to Berlin and clear the way for a summit meeting.

Reports circulated that Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko in recasting his Berlin proposal, might omit direct reference to his previous demand for creation of a committee of East and West Germans to negotiate on German reunification during a truce in the Berlin crisis.

IN loving memory of my father BERNIE NELSON who passed away 1 year ago today July 28, 1958. There was no warning he didn't know That God would come, it was time to go Silently the Angel took him Into the mansion above. There shall be rest from Earth's toiling Safe in the arms of Gods love.—His Daughter, Twila.

3 CARD OF THANKS

WE wish to thank all of our friends and relatives for all the beautiful flowers, help and kind words when our beloved father, SALVATORE TEDESCHI passed away July 8, 1959. We also wish to thank Father John Lyons. Sadly missed by Son, Daughter-in-law, and Grandchildren.
